MATCH PREVIEW

Real Salt Lake is set to return to Rio Tinto Stadium where it will host Seattle Sounders FC on Saturday, September 18 at 7:30 p.m. MT.

Stories to Watch:

The Goals Keep Coming
With its four-goal performance against San Jose, Real Salt Lake has now scored the second-most goals in the Western Conference and the fourth-most in all of Major League Soccer, netting 40 goals in 24 matches while averaging a goal every 54 minutes. That average is the second-best in Club history, with the only lower average coming in 2013 when they scored a goal every 53.6 minutes.

Are They Ready
Real Salt Lake is currently touting a five-game unbeaten streak and a record of 6-2-4 when playing at home. Additionally, RSL has not lost to Seattle at home since May 28, 2011, which marked the lone loss to the Sounders at home in the history of the Club. Captain Albert Rusnák leads the way against Seattle, with two goals and two assists against the Sounders during his RSL career, including the lone goal in the 2-1 loss at Lumen Field on June 23, 2021. Prior to that match Rusnak had only tallied one assist and has since gone on to add six goals and seven assists, combined for the best offensive production on the team.

Connections: Seattle Sounders FC midfielder and Washington native Kelyn Rowe appeared in four matches for Real Salt Lake during the 2019 season. Additionally, Seattle General Manager Garth Lagerwey and Technical Director Craig Waibel both previously served as General Manager for Real Salt Lake, while RSL Technical Director Kurt Schmid was previously an Assistant Coach and Scout for Seattle.

REAL SALT LAKE
2021 GAME NOTES

LAST MATCH RECAP

Real Salt Lake (9-9-6, 33 points) came back from an early deficit to secure all three points with a dramatic 4-3 victory over San Jose Earthquakes

Two goals from Rubio Rubin, a goal and two assists from Albert Rusnak and a goal from Justin Meram were enough to snuff out San Jose.

The first half hour saw a back-and-forth battle in the midfield, with both sides strug-gling to breakout towards their respective goals. Twenty minutes into the match an injury forced Marcelo Silva to exit and the defender was replaced by Erik Holt. Shortly after the substitution in the back, San Jose jumped out in front when Javier Lopez curled a left-footed shot into the goal in the 25th minute. In the remaining 15 minutes Real Salt Lake pestered the Earthquake's defense, putting all six of their shots on target, but to no avail. Then, in the final moment of stoppage time Rubin pounced on a bobbled save to equalize and take the team into the halftime break level.

The second half erupted into an offensive onslaught from both side, combining for five total goals in the final 45 minutes. It was Rusnak who kicked things off, with a rocket from outside the 18-yard-box in the 49th minute, but San Jose was able to quickly answer with Lopez' second goal of the night, leaving the score tied at 2-2.

San Jose once again took the lead in the 65th minute when Lopez capped off his impressive offensive performance with a hat trick, curling in a corner shot. But the lead would not last long as Real Salt Lake equalized in the 71st minute when Rus-nak connected with Meram off a free kick. RSL got their first lead of the night when Rusnak once again set up a picture-perfect cross for Rubin to step onto the end of and place firmly in the net.

Both sides continued to press for goal, and San Jose nearly brought the teams level, but at the top of stoppage time David Ochoa came flying off his line to block what appeared to be a sure equalizing goal from Jackson Yueill. Second-half substi-tute Anderson Julio almost locked it up when he broke out 1-v-1 with the goalkeep-er, but a late run from an Earthquakes defender blocked his attempt at the end line. Ochoa once again saved the day at the death, blocking a hard-hit shot from Oswal-do Alanis, to kill off San Jose's chancing and steal all three points on the road.

RSL PLAYER MILESTONES

Justen Glad is 3 appearances away from 150 regular season appearances for RSL.
Aaron Herrera is 12 appearances away from 100 regular season appearances for RSL.
Damir Kreilach played his 100th regular season appearances for RSL on Saturday July 24 against the Colorado Rapids.
Everton Luiz played his 50th regular season appearance with RSL on August 4 against the LA Galaxy.
Zac MacMath made his 150th regular season appearances in MLS on Saturday, July 31 against the Houston Dynamo.

GENERAL MANAGER ELLIOT FALL

Fall has served in different capacities at Real Salt Lake since 2007. During the 2013-2014 seasons, he worked closely with former General Manager Garth Lagerwey as Director of Soccer Operations. In November of 2014, Fall was named Assistant General Manager and has held that position for five seasons. In each of those roles, he assisted in player acquisition and retention as well as in player development, overseeing the Real Monarchs and the RSL Academy at different stages. A graduate of the University of Utah and Salt Lake City's Judge Memorial Catholic High School, Fall is a lifelong Salt Lake City resident. At 36 years old, he is the youngest General Manager in Major League Soccer.

INTERIM HEAD COACH PABLO MASTROENI

Pablo Mastroeni, 44, joined RSL's staff prior to the 2021 season after one season as an assistant coach with Houston Dynamo FC on the staff of Tab Ramos. The five-time MLS All-Star played 16 seasons in Major League Soccer. He assumed the role of Interim Head Coach of RSL on August 27, 2021.

Following his playing career, Mastroeni took the reins as the Head Coach of the Colorado Rapids in 2014. In 136 games at the helm, he coached the Rapids to the club's all-time best regular-season finish, earning a franchise record 58 points in 2016, finishing second in the Western Conference at 15-6-13, and advancing to the Western Conference Final.

HOMEGROWN LEADERS

Real Salt Lake has led Major League Soccer in minutes played by Academy products in each of the last three seasons and reached the Western Conference Semifinals in 2018 and 2019, totaling nearly 30,000 minutes across those three seasons. With Real Monarchs reaching the USL Championship Final in 2019 and the USL Regular Season Shield in 2017, RSL's youth development structure has shown an ability to develop young players coming through the RSL Academy as well as those joining from other organizations.

2021 GAME NOTES

REAL SALT LAKE 2021 ROSTER NOTES

Last season, RSL failed to qualify for the 2020 Audi MLS Cup Playoffs and now in 2021, aims to return to the postseason with a re-tooled group of returning players and incoming players. Several new faces in attack and a leadership core in the locker room sets up the club to make its mark on MLS in 2021.

GOALKEEPERS:

Zac MacMath – 29 years old, 6'2", 190 pounds

- Recorded three clean sheets and finished with a record of 1-3-3 for Real Salt Lake in 2020.
- Spent four seasons, notched eight shutouts and recorded a 1.14 goals against average with the Colorado Rapids before signing with the Vancouver Whitecaps in 2019, where he went 1-3-4 and recorded a 1.63 goals against average.
- Drafted 5th overall in the 2011 MLS SuperDraft by the Philadelphia Union and posted a 34-39-29 record with 28 shutouts and a 1.37 goals against average in four seasons.

David Ochoa – 20 years old, 6'2", 174 pounds

- A standout of the RSL Academy program from 2016-2019, Ochoa became the youngest goalkeeper to debut at the USL level with a start for the Monarchs against Tampa Bay Rowdies on April 22, 2018
- Recorded 69 saves from 96 shots faced and four clean sheets in 2019 with the Monarchs, including 15 saves in four games throughout the Monarchs title-winning playoff run. Started all 20 of his appearances and recorded a 71.9 percent save rate
- Named to the final 20-man roster for the U.S. U-23 National Team for the 2020 CONCACAF Olympic Qualifying Tournament and recorded one clean sheet in three starts. Received his first call-up at the senior level for a friendly in December 2020.

MATCH PREVIEW

After earning a spot in the Leagues Cup Final by defeating Liga MX side Santos Laguna 1-0 on Tuesday night, Sounders FC (13-4-6, 45 points) travels to Utah to face Real Salt Lake Saturday evening (9-9-6, 33 points) for the first time this year.

Although they have yet to play each other this season, the two sides have a storied history in MLS, being one of the Rave Green's first opponents after joining the league in 2009. They met in Seattle's second-ever MLS match, a 2-0 victory for Sounders FC on March 28, 2009 at Lumen Field.

The series itself is as even as they come, with a 12-12-5 overall regular-season record between the two sides and an even 34-34 goal differential. Both sides have been dominant at home, with Seattle boasting an 11-3-2 record at Lumen Field, while Real Salt Lake has a 9-1-3 mark at Rio Tinto Stadium.

The two teams have also met on a number of occasions in the playoffs, with Sounders FC leading the postseason series 3-1-1, outscoring Real Salt Lake 5-3. The latest playoff matchup came on October 23, 2019, a 2-0 win for Seattle at Lumen Field en route to its second MLS Cup.

Following the match against Real Salt Lake, Sounders prepares for the 2021 Leagues Cup Final against Club León on Wednesday, September 22 at Allegiant Stadium in Las Vegas (7:00 p.m. PT / ESPN2, TUDN). The club then heads to Sporting Kansas City on Sunday, September 26 (4:00 p.m. PT / FS1, 950 KJR AM, El Rey 1360 AM).

SOUNDERS FC GAME NOTES

SERIES AT A GLANCE

The series between Seattle Sounders FC and Real Salt Lake dates back to March 28, 2009, the Rave Green's second-ever MLS match. The two clubs have played each other at least once in every ensuing season, battling to a 12-12-5 all-time regular-season record.

Seattle and RSL have played to an even goal differential in regular-season matchups (34 -34), with the winning side scoring three-plus goals on only four of the 29 regular-season matchups.

The two clubs are also familiar postseason opponents, facing off against each other on five different occasions in the Audi MLS Cup Playoffs. Sounders FC holds a 3-1-1 lead all-time in the postseason, outscoring Real Salt Lake by 5-3. In fact, all three of Salt Lake's goals came during its first game against the Rave Green, a 3-0 win on October 29, 2011.

Home-field advantage has been the biggest factor in the series, with Seattle holding an 11-3-2 advantage at Lumen field, with a plus-14 goal differential. Likewise, Real Salt Lake owns a 9-1-3 record against Seattle at Rio Tinto Stadium, also with a plus-14 goal differential.

SOUNDERS FC GAME NOTES

SFC ADVANCE TO LEAGUES CUP FINAL

Continuing its run in the 2021 Leagues Cup tournament, Sounders FC emerged victorious in dramatic fashion with a 1-0 victory in the semifinals over Liga MX side Santos Laguna Thursday night at Lumen Field. The goal came courtesy of Raúl Ruidíaz, who scored at the death to send the Rave Green to the Leagues Cup Final at Allegiant Stadium in Las Vegas on September 22. Seattle will face Club León, who won its semifinal match 2-0 over Pumas UNAM on Wednesday evening.

Ruidíaz's goal came in the third minute of stoppage time, getting past two defenders on a ball from Sounders FC newcomer Léo Chú and slotting in his second attempt after his first was saved by Santos Laguna goalkeeper Gibran Lajud. It was the second goal of the tournament for the Peruvian, who also scored in the club's 3-0 win over Tigres UANL in the quarterfinals.

Seattle is now 6-8-2 all-time against Liga MX sides, with all fixtures prior to this season's Leagues Cup matches coming in Concacaf Champions League play. This is the first season the club has competed in Leagues Cup, the official annual single-elimination tournament featuring clubs from MLS and Liga MX, Mexico's topflight league. Sounders FC is unbeaten in its last four home matches vs. Mexican sides (3-0-1) dating back to 2016.

STEFAN FREI SHUTS OUT IN RETURN

Stefan Frei returned to the pitch September 11, having not played since suffering a knee injury on May 12 against San Jose Earthquakes. He recorded four saves en route to Seattle's 1-0 shutout victory. He followed that performance up with another clean sheet in Sounders FC's 1-0 win over Santos Laguna in the Leagues Cup semifinals. Sounders FC's all-time leader in every goalkeeping category, Frei has allowed just two goals in 629 minutes of action across all competitions this season.

Under the guidance of Club Director of Goalkeeping Tom Dutra, Sounders FC's goalkeeping unit did well in Frei's absence. Stefan Cleveland maintained a 1.13 goals against average in 15 regular-season appearances for Seattle, in addition to a shutout in the Leagues Cup quarterfinals vs. Tigres. Spencer Richey has also recorded a pair of clean sheets in his two appearances this season.

SOUNDERS FC BY THE NUMBERS

1: Loss in 10 away matches this season for Sounders FC (7-1-2), the fewest road losses in MLS this year.

2: Number of shoutouts in as many matches that Stefan Frei has recorded since returning from injury.

5: Sounders FC players called up to international duty for 2022 FIFA World Cup qualifiers in September.

RUIDÍAZ PASSES DEMPSEY

With his late winner against Santos Laguna on Tuesday night, Seattle Sounders FC forward Raúl Ruidíaz passed Clint Dempsey for second on the club's all-time goal list across all competitions goals with 58. Only teammate Fredy Montero has more career goals with the club, bagging 67 in his career in Seattle thus far.

Since signing with the team in 2018, Ruidíaz has been flying up the all-time scoring list, hitting 50 goals in all competitions earlier this season after just three years with the team.

His goal in the Leagues Cup Semifinals match was his second of the tournament, and is currently in second place in the MLS Golden Boot race with 14 regular-season goals. He is behind D.C. United's Ola Kamara who has 16 goals on the season.

SOUNDERS FC GAME NOTES

INTERNATIONAL SOUNDERS

Five Sounders FC players were called into international duty in early September, as Alex Roldan, Crisitan Roldan, Raúl Ruidíaz, Brad Smith and Xavier Arreaga joined El Salvador, the United States, Peru, Australia and Ecuador, respectively, for 2022 FIFA World Cup Qualifying matches.

Alex Roldan, 25, earned his second career call-up for El Salvador, previously getting the nod for the team's 2021 Concacaf Gold Cup tournament run. The Central American side drew 0-0 with the United States and Honduras and lost 3-0 to Canada.

Cristian Roldan, 26, was called up for World Cup Qualifying matches for the first time in his career. He has previously competed in friendlies, Gold Cup and Nations League matches. The United States drew 0-0 with El Salvador and 1-1 with Canada before defeating Honduras 4-1.

Ruidíaz, 31, has appeared in four matches so far for the country's 2022 World Cup Qualifying campaign. Peru drew with Uruguay 1-1 on September 2, beat Venezuela 1-0 on September 5 and fell 2-0 to Brazil on September 9.

Arreaga, 26, has played in six matches during Ecuador's 2022 FIFA World Cup Qualifying campaign so far and scored a goal in a 6-1 win over Colombia. Ecuador defeated Paraguay 2-0 on September 2, drew with Chile 0-0 on September 5 and lost 1-0 to Uruguay on September 9.

Smith, 27, had two starts in 2022 FIFA World Cup Qualifiers before this callup, both of which were victories. Smith had previously appeared in 12 matches (11 starts) during the Socceroos' 2018 FIFA World Cup Qualifying campaign. Australia defeated China 3-0 on September 2 and Vietnam 1-0 on September 7.

LÉO CHÚ'S DEBUT

In the 82nd minute of Tuesday's Leagues Cup match, Sounders FC newcomer Léo Chú made his debut for the Rave Green. The 21-year-old was signed from Brazilian club Grêmio on August 5 using MLS's U-22 Initiative.

Chú played a vital role in securing the victory for Seattle, feeding the through ball to Raúl Ruidíaz that led to the game-winning, 93rd-minute goal.

SOUNDERS DEFEAT MINNESOTA

João Paulo scored his second goal of the season as Sounders FC defeated Minnesota United FC 1-0 on September 11 at Lumen Field. The win snapped a four-match home winless streak (0-3-1) for Seattle, as the Rave Green remain atop the Western Conference standings, three points clear of Colorado. Goalkeeper Stefan Frei recorded the shutout in his first appearance since suffering a knee injury on May 12 in San Jose.

João Paulo put Seattle on the board early on a well-constructed goal, with assists from Nicolás Lodeiro and Nicolas Benezet. Lodeiro played Benezet into space on the right side of the 18-yard-box, setting up the Frenchman for a low cross to João Paulo at the top of the area. The Brazilian hit a first-time shot that rolled just inside the far post, hitting the woodwork on its way into the back of the net. It marked the first Sounders FC assist for Benezet, as well as the first assist of the season for Lodeiro.

SEA MAR VACCINATION EVENT

On September 13 Seattle Sounders FC and Orlegi Sports, the business entity that operates Liga MX side Santos Laguna, held a rally and vaccination event ahead of their Leagues Cup semifinals match on September 14. The teams joined forces to celebrate the beautiful game, kick off Latinx Heritage Month activities and promote community health.

Those who were vaccinated received two free tickets to the match, and the first 100 people to get vaccinated also were given $100 courtesy of Sea Mar Health.

In addition to the event, Sounders FC and Santos Laguna donated four autographed jerseys apiece to the Sea Mar Museum, which will be used for a special Latinx Heritage Month promotion. Each week during Latinx Heritage Month – from September 15 through October 15 – those visiting the museum can be entered to win a jersey from either club.

ALL ABOUT TROPHIES

In addition to the standout results in the regular season, Sounders FC has seven major trophies since joining MLS, including two MLS Cups (2016 and 2019), one Supporters' Shield (2014) and four Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cups (2009, 2010, 2011, 2014). Seattle has also advanced to the Scotiabank CONCACAF Champions League Knockout Round on three occasions (2011-2012, 2012-2013, 2015-2016). The Rave Green rank first in MLS with seven trophies and are one of just seven clubs to earn more than one piece of hardware since 2009.
