BOB BRADLEY

HEAD COACH

Bob Bradley was named as Toronto FC's head coach and sporting director on November 24, 2021. Bradley, 63, a three-time MLS Coach of the Year, became the 12th head coach in TFC history and brings over 20 years of head coaching experience to Toronto.

In MLS, Bradley was the first head coach in Chicago Fire history and led the expansion team to the 1998 MLS Cup Championship and U.S. Open Cup Double while earning his first MLS Coach of the Year award. The Fire also played in the 2000 MLS Cup final, where they were defeated 1-0 by Kansas City. Bradley served as the head coach for the New York/New Jersey Metrostars (now New York Red Bulls) from 2003-2005 and Chivas USA in 2006, where he was named the MLS Coach of the Year for elevating the second-year team into the playoffs for the first time.

In the international game, Bradley had a 43-25-12 record as the head coach of the U.S. National Team from 2006-2011 and a record of 22-8-6 as the head coach of Egypt from 2011-2013. The New Jersey native led the U.S. to the 2007 CONCACAF Gold Cup title and qualified the US for the 2010 FIFA World Cup, where they won their group ahead of England, Slovenia and Algeria, before bowing out in the Round of 16 to Ghana. Bradley also led the US to the final of the 2009 FIFA Confederations Cup in South Africa, where they were defeated 3-2 by Brazil. It remains the only appearance by the US men's team in a FIFA sanctioned final. As the coach of Egypt, Bradley's Pharaohs had a perfect 6-0-0 record in the first stage of African World Cup qualifying for Brazil 2014 but were ultimately eliminated by Ghana in a two-game aggregate.

Bradley's club coaching resume also includes three stops in Europe, having coached Stabæk in Norway's Eliteserien (2014-15), Le Havre in France's Ligue 2 (2015-16), and Swansea City of the English Premier League (2016), where he became the first American to manage a Premier League club.

Named as the first coach in LAFC history in July of 2017, Bradley led the club to 57 points in 2018, the most points ever recorded by a first-year club in league history. In 2019, LAFC set what was then a league record with 72 points in the regular season. The 2019 edition of LAFC led MLS with 85 goals while also allowing the fewest goals (37) of any team in the league. The +48-goal differential was 27 goals better than any other team in the league. Bradley earned his third MLS Coach of the Year award following the record-breaking regular season and capturing the MLS Supporters' Shield in 2019. In 2020, LAFC advanced to the final of the Scotiabank Concacaf Champions League, knocking off three of Mexico's most famous teams (León, Cruz Azul, and Club América) before losing 2-1 to Tigres UANL in the final.

Bradley joins TFC with the third-most regular season wins (182) in league history and has led teams to an MLS Cup (1998 Chicago Fire), an MLS Supporters' Shield (2019 Los Angeles FC) and two US Open Cup (1998 and 2000 Chicago Fire) titles during his years in Major League Soccer.
