AUDI 2022 MLS CUP PLAYOFFS

QUALIFICATION:

At the end of the 2022 MLS Regular Season, the top seven teams from both the Eastern Conference and the Western Conference (14 clubs total) will qualify for the Audi 2022 MLS Cup Playoffs. The Audi MLS Cup Playoffs will again consist of single-elimination matches hosted by the higher-seeded team and follow a straight bracket format through MLS Cup on Nov. 5.

Qualification for the Audi 2022 MLS Cup Playoffs will be determined by the highest number of points earned in each respective conference if every club plays the same number of matches during the MLS Regular Season (three points for a win, one point for a tie, zero points for a loss).

In the event that any club in a conference is unable to play its full 34 match schedule due to cancellation of one or more matches, qualification for the Audi 2022 MLS Cup Playoffs in that conference will be determined by points earned on a per match basis, or points per game.

MLS clubs must play at least 30 games to qualify for the postseason unless a club is unable to reach 30 games due to one of the following factors:

- A club's opponent is unable to play a match due to COVID-19 protocols.
- MLS, in its sole discretion, including for competitive reasons, has determined not to reschedule a match.
- The club has had matches postponed or cancelled for other reasons.

TEAM STANDINGS, TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURES:

The team awarded the highest position in the MLS standings will be the team with the greatest number of points (three points for a win, one point for a tie, zero points for a loss). In the event that any club in a conference is unable to play its full 34 match schedule due to cancellation of any match or matches, and all teams do not end the season with the same number of matches played, qualification for the Audi 2022 MLS Cup Playoffs in that conference will be determined by points earned on a per match basis, or points per game.

In the event that two or more teams finish the regular season with an equal number of points (or points per game), the following tiebreakers will be used. If points per match are used, the tiebreakers will be used on a per match basis.

1. Total number of wins per match
2. Goal Differential (GD) per match (Goals For per match minus Goals Against per match)
3. Goals For (GF) per match
4. Fewest Disciplinary Points* per match
5. Away Goals Differential per Away match (Away Goals For per Away match minus Away Goals Against per Away match)
6. Away Goals For per Away match
7. Home Goals Differential per Home match (Home Goals For per Home match minus Home Goals Against per Home match)
8. Home Goals For per Home match
9. Coin Toss (tie of two clubs) or Drawing of Lots (tie of three or more clubs)

When two or more teams are tied in the standings on points (or points per game if utilized), the above tiebreakers will be used until one team ranks ahead of the other(s).

After the winner of the MLS Regular Season Tiebreaker advances, any remaining tied clubs not advancing from the first round MLS Regular Season Tiebreaker shall again go through a second round MLS Regular Season Tiebreaker in order to determine the next advancing club. The MLS Regular Season Tiebreaker system will continue until qualification/seeding has been determined.

TIEBREAKER EXAMPLE:

Club	Points	Total Wins	Goal Differential	Goals For	Disciplinary Points
Team A	45	15	11	8	400
Team B	45	15	11	4	300
Team C	45	14	10	9	200

*In this example, when the three clubs go through the first round of the MLS Regular Season Tiebreaker, Team A advances as they have the most “Goals For” (Tiebreaker #3) after Team C is eliminated from contention due to only having 14 wins in relation to Team A and B’s 15 in the first column of the comparison. The remaining tied clubs, Team B and Team C, then go through a second round MLS Regular Season Tiebreaker, wherein Team B next advances as the club with the best “Total Wins (Tiebreaker #1).

DISCIPLINARY POINTS:

- Foul - 1 Point
- Technical Staff Warnings - 2 Points
- Yellow Card - 3 Points
- 2nd Yellow Card - 7 Points
- Straight Red Card - 7 Points

When an individual receives a second yellow card, the club will receive a maximum of seven points total.
 *A club can only receive a maximum of seven points for any individual incident.

AUDI MLS CUP PLAYOFFS MATCH PROCEDURES

Player Substitutions

Teams will have a maximum of five normal substitutions over the course of three opportunities, excluding halftime, and two concussion substitutions available for the duration of an Audi MLS Cup Playoff game, including extra time. Clubs may carry over any unused substitution(s) and opportunities from regulation into extra time. However, no additional substitutions (a sixth substitute) will be added for extra time periods.

- If a Club does not use all five of their permitted substitutions and all three of their opportunities during regulation, they are permitted to use them during the 15-minute extra time periods if the club still has an opportunity or opportunities available.
- Available substitutions during extra time can be used during the period between the end of regulation and the start of the first extra time period, or after the end of the first 15-minute extra time period without an opportunity.

Video Review

Video Review will be implemented at all Audi MLS Cup Playoff matches and MLS Cup.

AUDI MLS CUP PLAYOFFS DISCIPLINARY GUIDELINES:

- Yellow card accumulation thresholds for players, coaches, and team officials are reset entering the Audi MLS Cup Playoffs.
- A player, coach, or team official who reaches an accumulation threshold in the last 2022 MLS Regular Season match (e.g. 3rd for coaches and team officials, 5th, 8th, etc. for players) is eligible for the first match of the Audi MLS Cup Playoffs and is eligible for the first regular season match of 2023.
- A player, coach, or team official who receives a red card or second yellow in his last 2022 MLS Regular Season match is suspended for the next match for which that individual is eligible, including the first match of the Audi MLS Cup Playoffs or the first regular season match of 2023.
- A player, coach, or team official sanctioned by the MLS Disciplinary Committee during the 2022 MLS Regular Season and/or Audi 2022 MLS Cup Playoffs will have any corresponding suspension applied to the next match(es) for which that individual is eligible, including Audi MLS Cup Playoff match(es) or the next season's regular season match(es).

Yellow Card Accumulation During Audi MLS Cup Playoffs

Once the Audi MLS Cup Playoffs begin and up until MLS Cup (when playoff yellow card accumulation will again reset):

- A player receiving a yellow card in Round One and a yellow card in the Conference Semifinal will be suspended for the Conference Championship. For clarification, a player who is issued/receives a second cumulative yellow card in the Conference Championship is eligible to play in MLS Cup.
- If a player's club does not advance to the next round of the Audi MLS Cup Playoffs after the player receives a second yellow card in consecutive matches, the suspension will not carry over into the next MLS Regular Season.
- A player who is issued two yellow cards in the same match is suspended for his next match for which he is eligible, including an Audi MLS Cup Playoffs round match, MLS Cup, and/or his next MLS Regular Season match.

If a coach or staff member receives a total of two yellow cards during the Audi MLS Cup Playoffs, that individual will be suspended for the next match unless the next match is MLS Cup. To clarify, a team official who receives their second yellow card in the Conference Final will be available for MLS Cup.

Yellow card(s) issued during the match (regulation and extra time) do not carry over to kicks from the penalty mark. A player or team official who receives a yellow card during both the match (including extra time) and kicks from the penalty mark is not sent off.

- Example 1: The goalkeeper is cautioned in the regulation portion of a match. The same goalkeeper is cautioned during kicks from the penalty mark. The goalkeeper is not sent off during the match but is suspended for his next Audi MLS Cup Playoff match due to Yellow Card Accumulation.
- Example 2: Any player or team Official cautioned twice during regulation (including extra time) or twice during kicks from the penalty mark is sent off and suspended next match.

Red Card and Yellow Card Accumulation During Audi MLS Cup Playoffs

A player receiving a straight red card in the same match in which he previously received a second cumulative yellow card will be suspended for his next Audi MLS Cup Playoffs match.

- Example: A player receives a yellow card in his Round One match. He then receives a yellow card and a straight red card (not a second yellow) in the Conference Semifinal. The player will serve his red card suspension during the Conference Final. However, yellow cards reset before MLS Cup, and the player will be eligible to play in the championship match.

Red Card Suspensions

A player who receives a red card in any Audi MLS Cup Playoff match, whether it is a straight red card or two yellow cards, is suspended for his next match.

- Example: If the red card is issued during his club's last postseason match, including MLS Cup, the suspension carries over to the first Regular Season match of 2023 MLS Regular Season.
- Example: If the player receives a straight red card in the Conference Final, and his team advances, that player will serve his red card suspension in MLS Cup.

AUDI MLS CUP PLAYOFFS - MLS DISCIPLINARY COMMITTEE

Disciplinary Committee sanctions will be applied to the next match in which a player is eligible, including any round of the Audi MLS Cup Playoffs, MLS Cup, or the 2023 MLS Regular Season.

If a player receives a yellow card in a game, but the MLS Disciplinary Committee issues a one match (or more) suspension, the original yellow card will not be counted toward the player's yellow card accumulation total.

All incidents reviewed by the MLS Disciplinary Committee in the Audi MLS Cup Playoffs will be evaluated through the same process as the MLS Regular Season and will be consistent with parameters outlined in the 2022 MLS Competition Guidelines.

AUDI MLS CUP PLAYOFFS MATCH DELAY, CANCELLATION, & FORFEITURE PROCESS

In cases where MLS has determined that a club is unable to play on a scheduled Audi 2022 MLS Cup Playoffs date and the league has determined that the match cannot be rescheduled, the club that is unable to play will forfeit the match and its opponent will advance. . For the final game of the MLS Regular Season and in the MLS Playoffs, a forfeited match will count as a completed match as it relates to individual discipline (i.e., yellow card accumulation, Good Behavior Incentive, suspension, etc.). In such a case, the forfeited match will serve as the player's suspension and the player WILL BE eligible for his first/next match of the MLS Playoffs unless the suspension involved multiple matches.

In cases where MLS has determined that both clubs are unable to play on a scheduled Audi 2022 MLS Cup Playoffs date and the league has determined that the match cannot be rescheduled, the club with the higher points per game earned through the MLS Regular Season will advance.

Any player who was in-play on the field during an Audi MLS Cup Playoffs match at the time the match was postponed, and who is subsequently injured or unavailable to participate before the resumption of the match, can only be replaced by a substitute on the official match roster of the postponed match (subject to the same goalkeeper exceptions as during the regular season). In the Audi MLS Cup Playoffs, this substitution can only be made if the club has an available substitution remaining, and such substitute will count against a club's normally allotted number of substitutions.

2022 MLS SEASON NOTES

LAFc ended the season with 21 victories – tied for the third most of any team since the end of the shootout era (since 2000). The total is tied for the sixth-most in a single season in league annals including every campaign, the record of 24 wins in a season set in 1998 by both D.C. United (7 shootout wins) and the Los Angeles Galaxy (2 shootout wins). In the league’s 27 seasons, just 17 teams have ever reached the 20-win plateau – just eight of those since the 2000 season, including CF Montréal this season.

This mark was the second best in a single season in MLS history, behind only Real Salt Lake’s record of 0.67 in 2010. The Union’s previous best defensive season came in 2020 when they conceded just 20 goals in 23 games (0.87).

Additionally, CF Montréal produced the most points on the road in a season (excluding shootouts) with 35.

CF Montréal also became the only team outside of the shootout era to win seven-consecutive matches away from home, when they did so from July 23 to MLS Decision Day 2022 on October 9. Only two other road winning streaks have lasted seven games in MLS history – the 1999 D.C. United and the 1997-98 LA Galaxy, which both included shootouts. 2022 MLS SEASON NOTES

JULIAN GOES FOR TWO: Only three players scored multiple hat tricks in the 2022 season – Philadelphia’s Julian Carranza and Dániel Gazdag, and FC Cincinnati’s Brenner. Of the two, Carranza made history by becoming the second player in MLS history to score two hat tricks against the same team in a single season. Carranza produced two hat tricks against D.C. United in 2022 and joined the LA Galaxy’s Cobi Jones (vs. Colorado in 1998) as the only players to do so.

DEJAN SUPER SUB: The Galaxy’s Dejan Joveljic produced one of the best seasons as a substitute in MLS history. The Serbian scored eight goals off the bench in 2022, which was the second-most in league history, behind only Wolde Harris’ 10 for Colorado in 1998. Additionally, on May 29 against Austin FC, Joveljic came on in the 57th minute and became the first player to produce four goal contributions (two goals, two assists) as a substitute.

COMING UP BIG WHEN IT MATTERS MOST: On June 25, Inter Miami’s Indiana Vassilev became the fifth player in MLS history to score both the game-tying and game-winning goal in the 87th minute or later in regulation. Additionally, Vassilev was the only player of the five to do so when entering the game in the 80th minute or later. On October 1, the Columbus Crew’s Derrick Etienne accomplished this when he scored in the 89th and 93rd minute.

CUCHO'S HOT START: One of the players to make the biggest impact after entering MLS in the summer was Juan 'Cucho' Hernandez for the Columbus Crew. Mukhtar was the first player to accomplish this since Darwin Quintero in July 2018.

HAT TRICK OFF THE BENCH: With Austin FC needing a win to clinch a berth in the Audi 2022 MLS Cup Playoffs, Moussa Djitté came off the bench and scored a hat trick, becoming the sixth player in MLS history to do so. Djitté joined the LA Galaxy's Harut Karapetyan (6/4/1998) as the only ones to score the three goals after entering a match in the 55th minute or later. The Senegalese forward was also the first player in Austin FC history to record a hat trick.

MLS CUP PLAYOFFS: HOW THEY GOT HERE

Who Qualified: The top four teams from both the Eastern and Western Conferences were seeded to start the conference semifinals, with the 1 seeds playing the number 4's and the No. 2's vs. No. 3's.

Format: Both the Conference Semifinals (first round) and Conference Finals (second round) were designed on a Best-of-Three format with the first game hosted by the lower-seeded team and the final two games (Game Three if necessary) at the home of the higher seeded team. The first team to win two games in regulation or via the shootout advanced to the next playoff round (since the shootout was in place from 1996-1999 no games ended in ties).

Who Qualified: As in 1996, the top four teams in each conference advanced to the MLS Cup Playoffs.

Format: As in 1996, a Best-of-Three format was utilized in the Conference Semifinals and Conference Finals (no games ended in ties due to the shootout). However, a change to the format allowed the higher seeded teams to host Game One and Game Three, unlike in 1996 when the higher seed played Games Two and Three (if necessary) at home.

Who Qualified: With the introduction of a new three-division alignment in 2000, a single playoff table was established to determine postseason berths and seeds.

Although a two-conference alignment was re-introduced in 2002 following the contraction of Miami and Tampa Bay, the system based on the single playoff table remained. The single playoff table ensured that only the League's eight best teams during the regular season qualified for post-season play, eliminating situations like what occurred in 1999, when the San Jose Clash failed to qualify for the playoffs despite finishing with more points (37) than the No. 3 and No. 4 seeds in the Eastern Conference.

The three division winners (2000-01) or two conference champions (2002) were given automatic top seeds entering the postseason. The rest of the field was seeded according to final regular season point totals regardless of conference affiliation.

Format: During the first round, the seeding placed seed No. 1 vs. No. 8, No. 2 vs. No. 7, No. 3 vs. No. 6 and No. 4 vs. No. 5 in the MLS Cup Playoff Quarterfinals. In the semifinal round, the winner of the 1 vs. 8 series advanced to face the winner of the 4 vs. 5 series, while the victors of the 3 vs. 6 and 2 vs. 7 series played for the right to compete in MLS Cup.

The team that advanced was based on a "first-to-five-points" format with a win earning three points and a tie one point (ties were first introduced in MLS in the 2000 regular season in conjunction with the elimination of the shootout). The first team to compile five points or more in three games advanced to the following round. If the series was tied in points after a Game Three, a 20-minute golden-goal Series Tiebreaker was played, followed by penalty kicks if necessary. As was the case from 1997-1999, the higher seed hosted Game One and Game Three in each series.

Who Qualified: As was the case between 1996 and 1999, the top four teams in each conference advance to the Conference Semifinals.

Format: Conference Semifinal series are conducted under a home-and-home, aggregate-goal format. The aggregate goal format follows the lead of various international competitions, including Europe's UEFA Champions League and South America's Copa Libertadores. In the case that teams are tied on aggregate goals following the conclusion of Game 2 of the Conference Semifinal series, a 30-minute extra time period is played followed by penalty kicks if necessary. The two teams left standing in each conference after the Conference Semifinals will meet in the single-game Conference Championship to be hosted by the higher seed. The winners of each Conference Championship advance to MLS Cup.

Who Qualified: In 2007, 2009 and 2010, the top two teams in each conference qualified and were seeded 1 & 2 in their respective four-team playoff conference brackets. The four MLS teams with the next most points, regardless of conference, received "wild card" berths. The four wildcard teams were seeded according to conference first. If more than four teams qualified from one conference, those finishing lower than fourth in their conference shifted over to the other conference bracket. A team switching conference brackets was seeded below all other teams in its new conference playoff bracket. For 2008, the top three teams in each conference qualified, with the next four teams with the most points, regardless of conference, receiving "wildcard" berths.

Format: Same as from 2003-2006.

Who Qualified: Beginning in 2011, 10 teams qualified for the playoffs. The top three finishers in each conference, based on regular season points, were given automatic berths. The next best four clubs based on regular season points, irrespective of conference, received wild cards.

Format: The four wild cards played single elimination games against each other, with higher seeds hosting (1 vs. 4; 2 vs. 3). These play-in games are part of the MLS Cup Playoffs. After the two play-in games, the lowest remaining seed faced the Supporters' Shield winner in the Conference Semifinals; the other faced the No. 1 seed in the opposite conference from the Supporters' Shield winner. The No. 2 and No. 3 placed teams in each conference met in the semifinals, with the higher seed holding homefield advantage for the second leg. The winners of the Conference Semifinal Series met in a one-game Conference Championship, hosted by the highest seeds, with the winners advancing to MLS Cup.

Who Qualified: Ten teams qualified for the playoffs. The top five in points from each conference at the end of the regular season, qualified for the MLS Cup Playoffs.

Format:

The fourth and fifth place teams in each conference played a single knockout game, the winner of which advanced to the Conference Semifinals and faced the first place team in the conference. The four Conference Semifinals were two-game aggregate series, with the lower seed hosting the first leg and the higher seed hosting the second leg. The two Conference Championships were two-game aggregate series, with the lower seed hosting the first leg and the higher seed hosting the second leg. MLS Cup was a single championship match hosted by the higher seed.

2015-18

Who Qualified: Twelve teams qualified for the playoffs. The top six in points from each conference at the end of the regular season, qualified for the MLS Cup Playoffs.

Format:

The third seed played the sixth seed, and the fourth seed played the fifth seed, in each conference in a single knockout game. The lowerseeded winners of the Knockout Round advanced to the Conference Semifinals and faced the first-place team in each conference; the higher-seeded winners of the Knockout Round advanced to the Conference Semifinals and faced the second-place team in the conference. The four Conference Semifinals were two-game aggregate series, with the lower seed hosting the first leg and the higher seed hosting the second leg. The two Conference Championships were two-game aggregate series, with the lower seed hosting the first leg and the higher seed hosting the second leg. MLS Cup was a single championship match hosted by the higher seed.

2019-22 (excluding 2020)

Who Qualified: Fourteen teams qualified for the playoffs. The top seven in points from each conference at the end of the regular season, qualified for the MLS Cup Playoffs.

Format:

In 2019, a straight single-elimination knockout bracket was introduced. Only the top seed in each conference receives a first-round bye, while the higher-seeded clubs host all matches. The top seed in the conference plays the winner of the fourth seed and fifth seed in the Conference Semifinals. The winners of the matchups between the third and sixth seed, and second and seventh seed meet in the other Conference Semifinals. Winners of the Conference Semifinals play in the two Conference Finals, which are hosted by the higher seeds. The winners of each Conference Final advance to MLS Cup, hosted by the higher seed.
