REAL MONARCHS

2021 GAME NOTES

LAST TIME VS OPPONENT

Real Monarchs (0-2-2, 2 points) fell 2-0 on the road to Austin Bold FC at Bold Stadium on Wednesday night.

A first-half penalty and a stoppage time goal were enough to give the home side the victory.

The Monarchs had several chances to take the lead in an evenly-possessed first half, but Austin Bold FC struck first. Following a foul in the box by the Monarchs defense, Sean Okoli converted the penalty to give the Bold the lead at the break.

The closest chance of the night for Real Monarchs came late in the 74th minute. Following a free kick into the box by defender Noah Powder, defender Jaziel Orozco's shot hit the right corner of the crossbar to deny the equalizer. Austin doubled the lead in the fourth minute of stoppage time with a goal from Jorge Troncoso and the match finished 2-0.

LAST MATCH RECAP

Real Monarchs (2-7-4, 10 points) fell 3-1 to El Paso Locomotive FC in a hard-fought match at Zions Bank Stadium on Friday night. Aris Briggs scored his third goal in as many matches, but three goals from El Paso Locomotive FC were enough for the away side to take the victory.

El Paso struck first with a goal from Luis Solignac in the ninth minute of the match. Despite going down early, the Monarchs came back just 10 minutes later when Milan Iloski found Briggs on a breakaway and the forward rounded the keeper to fire the equalizer into an empty net.

Locomotive FC took the lead back in the second half with a goal from Diego Luna in the 74th minute. The Monarchs had several chances to climb back into the game to no avail and the match ended 3-1 in favor of the visitors.

SEASON STORYLINES

Youngest Signings in Club History

The Real Monarchs will be featuring two of the youngest signings in club history in its seventh season. In January, Real Salt Lake signed RSL Academy product and Herriman City native Jeff Dewsnap. At 16-years-old the goalkeeper became the youngest signing in RSL history and the first-ever Herriman City native to sign for the club. The Monarchs then made 15-year-old Julio Benitez its youngest-ever signing when he signed with the team in March. The midfielder was also an RSL Academy stand-out.

Welcome in the Kiwis

In back-to-back months during the offseason the Monarchs signed the team's first-ever players from New Zealand. The first was 20-year-old forward Max Mata who arrived from Switzerland where he spent time with the second tier of Grasshopper, scoring five goals in 10 matches. The second was 24-year-old Kyle Adams from the Houston Dynamo FC where he appeared in 61 matches for Houston's USL Championship affiliate, Rio Grande Valley FC.

Columbian Trio

As the Monarchs continued to revamp its roster this offseason, the team signed three young players from Columbia. 21-year-old defender Kevin Saucedo signed with the Monarchs after spending the 2020 season with Colombian Categoria Primera A side Millonarios F.C. He represented Columbia in the 2019 FIFA U-20 World Cup. In January, the Monarchs signed its second Columbian of the offseason in Brayan Gomez. The 21-year-old midfielder played for CDC Atletico Nacional at the U-20 level in Columbia. Internationally, Gomez represented Columbia in the 2017 FIFA U-17 World Cup alongside his Real Monarchs teammate Juan Vidal. 20-year-old Vidal is the third Columbian on the roster this season who joins the club from CF Barranquilla.

Real Monarchs 2.0

2021 marks the beginning of the Real Monarchs 2.0, a new blueprint set by the front office to optimize the roster and promote opportunity and growth within the club. The Monarchs are shifting focus to signing promising young internationals and promoting heavily from the RSL Academy. With eight new international signings joining James Moberg, Sam Brown and Jimmy Slayton, there are now a lot of roster spots available for Academy products to see the pitch and make an impact. Headlined by Benitez, Academy youngsters are expected to make up almost a third of the roster this season.
