RAISE FOR P.L.A.Y.S.

Saturday's match will be dedicated to celebrating the Chicago community and raising awareness and resources to fuel the Foundation's sports-based youth and direct-service programs in our city's most under-resourced communities. Fans can purchase 50/50 raffle tickets to support the P.L.A.Y.S. Program by visiting Fire5050.com. The 50/50 raffle will feature a guaranteed jackpot of $20,000 - the largest in Club history.

Proceeds from the raffle will benefit the Fire Foundation's award-winning P.L.A.Y.S. (Participate, Learn, Achieve, Youth, Soccer) Program, which aims to enhance the academic performance and development of key social and emotional (SEL) skills of elementary school students through a sports-based curriculum.

MATCH NOTES

GENERATION MLS NEXT

The Chicago Fire FC U-19 Academy won the inaugural MLS Next Championship with a 1-0 victory against Solar SC on Saturday, July 3 at Toyota Stadium in Frisco, Texas. The Fire also took home the Golden Boot and Golden Ball for the tournament.

Missael Rodríguez scored the lone goal for the Fire in the 80th minute when Max Viera sent a ball high ball to the top of the six-yard box. Rodríguez had his back to the goal and flicked Viera's pass behind him with his head. The Solar SC goalkeeper was caught off his line and Rodríguez's header went over him and into the open net.

Led by head coach Ludovic Taillandier and assistant coach Patrick Nyarko, the Fire U-19 squad finished the tournament with a 5-0-0 record. The Fire scored 17 goals, conceding only four.

The Chicago Fire Academy last claimed a national title in 2015, when the U-17/18 team won the U.S. Soccer Development Academy national championship with a 3-1 victory over Real Salt Lake-Arizona. The U-15/16 team previously captured the 2010 championship, the first in program history.

NEW FACES: OFFOR YOU CAN'T REFUSE

Offor made his MLS debut on April 17, going 74 minutes in the Fire's 2-2 tie with New England Revolution at Soldier Field. He joins the Fire after spending the past two-and-a-half seasons in the Latvian first division, where he notched 16 goals and seven assists in 40 games played across all competitions. He is under contract with the Fire through the 2023 season with a Club option for the 2024 season. The striker originally began his professional career in 2019 with BFC Daugavpils. In two seasons with the Club, he scored 10 goals in 23 appearances (22 starts). Since signing with FK Rīgas Futbola Skola on July 19, Offor has scored six goals in 13 league appearances in 2020. He also made one appearance in the UEFA Europa League, featuring against Serbian powerhouse FK Partizan on Aug. 27.

NEW FACES: HERE'S JHONNY!

Espinoza made his MLS debut on April 24, coming in as a sub for forward Chinonso Offor in the 3-1 loss to Atlanta United FC. Since making his professional debut on Dec. 12, 2017, Espinoza has made 54 appearances (48 starts) across all competitions in Ecuador's top-flight. He began his career with C.D. Cuenca in 2017 and played five games (four starts) in two seasons with the Club. The defender made 49 appearances (44 starts) across all competitions with S.D. Aucas since 2018. Internationally, he has earned 15 caps for Ecuador's U-20 side, including seven appearances in the 2019 U-20 FIFA World Cup, and two caps for the Ecuador National Team. In 2019, Espinoza captained Ecuador's U-20 team to a first-place finish in the 2019 U-20 South American Championship.

NEW FACES: WE STAN

Ivanov, who made his professional debut for Levski Sofia at 16, spent the first six seasons of his career in the Bulgarian first division, tallying 13 goals and 15 assists. He has made 85 appearances (54 starts) across all competitions for Levski Sofia, including five appearances (four starts) in the UEFA Europa League. The 2019-20 campaign marked a career-high in goals (nine), assists (five), games played (27) and starts (25) for the winger. At the international level, he has made 10 appearances (10 starts) for Bulgaria's U-21 side during qualification for the UEFA European U-21 Championship. In those 10 appearances, Ivanov scored four goals, including a brace in a 3-0 win against Poland on Nov. 15, 2019.

BROADCAST DREAM TEAM

Returning to the broadcast booth for a second season are play-by-play commentator Tyler Terens and color analyst and U.S. Soccer Hall of Famer Tony Meola. Play-by-play commentator Arlo White – whose Fire broadcast debut was postponed last year by the pandemic – joined the broadcast team for four consecutive games for the Fire.

The 2021 season marked White's first campaign in the Fire broadcast booth. A native of Leicester, England, who grew up visiting Chicago, called Fire matches during the Premier League offseason. He will call football matches for NBC Olympics during this summer's Tokyo Games. He previously worked at the 2016 Rio and 2012 London Games.

The 2021 season marks Meola's second campaign as a member of the Chicago Fire's broadcast team. A native of Kearny, N.J., Meola served as one of the top two broadcast teams – on-site in Russia – for FOX Sports at the 2018 FIFA World Cup. Since 1990, Meola has served as a football broadcaster in various capacities.
