- New England continuing to lead MLS in goals (30) and away goals (16), while ranking tied for second in goal differential (11).
- The Revolution winning on the road for the third straight match and extending the club's current winning streak to four games. New England's 15 away victories in the regular season and playoffs since Bruce Arena took the helm in June 2019 are the most in MLS.
- New England (4-2-3) nearing the club record for most away wins in a single season (6), reached seven times in franchise history - most recently in 2020.
- The Revolution building on their 33-28-17 all-time record against the Red Bulls.
- New England, 2-0-0 against New York this season, recording three wins over the Red Bulls in a single season for the first time since 2006 (3-0-1).
- The Revolution's attack (MLS-best 30 goals) remaining on pace to break the club record for most goals in a single season (55), set in 2003 and repeated in 2005.

QUOTEWORTHY

Here is what Sporting Director and Head Coach Bruce Arena and forward Teal Bunbury had to say ahead of Saturday's match at New York:

Revolution Sporting Director and Head Coach Bruce Arena

On the team's two previous wins against New York this season:

Arena: "I'm not sure I know the answer to that besides we scored more goals. They're a hard team to play against. The game Saturday is going to be difficult. I believe I recall the last game is when Gustavo [Bou] had that excellent goal on I believe the ball from Carles [Gil]. So, we've made a few outstanding plays that have created goals as well against a team that's hard to score against. I think that's part of the reason but both games were difficult games, and they could have gone either way."

Revolution Forward Teal Bunbury

On moving into the Supporters' Shield lead:

Bunbury: "I don't think we're really thinking about it. We're in the middle of the season. We still got, what, 17 or 18 games left? I mean, it's great. Any team would love to be in our position right now, but I don't think it really matters where we are right now -- it's at the end of the year is when it matters. When the playoffs come, what kind of team are we? Do we want to be a team that wins championships? If that's the case, then we definitely have to continue to improve. So, it's great that we're top of the table, but in the other sense it's, 'Hey we still got a lot to improve on.' That's, I think, what our motivation is. We still have ways to go to get better and there's still a lot of games left to play."

TEAM NOTES

REVOLUTION ON PACE FOR RECORD-SETTING SEASON

The Revolution enter Saturday's match against New York seven points clear of Nashville SC for first place in the Eastern Conference, and, for the first time this season, atop the Supporters' Shield table.

New England notched its 10th win of the season against Montreal on Sunday, matching the club's 1997 side -- which played in an era of MLS without draws -- for quickest to double-digit victories. The Revs also became the first MLS team to 10 wins this season. New England is currently on pace to set a new club record for most points won in a single season:

REVOLUTION HISTORY: MOST POINTS THROUGH 16 GAMES

Rank	Season	Record	Points
1.	2021	10-3-3	33
2.	2005	9-2-5	32
3.	2008	9-4-3	30

The Revolution's success can be largely attributed to the team's dominance at Gillette Stadium. After winning only two home games during the 2020 regular season, the Revolution have opened the 2021 campaign with a 6-1-0 record in Foxborough. The .857 winning percetnage at home is best in MLS.

New England's 5-0-0 start at home was the club's best ever. In 2005, the Revs went unbeaten in their first nine contests (6-0-3) at Gillette Stadium -- including four straight wins to open that year's home slate -- en route to an appearance in MLS Cup. The Revolution's 2.50 points per home game this season is best in the league.

ROAD WARRIORS: REVS ARE MLS' BEST AWAY TEAM

Saturday's match against New York marks the end of a stretch that saw New England play six of its first nine games following the June break on the road. The Revolution have endured the test, accruing a 3-1-1 record over that stretch. On the season, the Revs have taken a league-high 15 points in away games.

New England has emerged as the league's most formidable away team dating back to Bruce Arena's arrival as Sporting Director & Head Coach. Since Arena debuted as head coach on June 2, 2019, the Revs lead MLS in away wins across regular season and postseason play. The team added to that total with a 5-0 victory at Inter Miami CF on July 21. The club's .611 winning percentage on the road is second best in MLS this season.

New England secured its first away win of the season ahead of the June break by taking a 1-0 victory at FC Cincinnati in dominant fashion. The Revolution recorded 26 shots -- the team's most in a game since July 17, 2019 vs. Vancouver -- including 21 in the first half. As exhibited in Cincinnati, the Revolution are one of the league's most aggressive road teams. New England ranks second MLS in shots per away game, and is tied for the league lead in away goals on the season.

CARLES GIL NOTES

KING OF THE GIL: CARLES CROWNED PLAYER OF THE MONTH

Revolution captain Carles Gil was named Major League Soccer's Player of the Month for June. Gil earned the honor only one week after being voted Player of the Week for Week 9. He recorded five assists in three starts across the month of June, including back-to-back multi-assist games in victories on June 19 and June 23. With another assist in Sunday's 2-1 win against Montreal, Gil raised his league-leading assists total to 13 on the season -- more than double that of any other player in MLS.

Gil, who signed a new multi-year contract with the Revs on May 24, either leads or is among the league leaders in virtually every attacking category through 16 games, staking his claim as the early frontrunner for Landon Donovan MVP consideration (stats per Opta and FBRef):

2021 MLS LEADERS: HOW GIL STACKS UP

Category	Gil's MLS Ranking	Total

Progressive Passes	1st	153

As Gil thrives, so does New England. Dating back to the Spainiard's arrival ahead of the 2019 campaign, the Revolution have lost only twice when he gets onto the scoresheet across regular season and postseason play:

When...	Revolution's Record
Carles Gil Scores a Goal	8-2-4
Carles Gil Records an Assist	20-0-5
Carles Gil Registers a Goal & Assist	5-0-1

While Gil is plenty adept at finding the back of the net himself, his chance creation for others is particularly outstanding. Dating back to 2011 -- when Opta began tracking key passes as a statistic -- only two other Revolution players have registered at least eight in a single game, while Gil has hit the mark six times since joining the club:

REVOLUTION ALL-TIME LEADERS: KEY PASSES IN A SINGLE GAME

GIL ON TRACK TO CHALLENGE SEVERAL MLS RECORDS

With 13 assists through this season's first 16 games, Carles Gil is currently on pace to break the single-season MLS record for assists. Gil is chasing Carlos Valderamma's record of 26, which he set in 2000 as a member of the Tampa Bay Mutiny:

MLS ALL-TIME SINGLE-SEASON LEADERS: ASSISTS

Rank	Player	Club	Assists
1.	Carlos Valderamma	Tampa Bay (2000)	26

T-2.	Maxi Moralez	New York City (2019)	20
	---	---
	Carles Gil	New England	13

Gil already owns six game-winning assists this season, which is a single-season Revolution record. With 18 games remaining on the docket, he is only three game-winning assists shy of setting a new single-season MLS mark:

MLS ALL-TIME SINGLE-SEASON LEADERS: GAME-WINNING ASSISTS

Rank	Player	Club	GWA
T-1.	Mauricio Cienfuegos	LA Galaxy (1999)	8
T-1.	Steve Ralston	New England (2000)	8
T-1.	Nicolas Lodeiro	Seattle (2018)	8
T-4.	Five Players Tied		7
T-9.	Carles Gil	New England (2021)	6

Gil's chance creation this season has also been historic. New England's captain has already registered 81 key passes -- 44 more than Atlanta's Brooks Lennon, whose 37 chances created are second most in MLS. Dating back to 2011, when Opta began tracking key passes as a statistic, Portland's Diego Valeri holds the all-time single season record of 124, which Gil is on pace to surpass:

MLS ALL-TIME SINGLE-SEASON LEADERS (SINCE 2011): CHANCES CREATED

Rank	Player	Club	CC
1.	Diego Valeri	Portland (2019)	124
T-2.	Brad Davis	Houston (2011)	118

4.	Sacha Kljestan	New York (2017)	112
5.	Landon Donovan	LA Galaxy (2014)	109
6.	Carles Gil	New England (2019)	108
	---	---
	Carles Gil	New England (2021)	81

From set play, Gil has created 33 chances this season. Only two MLS teams, Chicago and Philadelphia, have generated more opportunities from set pieces than Gil has this year.

TEAM NOTES

BUCHANAN REPRESENTING CANADA MNT AT GOLD CUP

Midfielder Tajon Buchanan is representing the Canada Men's National Team at the Concacaf Gold Cup, where he distributed two assists in the team's opening group stage match, a 4-1 win against Martinqiue. He has started each of Canada's three successive games, helping the team punch a ticket to the Semifinal.

Buchanan has been Canada's most dangerous player at the tournament, and will look to lift the team into its fourth ever Gold Cup Final.

The third-year MLS veteran joined the Canadian MNT for Gold Cup fresh off a one goal-one assist outing in Columbus that saw him named to MLSsoccer.com's Team of the Week. Buchanan already owns career highs with three goals and three assists through only 12 games played in 2021.

Buchanan, now the owner of eight international caps, contributed two assists in his debut with Canada's senior team in a 7-0 win against Aruba on June 6. The reigning Canadian Youth International Player of the Year appeared in each of Canada's successive three games as a substitute, ultimately helping the Canucks clinch a spot in the 'Octagon' -- the final round of Concacaf World Cup Qualifying that features eight teams vying for four spots.

One of Major League Soccer's most explosive wingers, Buchanan's ability to beat defenders one-v-one and draw fouls has set up several advantageous set piece opportunities for the Revolution this season. Despite missing four games for international duty, he remains tied for the league lead in fouls won in the final third:

KESSLER JOINS TURNER & USMNT AT GOLD CUP

Defender Henry Kessler was called into the U.S. Men's National Team by Head Coach Gregg Berhalter last week as a medical replacement ahead of the Gold Cup knockout stage. It marks Kessler's first career selection to the USMNT's senior side. The second-year center back made three starts for the U-23 MNT at the Concacaf Olympic Qualifying Championship earlier this year.

Kessler joined goalkeeper Matt Turner in the matchday squad for the team's 1-0 win against Jamaica on Sunday night. Turner submitted five saves and his third shutout of the tournament in the victory. He has conceded only once in the Gold Cup, and is yet to yield a goal from open play across his five career international appearances with the United States.

Turner earned his Gold Cup call-up on the heels of his best showing of the MLS season against New York City FC on June 19 -- a seven-safe effort highlighted by a penalty kick denial of Valentin Castellanos that saw him voted MLS Player of the Week.

His penalty save against New York City was the fourth of his MLS career across all competitions. He has faced 10 penalty kicks across all competitions with the Revs, giving him a 40 percent save rate on bids from the spot. Turner also became the first USMNT goalkeeper to save a penalty in his senior team debut in the modern era when he recorded a stop in his first cap against Trinidad & Tobago on Jan. 31, 2021.

Despite finishing second in Allstate Goalkeeper of the Year voting last year, Turner ranked atop the charts in several advanced and traditional statistical categories, including goals allowed minus expected goals allowed. According to American Soccer Analysis, Turner's -7.27 goals allowed minutes expected goals (GA-xGA) was the best mark among MLS goalkeepers in 2020 by a margin of 1.96.

For his career, Turner has totaled -22.11 goals saved above expected, the best total in MLS since the statistic began being tracked by American Soccer Analysis in 2013. Turner's impressive total comes despite him playing only four of the nine seasons during that span and seeing approximately 10,000 fewer minutes than the three next-closest players. On a per-game basis, Turner's rate of saving -0.27 goals above expected is more than double the total of the next-closest player with at least 2,000 minutes played.

MLS LEADERS SINCE 2013:
GOALS ALLOWED MINUS EXPECTED GOALS ALLOWED

Rank	Player	Min. Played	G-xG
1.	Matt Turner	7,929	-22.11

4.	Stefan Frei	21,999	-16.98
5.	Tim Melia	17,621	-14.26

The six-year veteran also posted outstanding numbers by traditional metrics. He anchored New England to a new club record for best goals-against average (1.09) in a single season, set a new career high with six shutouts - two shy of the league lead - despite the shortened season, and conceded only 24 goals through 22 starts. He finishing the year ranked among the top five league-wide in saves and saves percentage.

BUKSA ECLIPSES GOAL-SCORING OUTPUT FROM 2020

Forward Adam Buksa recorded the first brace of his MLS career in last week's 5-0 win at Inter Miami CF. He has already eclipsed his scoring output from the entire 2020 campaign, when he converted six times. Buksa has also hit the post four times already this season, which is tied with Calos Vela and Ismael Tajour-Shradi for most in MLS.

With seven goals this season, Buksa is tied for sixth in goals scored league-wide, establishing himself as a candidate in MLS' goalscoring championship.

While Buksa scored both of his goals in Miami with his feet, the six-foot-three forward is Major League Soccer's most dominant player in the air by a considerable margin. He paces the league in headed shots and aerials won.

Buksa's aerial prowess is on display in the Revolution's defending third as well. His 11 headed clearances are tied for second most among MLS forwards this season.

BOU KNOWS GOALS: GUSTAVO BACK ON THE PROWL IN '21

Forward Gustavo Bou is in an electric run of form, having scored eight goals in his last nine appearances. With nine total goals on the season, Bou has established himself as a candidate in the MLS Golden Boot race:

2021 MLS LEADERS: GOALS SCORED

Rank	Player	Club	Goals

5.	Ricardo Pepi	Dallas	8

Bou continues to score at a rate that puts him in elite company. His 0.50 goals per game and 0.58 goals per 90 minute clips are second best in Revolution history, behind only Taylor Twellman. His 23 goals since arriving in New England are tied for fourth-most league-wide. Bou's 21 career goals from open play are also tied for second most in MLS dating back to his MLS debut in July of 2019:

Since joining the club on a club-record transfer fee from Liga MX's Club Tijuana, the Revolution have lost only once when Bou scores a goal. New England owns a 15-1-7 record across all competitions when La Pantera finds the back of the net.

Bou has a flare for the dramatic, too, having scored seven times in the 85th minute or later in his MLS career. The Revs are 5-0-2 in those games, combining regular season and postseason play:

MACIEL & BELL PAVE PATHWAY FROM REVS II TO MLS

One year after Revolution II -- the Revolution's USL League One outfit -- was established to bridge the gap between the club's Academy and first team, the pipeline is already bearing fruit for the senior side.

On May 12 at Philadelphia, defender Jon Bell made his MLS debut and played 90 minutes in central defense. He was joined in the starting lineup by midfielder Lucas 'Maciel' Felix, who made his MLS debut on May 1 vs. Atlanta. It marked the first time two Revolution II alums appeared in the same match for the Revolution.

Bell slotted in alongside Andrew Farrell in three consecutive games between May 12 and May 22, and then returned to the starting lineup on June 19 and scored his first professional goal. Bell's aerial dominance has been particularly noteworthy -- among MLS defenders who have played 270 minutes this season, he ranks fourth in aerial won per 90 minutes.

T-3.	Francisco Calvo	Chicago	3.90
5.	Omar Gonzalez	Toronto	3.79
6.	Jon Bell	New England	3.49

In the Revolution's season opener at Chicago, Bell became the first Revs II graduate to make the first team's match-day roster. The 6-foot-1 UMBC graduate started all but one game for Revolution II in its maiden USL League One campaign last year, and will continue to provide critical depth for a Revolution side navigating a condensed 2021 schedule.

Maciel has also made 11 appearances this season, including 10 starts, and establishing himself as a staple in the team's starting lineup. He ranks second among Revolution players in pass completion percentage with a 89.31 clip. In his MLS debut on May 1 vs. Atlanta, he completed all 33 of his passes. Dating back to 2011 - when Opta began tracking MLS statistics - no Revolution player who has completed 100 percent of their passes in a game has recorded as many passes as Maciel.

REVOLUTION ALL-TIME LEADERS

2.	Chris Tierney	4/3/17 at POR	27/27
3.	Antonio Delamea	10/6/18 at ATL	24/24

The 21-year-old Brazilian was the only Revolution II player to feature in all 16 matches during his debut season in 2020. The five-foot-six midfielder led Revs II with 1,414 minutes played, including 13 90-minute outings. A native of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, Maciel developed for 10 years in the Botafogo F.R. Academy.

FARRELL REGISTERS 250TH APPEARANCE WITH REVS

Defender Andrew Farrell is poised to break multiple club records including games played, games started, and minutes played in his ninth season with the Revolution. He registered his 250th career regular-season appearance with the Revolution on June 27 at Dallas -- a milestone only reached by Shalrie Joseph, Diego Fagundez, and Matt Reis -- and reached 250 starts on July 17 at Atlanta.

Farrell has been an ironman since he entered the league with New England as the first-overall pick of the 2013 MLS SuperDraft. He leads all MLS players in games played, games started, and minutes played since he entered the league. Farrell has never missed more than five games in a season, and is poised to tie Matt Reis for second-most games started with his next start:

Farrell and Scott Caldwell, who joined the Revolution within one month of each in 2013, rank among Major League Soccer's 10 longest-serving players with one club. Goalkeeper Brad Knighton and forward Teal Bunbury are also among the league's longest-tenured players with the same team:

ARENA ENTERS YEAR THREE AT HELM OF REVOLUTION

Bruce Arena continues climbing the MLS record books in what is now his 17th MLS season as a head coach. Already the winningest active coach in MLS, he eclipsed the late Sigi Schmid last season for most MLS Cup Playoff games coached (54).

Arena owns 263 combined regular season and postseason wins in MLS. In 2019, he became the second head coach in MLS history to eclipse 700 regular season points earned, joining Sigi Schmid (843). With an all-time regular season record of 228-134-108 (26-13-19 with New England), Arena ranks second in league history in regular season wins and points earned.

4.	Dominic Kinnear	SJ, HOU, LA	170

Among MLS coaches with at least 75 games coached, Arena also owns the second-best all-time winning percentage:

The five-time MLS Cup champion last year improved his all-time playoff record to 35-13-6, and maintained his undefeated record in playoff games where his teams score first (29-0-3). His 35 playoff wins are the most all-time. Arena has reached the conference finals eight times in his career, and advanced to MLS Cup seven times in his previous 16 seasons.

Arena's five MLS Cup victories are unlikely to rivaled anytime soon, as no other active coach has more than two trophies under their belt. The only other active MLS coaches with MLS Cup wins are Bob Bradley (1998), Caleb Porter (2015 & 2020), Brian Schmetzer (2016 & 2019), and Greg Vanney (2017).

BRUCE ARENA

SPORTING DIRECTOR & HEAD COACH

- Named the Revolution's sporting director and the club's eighth head coach on May 14, 2019.
- Holds a record five MLS Cup titles (1996, 1997, 2011, 2012, 2014), and shares the all-time record with three MLS Coach of the Year honors and three MLS Supporters' Shields.
- The winningest active MLS head coach and one of two coaches in league history to eclipse 200 regular season MLS wins and 700 career points.
- Reached the MLS Cup final in seven of 15 seasons as an MLS head coach, with a record 35 MLS Cup Playoff wins and 54 postseason games coached.
- Managed the U.S. Men's National Team through two separate stints (1998-2006, 2016-17) and two FIFA Men's World Cups in 2002 and 2006, and won three Gold Cup titles.
- Built a dynasty over 18 seasons as head coach at the University of Virginia, winning five NCAA Division-1 National Championships and six ACC titles.

Bruce Arena is in his third season as Sporting Director and Head Coach of the New England Revolution after his appointment to the position on May 14, 2019. The five-time MLS Cup winner is the eighth head coach in club history and oversees all soccer operations for the New England Revolution, including head coaching duties, roster management, scouting, and the oversight of Revolution II and the Revolution Academy.

In his first two seasons at the helm in New England, Arena has led the Revolution to consecutive MLS Cup Playoff appearances, including a berth in the Eastern Conference Final in his first full season in New England. He made his return to the MLS postseason in 2019 by leading one of the most remarkable turnarounds in league history. After a 2-8-2 start had the Revolution sitting in last place in MLS, Arena went unbeaten in his first eight games on the sidelines and helped New England reach the postseason, ending a three-year drought for the club.

The team's historic turnaround in 2019 came despite Arena only making one in-season addition to the roster, bringing in Argentine striker Gustavo Bou via a club-record transfer in July. In his first offseason, Arena further bolstered the roster with a combination of MLS veterans and international signings highlighted by young Polish striker Adam Buksa. The roster improvements paid dividends as Arena led the Revolution on a run to the Eastern Conference Final in 2020, highlighted by away wins against the top-seeded Philadelphia Union and fourth-seeded Orlando City SC.

The Long Island, N.Y. native joined the Revolution with one of the most decorated coaching careers in American soccer history that has spanned more than 40 seasons at the collegiate, professional, and international levels. Arena's MLS resume includes a record five MLS Cup titles, three Supporters' Shields, seven conference championships, one U.S. Open Cup title, and one Concacaf Champions' Cup. He has reached the MLS Cup final in seven of his 15 seasons coaching in the league. Arena has earned three MLS Coach of the Year selections, tied for the most all-time, first winning the honor in 1997 with D.C. United before being recognized in 2009 and 2011 with the LA Galaxy.

With more than 250 combined regular season and postseason wins in MLS to date, and a regular season record of 218-131-105 (.596) entering 2021, Arena is the league's winningest active head coach. He is one of two coaches in league history to have surpassed 200 regular season wins and 700 career points, along with Sigi Schmid. Arena is the league's all-time leader in MLS Cup Playoff games coached with 54 (35-13-6), while his 35 playoff wins are also the most in league history.

On the international stage, Arena, 69, coached the U.S. Men's National Team over two separate stints from 1998-2006 and 2016-17, amassing the most wins in the program's history with a record of 81-35-32. He led the Stars and Stripes to a Quarterfinal finish in the 2002 FIFA Men's World Cup – the country's best showing since 1930 – as well an appearance in the 2006 FIFA Men's World Cup. Arena also guided the U.S. Men's National Team to more Gold Cup titles than any other coach, capturing the continental trophy three times in 2002, 2005, and 2017.

Before his time in the professional ranks, Arena began his head coaching career with one season at the University of Puget Sound (1976), before being named the head coach at the University of Virginia in 1978. During his decorated 18-year tenure at Virginia, he led the Cavaliers to five NCAA Division-1 National Championships, including four in a row from 1991-94, as well as six ACC Men's Soccer titles (1988, 1991-95). While at Virginia, Arena coached a number of American soccer legends, including Claudio Reyna, John Harkes, and current D.C. United Head Coach Ben Olsen.

In 1996, Arena received an offer to lead the United States Under-23 Men's National Team in the 1996 Summer Olympics in Atlanta. Shortly after the Olympics, he assumed the head role with D.C. United, where he led the Black-and-Red to a 61-35 record, including the first two MLS Cup titles in 1996 and 1997, and the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup title in 1996.

Following the 1998 FIFA Men's World Cup in France, the United States Soccer Federation turned to Arena, who helped the team qualify for the 2002 FIFA Men's World Cup. In the tournament, Arena's team recorded an impressive win over powerhouse Portugal and topped Mexico, 2-0, in the Round of 16 en route to the nation's first appearance in the Quarterfinals in a 72-year span. That same year, Arena led the USMNT to the Concacaf Gold Cup title, one of his three triumphs in the competition.

In 2005, Arena won his second Concacaf Gold Cup ahead of the 2006 FIFA Men's World Cup in Germany. In the 2006 tournament, the United States earned a 1-1 draw against Italy, but a 2-1 defeat to Ghana sent the USMNT home early.

The next season, Arena took charge of the New York Red Bulls, where he spent the end of the 2006 season and all of the 2007 campaign. In 2008, Arena joined the LA Galaxy for what would be an incredible nine-year tenure that included three MLS Cups in a four-year span and two Supporters' Shields in 2010 and 2011.

Following his decorated career with the Galaxy, Arena rejoined the U.S. Men's National Team in November 2016. In his second run as head coach, he lost only two out of 18 games at the helm, though the United States fell short of qualification for the 2018 FIFA Men's World Cup.

A 2010 National Soccer Hall of Fame inductee, Arena was named the 2015 Werner Fricker Builder Award recipient, earning U.S. Soccer's highest honor for his more than 40 years of service to the game.

A talented lacrosse player, Arena grew up on Long Island and would go on to attend Nassau Community College, where he played both lacrosse and soccer. Arena then transferred to Cornell University in 1971, where as a goalkeeper, he led his team to the 1972 NCAA College Cup Final Four and earned the tournament's Most Valuable Defensive Player award. During the 1973 season, Arena contributed as an assistant coach with Cornell, before then accepting a head coaching position at the University of Puget Sound.

Off the field, Arena has authored a number of books and is a member of the NJCAA Lacrosse Hall of Fame, after receiving induction in 2008. He and his wife, Phyllis, live in Boston. Arena's son, Kenny, was an assistant coach under his father with the LA Galaxy from 2014-16, before joining the staff of Los Angeles FC in 2018, where he currently serves as an assistant coach.
