QUOTE WORTHY

Here are a few notable quotes following last Friday's win at Philadelphia:

Revolution Sporting Director & Head Coach Bruce Arena

On the key to securing the win despite playing the final 31 minutes with 10 men:

Arena: "A lot of smart play. I think our 10 players working together. Brad Knighton came up with some big plays. The backline did a good job. Carles [Gil] came in the game and gave us position at times when they needed. I thought Teal [Bunbury] worked very hard. The play of [Tommy] McNamara and [Matt] Polster in the midfield was excellent. Our center backs, the whole backline did a good job. So collectively, the guys did a very good job, and we had a chance to get that second goal as well, so I think during those last 30 minutes, we did a pretty solid job of defending well, being able to keep the ball a little bit, and backing them up as well to give us a little bit of a breather also."

Revolution Midfielder Matt Polster

On the character the team showed in this win:

Polster: "This group just wants to win. I think the boys have said it a couple times. Sometimes we don't care how we win, we just want to win. Granted, I don't think we would want to go do that again, per se, but it's good to show that grit and character and winning mentality in these kinds of environments. We knew it wasn't going to be easy. So, to come out of here with three points is huge, because now we have a three-day break and we can just regain and go for the weekend against [New York] City now. So, it's really positive. I'm really proud of the boys. I don't think we played particularly well, but, you know, we can clean that up. I think the most important thing is the mentality we showed tonight, which was whatever it takes to get three points, and we showed that we can do that."

TEAM NOTES

REVS TRIO SHINES ON INTERNATIONAL STAGE

A trio of Revolution players excelled on the international stage during September's World Cup Qualifiers as Adam Buksa (Poland), Tajon Buchanan (Canada), and goalkeeper Matt Turner (United States) combined to earn nine caps and go undefeated in FIFA World Cup Qualifiers for their respective countries.

Buksa, 25, scored four goals in his first three caps with the Poland National Team in World Cup Qualifying matches against Albania on Sept. 2, San Marino on Sept. 5, and England on Sept. 8. On his international debut, Buksa started and scored the winning goal in a 4-1 win over Albania. The striker followed that up with a second-half hat trick in a 7-1 victory over San Marino. He added another start and a 62-minute shift in Poland's 1-1 draw against England.

Buchanan, 22, has earned all 12 of his senior caps with Canada in 2021, with seven coming in World Cup Qualifiers. The Brampton, Ontario native played in all three matches for Canada, starting twice, and recorded a goal and an assist in a 3-0 victory over El Salvador on Sept. 8. Buchanan now owns two goals and four assists in his national team career.

Turner, 27, improved to 8-0-2 in 10 starts with the U.S. Men's National Team, with a 0.29 goals against average on the international stage. Turner started all three of the United States' qualifiers during the September window.

REVS DOMINATE IN ONE-GOAL GAMES

With 10 games remaining in New England's 2021 MLS regular season, the Revolution have raced to the top of the league standings and now stand 10 points clear in the chase for the Supporters' Shield and 14 points ahead in the Eastern Conference. The Revolution have won 16 games this season, most in the league by a margin of four and one short of the club's single-season record (17 - 2005, 2014).

Of the Revolution's 16 wins, 13 have come in dramatic fashion via one-goal margins. New England is the fourth team in MLS history to notch 13 wins in one-goal games, a feat last accomplished by the Colorado Rapids in 2016.

MLS ALL-TIME LEADERS: MOST WINS IN ONE-GOAL GAMES

Rank	Club	Record	Win Pct.	Year
T-1.	New England	13-2-0	.867	2021

T-1.	FC Dallas	13-8-0	.619	2006
T-5.	Seven Teams Tied	12 wins

Of those 13 one-goal victories, five have come by a 1-0 scoreline, including New England's most recent win over Philadelphia last Friday night. Four more wins have been by a 2-1 scoreline and the remaining four have all been 3-2 margins. On 10 of these occasions, the winning goal from New England has been scored in the second half, including five times after the 75th minute.

REVOLUTION ON PACE FOR RECORD-SETTING SEASON

The Revolution remain on pace to set a club record for most points won in a single season (59) and challenge the MLS single-season mark (72). New England is outpacing its 2005 Revolution side, which captured 59 points en route to an appearance in MLS Cup. The club also has a league record in its sights -- with a 2.17 points per game average, the Revs are on course to threaten LAFC's MLS record of 72 points won in 2019.

New England enters the weekend 14 points clear of second-place Orlando City SC in the Eastern Conference and 10 points ahead of Seattle in the Supporters' Shield standings. The 2021 Revolution are on pace to eclipse the 1998 LA Galaxy (2.13) for the most points per game in MLS history and the 2019 LAFC team for most points in a single season.

MLS HISTORY: MOST POINTS PER GAME

The team saw the summer's unbeaten streak end at a season-best nine games with a 2-0 loss at New York City FC on Aug. 28. Nine games unbeaten is tied for the third-longest undefeated streak in club history. The club had never previously won eight of nine games in league action. New England's club record of 11 games without a loss was set in 2005 and matched in 2019 during Bruce Arena's first run of games at the helm:

REVOLUTION HISTORY: LONGEST UNBEATEN STREAKS

The Revolution's success can be largely attributed to the team's dominance at Gillette Stadium. The Revolution own a 9-1-1 record in Foxborough this year as the team approaches double-digit wins at home for the sixth time in team annals. The club's .864 winning percentage at home is best in MLS. New England's 5-0-0 start at home was also the club's best ever. The Revolution's 2.50 points per home game this season is best in the league.

TEAM NOTES

TURNER'S SHOT-STOPPING RATES ARE HISTORIC

Despite finishing second in Allstate Goalkeeper of the Year voting last year, Turner ranked atop the charts in several advanced and traditional statistical categories, including goals allowed minus expected goals allowed. According to American Soccer Analysis, Turner's -7.27 goals allowed minutes expected goals (GA-xGA) was the best mark among MLS goalkeepers in 2020 by a margin of 1.96.

For his career, Turner has totaled -23.69 goals saved above expected, the best total in MLS since the statistic began being tracked by American Soccer Analysis in 2013. Turner's impressive total comes despite him playing only four of the nine seasons during that span and seeing approximately 10,000 fewer minutes than the three next-closest players.

MLS LEADERS SINCE 2013:

4.	Nick Rimando	18,976	-17.60
5.	Stefan Frei	21,904	-16.75

The six-year veteran also posted outstanding numbers by traditional metrics during his breakout 2020 campaign. He anchored New England to a new club record for best goals-against average (1.09) in a single season, set a new career high with six shutouts - two shy of the league lead - despite the shortened season, and conceded only 24 goals through 22 starts. He finishing the year ranked among the top five league-wide in saves and saves percentage.

In both MLS and international circles, Turner has also become notorious for his heroics on penalty kicks, including saving one from Orlando City SC's Nani in the 2020 Eastern Conference Semifinals to help secure the win. Since taking over as a starter in 2018, Turner has stopped three penalties with New England and is tied for second in penalty save percentage during that span.

ROAD WARRIORS: REVS ARE MLS' BEST AWAY TEAM

The Revolution recorded a seventh away win against Philadelphia Union on Sept. 3, improving the club's road record to 7-3-3 on the year. With four away games still remaining on the docket, the Revs have already set the club's new single-season record for away wins. The Revs had previously won six away games on eight occasions: 1999, 2005, 2007, 2008, 2013, and 2014. New England won four straight away contests earlier this season for only the second time in club history (2008).

New England has emerged as the league's most formidable away team dating back to Bruce Arena's arrival as Sporting Director & Head Coach. Since Arena debuted as head coach on June 2, 2019, the Revs lead MLS in away wins across regular season and postseason play. The club's 24 road points are currently the most in MLS this season.

FARRELL BREAKS REVOLUTION'S SERVICE RECORD

Defender Andrew Farrell became the Revolution's all-time leader in games played on Aug. 28 at New York City FC. Earlier this summer, Farrell also became the club's all-time leader in MLS starts and minutes played, passing Shalrie Joseph in both categories.

Farrell has been an ironman since he entered the league with New England as the first-overall pick of the 2013 MLS SuperDraft. He leads all MLS players in games played, games started, and minutes played since he entered the league. The ninth-year pro has never missed more than five games in a season

Farrell and Scott Caldwell, who joined the Revolution within one month of each other in 2013, rank among Major League Soccer's 10 longest-serving players with one club. Goalkeeper Brad Knighton and forward Teal Bunbury are also among the league's longest-tenured players with the same team, with those two having joined the Revolution ahead of the 2014 season:

BOU KNOWS GOALS: GUSTAVO CHASING MLS GOLDEN BOOT

Forward Gustavo Bou is in the midst of an electric run of form, having scored 11 goals in his last 16 appearances. He was recognized for his blistering scoring pace with MLS Player of the Month honors for July. Bou scored five times across six games in July, adding one assist, as the Revs went 4-1-1 and ascended to the top of the Supporters' Shield table. It marks the first time in Revolution history the club has produced back-to-back Player of the Month winners, following Carles Gil's win for June.

With 12 total goals on the season, Bou trails Seattle's Raul Ruidiaz by just two goals in the MLS Golden Boot race. His teammate Adam Buksa (10) has also reached double-digit goals, ranking tied for seventh league-wide.

2021 MLS LEADERS: GOALS SCORED

Bou continues to score at a rate that puts him in elite company. His 0.49 goals per game and 0.59 goals per 90 minute clips are second only to Taylor Twellman for best in club history.

Bou's 26 goals in league play since arriving in New England are second-most league-wide, while his 22 goals from open play are tied for most in MLS dating back to his MLS debut in July of 2019:

2.	Gustavo Bou	New England	26
3.	Diego Rossi	LAFC	25
4.	Carlos Vela	LAFC	24
5.	Gyasi Zardes	Columbus	23

Since joining the club on a club-record transfer fee from Liga MX's Club Tijuana, the Revolution have lost only once when Bou scores a goal. New England owns an 18-1-7 record across all competitions when La Pantera finds the back of the net.

Bou has shown a flare for the dramatic in MLS, having scored seven times in the 85th minute or later. The Revs are 5-0-2 in those games, inclusive of both regular season and postseason play.

KING OF THE GIL: CARLES CROWNED PLAYER OF THE MONTH

Revolution captain Carles Gil, Major League Soccer's Player of the Month for June and a leading MLS MVP candidate, returned to action on September 3 after being sidelined for the month of August with a muscle injury. Gil owns 15 assists on the season and earned the June honor after recording five assists in three games during the month. Despite missing five games, Gil's league-leading 15 assists remain nearly double that of any other player in MLS.

Gil, who signed a new multi-year contract with the Revs on May 24, either leads or is among the league leaders in virtually every attacking category, staking his claim as a frontrunner for Landon Donovan MVP consideration:

2021 MLS LEADERS: HOW GIL STACKS UP

Category	Gil's MLS Ranking	Total

As Gil thrives, so does New England. Dating back to the Spaniard's arrival ahead of the 2019 campaign, the Revolution have lost only twice when he gets onto the scoresheet across regular season and postseason play:

Carles Gil Scores a Goal	8-2-4
Carles Gil Records an Assist	21-0-5
Carles Gil Registers a Goal &amp; Assist	5-0-1

While Gil is adept at finding the back of the net himself, his chance creation for others is what sets him apart. Dating back to 2011 -- when Opta began tracking key passes as a statistic -- only two other Revolution players have registered at least eight in a single game, while Gil has hit the mark six times since joining the club:

REVOLUTION ALL-TIME LEADERS: KEY PASSES IN A SINGLE GAME

T-3.	Carles Gil	11/20/20 vs. MTL	9

GIL ON TRACK TO CHALLENGE SEVERAL MLS RECORDS

Prior to missing the month of August with an injury, Carles Gil's 15 assists through this season's first 20 games had him on pace to shatter the club's single-season record for assists and become only the fourth MLS player to tally 20 assists in a season. As Gil returns to the pitch, he also resumes his chase of Carlos Valderamma's MLS record of 26, which he set in 2000 as a member of the Tampa Bay Mutiny:

MLS ALL-TIME SINGLE-SEASON LEADERS: ASSISTS

T-2.	Sacha Kljestan	New York (2016)	20
T-2.	Maxi Moralez	New York City (2019)	20

Carles Gil ----- New England 15

Gil already owns seven game-winning assists this season, which is a single-season Revolution record. With 11 games remaining, he is only two game-winning assists shy of setting a new single-season MLS mark:

MLS ALL-TIME SINGLE-SEASON LEADERS: GAME-WINNING ASSISTS

T-4.	Carles Gil	New England (2021)	7

Gil's chance creation this season has also been historic. New England's captain has already registered 86 key passes -- 20 more than Minnesota's Emmanuel Reynoso, whose 66 chances created are second most in MLS. Dating back to 2011, when Opta began tracking key passes as a statistic, Portland's Diego Valeri holds the all-time single season record of 124.

TEAM NOTES

BUKSA JOINS BOU WITH DOUBLE-DIGIT GOALS

Forward Adam Buksa has scored six goals across his last 11 games, bringing his total to 10 on the season. In addition, the Polish international tallied four goals in three international caps against European competition during September's FIFA World Cup QQualifiers.

Buksa has already eclipsed his scoring output from the entire 2020 campaign, when he converted six times. Buksa has also hit the post six times already this season, which ranks second in MLS in 2021.

With 10 goals this season, Buksa is tied for seventh in goals scored league-wide, establishing himself as a candidate in MLS' Golden Boot race alongside teammate Gustavo Bou. Across the regular season and playoffs, Buksa ranks tied for eighth in goals scored and third in headed goals dating back to his debut in the 2020 season opener.

The six-foot-three forward is Major League Soccer's most dominant player in the air by a considerable margin. He paces the league in headed shots and aerials won. Buksa's aerial prowess is on display in the Revolution's defending third as well. His 18 headed clearances are most among MLS forwards this season.

JONES EMERGES AS ELITE LEFT BACK FOR REVOLUTION

Defender DeJuan Jones is flourishing in his third professional season, having started all but one game at left back for the Revolution. Selected by New England in the first round of the 2019 MLS SuperDraft, Jones -- who featured in an attacking role at Michigan State -- has developed into one of Major League Soccer's best outside backs.

Jones scored the game-winning goal in a 3-2 win against D.C. United on Aug. 18, and distributed an assist in a 2-1 win at Toronto on Aug. 14. He now owns two goals and four assists on the season -- both single-season career highs. Among MLS defenders, Jones is tied for second in combined goals plus assists.

START TO FINISH: REVS SCORING GOALS IN KEY MOMENTS

New England has been Major League Soccer's best team over the opening 45 minutes of matches this season. Offensively, the team has run rampant, scoring an MLS-best 24 goals in the first half of contests. Meanwhile, their first half goal difference of 10 also leads MLS this season.

The best 15-minute interval for New England this season has been from 16-30, when they have outscored opponents 10-2. In the final 15 minutes of first halves this season, New England has outscored opponents 9-4.

In addition to strong starts, New England owns the final 15 minutes of matches this year as well, outscoring opponents with their league-leading 11 goals to just five conceded in that interval. Five of those 11 goals were match winners, while another was an equalizer in a comeback victory over New York Red Bulls on July 31. Even more impressive, seven of the 11 goals scored in the final 15 minutes of matches by New England this season have come on the road.

TURNER TAKES HOME MLS ALL-STAR GAME MVP

Goalkeeper Matt Turner was named 2021 MLS All-Star Game MVP presented by Target after saving two penalties from the Liga MX All-Stars to help MLS to victory in a dramatic finale at Banc of California Stadium on Wednesday night.

Turner was one of three MLS goalkeepers to feature on the night, playing the final 30 minutes of regulation time and making one save before coming up big in the shootout. Turner denied both Rogelio Funes Mori and Salvador Reyes as the MLS All-Stars won 3-2 in the shootout.

Revolution forward Gustavo Bou also featured in the contest, starting and playing the entire first half and registering a team-high three shots. Carles Gil and Tajon Buchanan were also selected for the All-Star Game, but did not make the trip to Los Angeles.

BUCHANAN NAMED GOLD CUP'S BEST YOUNG PLAYER

Midfielder Tajon Buchanan was named Best Young Player for the 2021 Concacaf Gold Cup after leading the Canada Men's National Team to the Semifinal. Buchanan was Canada's catalyst throughout its run at the tournament, starting all five of the Canada's games and recording one goal and five assists, including his first international goal in the Semifinal against Mexico.

In MLS play, the 2021 All Star continues to establish himself as one of the league's most explosive wingers. He has already posted single-season career highs in both goals (6) and assist (4). The 22-year-old has scored in three straight games and tallied four times in his last six outings.

Now the owner of 12 international caps with two goals and four assists, Buchanan made his senior-team debut earlier this summer with four appearances in 2022 FIFA World Cup Qualifiers. He notched two assists in his full international debut before adding three substitute appearances. Buchanan then added three appearances, two starts, one goal, and one assist in September's qualifiers.

In March 2021, Buchanan, the 2020 Canadian Men's Youth Player of the Year, made his first international appearance at any level when he featured for the Under-23 MNT in the Concacaf Men's Olympic Qualifying Championship.

His ability to beat defenders one-on-one and draw fouls in dangerous positions has set up several advantageous set-piece opportunities for the Revolution. Despite missing five games for international duty, he remains tied for third league-wide in fouls won in the final third:

TURNER & KESSLER WIN CONCACAF GOLD CUP WITH USMNT

Goalkeeper Matt Turner and defender Henry Kessler were crowned Concacaf Gold Cup champions after helping the USMNT top Mexico, 1-0, in the tournament Final.

Turner was named Man of the Match for both the Gold Cup Final after his five-save effort, and for the Semifinal win against Qatar. He also took home the Golden Glove as the tournament's most outstanding goalkeeper after conceding only one goal -- a penalty kick against Martinique in the group stage -- across six games. He was one of two USMNT players (Miles Robinson) to play every minute of the tournament. Now the owner of seven caps, Turner is yet to yield a goal from open play in international play and received a call up for the USMNT's World Cup Qualifying matches in September.

Kessler also made his first career international appearance at the senior level when he entered the Final as a substitute in extra time. Turner and Kessler join an exclusive group of Revolution players to lift a Gold Cup trophy with the USMNT: Juan Agudelo (2017), Clint Dempsey (2005), Pat Noonan (2005, 2007), Michael Parkhurst (2007), Steve Ralston (2005), Matt Reis (2005), Kelyn Rowe (2017), Taylor Twellman (2007).

Turner earned his Gold Cup call-up on the heels of his best showing of the MLS season against New York City FC on June 19 -- a seven-save effort highlighted by a penalty kick denial of Valentin Castellanos that saw him voted MLS Player of the Week.

His penalty save against New York City was the fourth of his MLS career across all competitions. He has faced 10 penalty kicks across all competitions with the Revs, giving him a 40 percent save rate on bids from the spot. Turner also became the first USMNT goalkeeper to save a penalty in his senior team debut in the modern era when he recorded a stop in his first cap against Trinidad & Tobago on Jan. 31, 2021.

BRUGGE-BOUND: BUDDING STAR BUCHANAN ON THE MOVE

The New England Revolution have transferred 22-year-old midfielder Tajon Buchanan to Club Brugge of the Belgian First Division A for an undisclosed fee. New England also retains a percentage of Buchanan's future sell-on rights. Buchanan will remain with New England through the end of the 2021 Major League Soccer season.

Buchanan, who made the 2021 MLS All-Star Team as a commissioner's pick, has recorded six goals with four assists through 17 MLS appearances this season. The Brampton, Ontario native owns 50 MLS appearances, eight goals, and eight assists with the Revolution, plus an additional four starts and one goal in the Audi 2020 MLS Cup Playoffs. A first-round MLS SuperDraft pick in 2019 out of Syracuse University, Buchanan has showcased his versatility as an attacking midfielder, winger, outside back, and wingback during his MLS career. Buchanan will join fellow Canadian internationals Alphonso Davies (Bayern Munich) and Cyle Larin (Besiktas) as former MLS players featuring for European clubs.

On the international stage, Buchanan, 22, owns 12 caps with the Canada Men's National Team, five of which came in the 2021 Concacaf Gold Cup this July, and has been called up for Canada's World Cup Qualifying matches in September. Buchanan was named to the Gold Cup Best XI and earned the tournament's Best Young Player Award after catalyzing a Canada squad that reached the semifinal round. Buchanan tallied his first international goal in the semifinal match against Mexico. The 2020 Canada Men's Youth International Player of the Year, Buchanan also featured at the Concacaf Men's Olympic Qualifying Championship in March 2021. Buchanan was also named the Canada Soccer Men's Player of the Month for August after scoring three goals and recording an assist for the Revolution.

ARENA ENTERS YEAR THREE AT HELM OF REVOLUTION

Bruce Arena continues climbing the MLS record books in what is now his 17th MLS season as a head coach. Already the winningest active coach in MLS, he eclipsed the late Sigi Schmid last season for most MLS Cup Playoff games coached (54).

Arena owns 268 combined regular season and postseason wins in MLS. In 2019, he became the second head coach in MLS history to eclipse 700 regular season points earned, joining Sigi Schmid (843). With an all-time regular season record of 234-135-109 (32-14-20 with New England), Arena ranks second in league history in regular season wins and points earned.

MACIEL & BELL PAVE PATHWAY FROM REVS II TO MLS

One year after Revolution II -- the Revolution's USL League One outfit -- was established to bridge the gap between the club's Academy and first team, the pipeline is already bearing fruit for the senior side.

On May 12 at Philadelphia, defender Jon Bell made his MLS debut and played 90 minutes in central defense. He was joined in the starting lineup by midfielder Lucas 'Maciel' Felix, who made his MLS debut on May 1 vs. Atlanta. It marked the first time two Revolution II alums appeared in the same match for the Revolution.

Bell slotted in alongside Andrew Farrell in three consecutive games between May 12 and May 22, and then returned to the starting lineup on June 19 and scored his first professional goal. Bell's aerial dominance has been particularly noteworthy -- among MLS defenders who have played 500 minutes this season, he ranks sixth in aerials won per 90 minutes.

MLS DEFENDERS: AERIALS WON PER 90 MINUTES

Rank	Player	Club	Aerial Won

4.	Francisco Calvo	Chicago	3.63
5.	Wyatt Omsberg	Chicago	3.57
6.	Jon Bell	New England	3.49

In the Revolution's season opener at Chicago, Bell became the first Revs II graduate to make the first team's match-day roster. The 6-foot-1 UMBC graduate started all but one game for Revolution II in its maiden USL League One campaign last year.

Maciel has also made 15 appearances this season, including 13 starts, establishing himself as a staple in the team's starting lineup. He ranks second among Revolution players in pass completion percentage with an 88.89 clip. In his MLS debut on May 1 vs. Atlanta, he completed all 33 of his passes. Dating back to 2011 - when Opta began tracking MLS statistics - no Revolution player who has completed 100 percent of their passes in a game has recorded as many passes as Maciel.

The 21-year-old Brazilian was the only Revolution II player to feature in all 16 matches during his debut season in 2020. The five-foot-six midfielder led Revs II with 1,414 minutes played, including 13 90-minute outings. A native of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, Maciel developed for 10 years in the Botafogo F.R. Academy.

BRUCE ARENA

SPORTING DIRECTOR & HEAD COACH

- Named the Revolution's sporting director and the club's eighth head coach on May 14, 2019.
- Holds a record five MLS Cup titles (1996, 1997, 2011, 2012, 2014), and shares the all-time record with three MLS Coach of the Year honors and three MLS Supporters' Shields.
- The winningest active MLS head coach and one of two coaches in league history to eclipse 200 regular season MLS wins and 700 career points.
- Reached the MLS Cup final in seven of 15 seasons as an MLS head coach, with a record 35 MLS Cup Playoff wins and 54 postseason games coached.
- Managed the U.S. Men's National Team through two separate stints (1998-2006, 2016-17) and two FIFA Men's World Cups in 2002 and 2006, and won three Gold Cup titles.
- Built a dynasty over 18 seasons as head coach at the University of Virginia, winning five NCAA Division-1 National Championships and six ACC titles.

Bruce Arena is in his third season as Sporting Director and Head Coach of the New England Revolution after his appointment to the position on May 14, 2019. The five-time MLS Cup winner is the eighth head coach in club history and oversees all soccer operations for the New England Revolution, including head coaching duties, roster management, scouting, and the oversight of Revolution II and the Revolution Academy.

In his first two seasons at the helm in New England, Arena has led the Revolution to consecutive MLS Cup Playoff appearances, including a berth in the Eastern Conference Final in his first full season in New England. He made his return to the MLS postseason in 2019 by leading one of the most remarkable turnarounds in league history. After a 2-8-2 start had the Revolution sitting in last place in MLS, Arena went unbeaten in his first eight games on the sidelines and helped New England reach the postseason, ending a three-year drought for the club.

The team's historic turnaround in 2019 came despite Arena only making one in-season addition to the roster, bringing in Argentine striker Gustavo Bou via a club-record transfer in July. In his first offseason, Arena further bolstered the roster with a combination of MLS veterans and international signings highlighted by young Polish striker Adam Buksa. The roster improvements paid dividends as Arena led the Revolution on a run to the Eastern Conference Final in 2020, highlighted by away wins against the top-seeded Philadelphia Union and fourth-seeded Orlando City SC.

The Long Island, N.Y. native joined the Revolution with one of the most decorated coaching careers in American soccer history that has spanned more than 40 seasons at the collegiate, professional, and international levels. Arena's MLS resume includes a record five MLS Cup titles, three Supporters' Shields, seven conference championships, one U.S. Open Cup title, and one Concacaf Champions' Cup. He has reached the MLS Cup final in seven of his 15 seasons coaching in the league. Arena has earned three MLS Coach of the Year selections, tied for the most all-time, first winning the honor in 1997 with D.C. United before being recognized in 2009 and 2011 with the LA Galaxy.

With more than 250 combined regular season and postseason wins in MLS to date, and a regular season record of 218-131-105 (.596) entering 2021, Arena is the league's winningest active head coach. He is one of two coaches in league history to have surpassed 200 regular season wins and 700 career points, along with Sigi Schmid. Arena is the league's all-time leader in MLS Cup Playoff games coached with 54 (35-13-6), while his 35 playoff wins are also the most in league history.

On the international stage, Arena, 69, coached the U.S. Men's National Team over two separate stints from 1998-2006 and 2016-17, amassing the most wins in the program's history with a record of 81-35-32. He led the Stars and Stripes to a Quarterfinal finish in the 2002 FIFA Men's World Cup – the country's best showing since 1930 – as well an appearance in the 2006 FIFA Men's World Cup. Arena also guided the U.S. Men's National Team to more Gold Cup titles than any other coach, capturing the continental trophy three times in 2002, 2005, and 2017.

Before his time in the professional ranks, Arena began his head coaching career with one season at the University of Puget Sound (1976), before being named the head coach at the University of Virginia in 1978. During his decorated 18-year tenure at Virginia, he led the Cavaliers to five NCAA Division-1 National Championships, including four in a row from 1991-94, as well as six ACC Men's Soccer titles (1988, 1991-95). While at Virginia, Arena coached a number of American soccer legends, including Claudio Reyna, John Harkes, and current D.C. United Head Coach Ben Olsen.

In 1996, Arena received an offer to lead the United States Under-23 Men's National Team in the 1996 Summer Olympics in Atlanta. Shortly after the Olympics, he assumed the head role with D.C. United, where he led the Black-and-Red to a 61-35 record, including the first two MLS Cup titles in 1996 and 1997, and the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup title in 1996.

Following the 1998 FIFA Men's World Cup in France, the United States Soccer Federation turned to Arena, who helped the team qualify for the 2002 FIFA Men's World Cup. In the tournament, Arena's team recorded an impressive win over powerhouse Portugal and topped Mexico, 2-0, in the Round of 16 en route to the nation's first appearance in the Quarterfinals in a 72-year span. That same year, Arena led the USMNT to the Concacaf Gold Cup title, one of his three triumphs in the competition.

In 2005, Arena won his second Concacaf Gold Cup ahead of the 2006 FIFA Men's World Cup in Germany. In the 2006 tournament, the United States earned a 1-1 draw against Italy, but a 2-1 defeat to Ghana sent the USMNT home early.

The next season, Arena took charge of the New York Red Bulls, where he spent the end of the 2006 season and all of the 2007 campaign. In 2008, Arena joined the LA Galaxy for what would be an incredible nine-year tenure that included three MLS Cups in a four-year span and two Supporters' Shields in 2010 and 2011.

Following his decorated career with the Galaxy, Arena rejoined the U.S. Men's National Team in November 2016. In his second run as head coach, he lost only two out of 18 games at the helm, though the United States fell short of qualification for the 2018 FIFA Men's World Cup.

A 2010 National Soccer Hall of Fame inductee, Arena was named the 2015 Werner Fricker Builder Award recipient, earning U.S. Soccer's highest honor for his more than 40 years of service to the game.

A talented lacrosse player, Arena grew up on Long Island and would go on to attend Nassau Community College, where he played both lacrosse and soccer. Arena then transferred to Cornell University in 1971, where as a goalkeeper, he led his team to the 1972 NCAA College Cup Final Four and earned the tournament's Most Valuable Defensive Player award. During the 1973 season, Arena contributed as an assistant coach with Cornell, before then accepting a head coaching position at the University of Puget Sound.

Off the field, Arena has authored a number of books and is a member of the NJCAA Lacrosse Hall of Fame, after receiving induction in 2008. He and his wife, Phyllis, live in Boston. Arena's son, Kenny, was an assistant coach under his father with the LA Galaxy from 2014-16, before joining the staff of Los Angeles FC in 2018, where he currently serves as an assistant coach.

In his role, Onalfo works closely with Sporting Director Bruce Arena managing the club's day-to-day soccer operations, including oversight of Revolution II, the Revolution Academy and the scouting department.

The Sao Paulo, Brazil native and Ridgefield, Conn. product joins the Revolution following an extensive coaching and playing career in Major League Soccer and with the United States Men's National Team. Onalfo has won MLS Cup as both a player and a coach, including one as a member of D.C. United in 1999, and three as an assistant coach with the LA Galaxy in 2011, 2012, and 2014.

Onalfo owns 12 total years of MLS coaching experience, highlighted by stints as head coach of D.C. United (2010), the then-Kansas City Wizards (2007-09), and the LA Galaxy (2017). While continuing as an assistant with the Galaxy, he also served as the inaugural head coach of USL Championship side LA Galaxy II from 2014-16, where he led the club to a Western Conference title in 2015. When he departed "Los Dos" to take over head coaching duties with the Galaxy first team, his overall record with the developmental side finished at 46-29-20.

On the international level, Onalfo spent six years as an assistant coach for the United States Men's National Team under Bruce Arena. He served as an assistant for the USMNT from 2002-07 – including at the 2002 and 2006 FIFA Men's World Cup™ – and also worked as an assistant with the U.S. Under-23 MNT in 2002. Prior to joining the Revolution, he most recently assisted the U.S. Under-20 Men's National Team from 2018 through May 2019, including in Poland at the FIFA U-20 Men's World Cup™, and briefly served as acting head coach of the U-19 side for a training camp in January 2019.

Onalfo, 50, entered the coaching ranks an assistant with D.C. United in 2000 following his retirement. He remained with the Black and Red until September 2002, briefly serving as interim head coach in 2001. After his time in the U.S. Men's National Team setup, Onalfo was appointed head coach of the Kansas City Wizards shortly after the 2006 FIFA Men's World Cup. He led Kansas City for two-and-a-half seasons, compiling a 27-29-22 record, and helped the club reach the postseason twice, including a Western Conference Finals appearance in 2007. In December 2009, Onalfo was named head coach of D.C. United, where he would remain for eight months before departing the club.

He began his professional career with French side La Ciotat in 1991, before featuring for the Connecticut Wolves of the USISL from 1994-95, and Mexican second division side Tampico Madero in 1995.

Onalfo was selected by the LA Galaxy in the inaugural MLS Draft and would make 13 appearances for the club in 1996, helping it reach the first ever MLS Cup. The defender went on to register 23 appearances across four seasons in MLS, spending additional time with San Jose (1997) and D.C. United (1998-99). He recorded one international cap with the U.S. Men's National Team and featured extensively at the youth level, including the 1989 FIFA World Youth Championship, the 1991 Pan American Games, and the 1992 Summer Olympics.

Onalfo's journey took a detour soon after the 1992 Olympics, when a diagnosis of stage three Hodgkin's disease at the age of 24 disrupted his career and nearly ended his life. After surviving his arduous battle with cancer, Onalfo resumed his playing career with Connecticut and then Mexican side Tampico FC, before joining the Galaxy for the inaugural MLS season.
