WHAT TO WATCH FOR VS. MONTREAL

TEAM:

- New England (62 pts., 2.21 ppg) remaining on pace to set MLS single-season records for most points (72), most points per game (2.13), and best winning percentage (.750).
- The Revolution winning a fifth straight game against Montreal (13-10-3 all-time).
- New England winning on the road for the seventh time in eight games while remaining unbeaten in the month of September (4-0-1).
- New England becoming the 15th MLS team to win 20 games in a season.
- The Revs (8-3-3) adding to their club-record eight away wins this season. Nine road wins would be tied for the sixth most in a season in MLS history.
- The Revolution winning to become the ninth MLS team to earn 30 road points in a season. The club's .679 road-winning percentage is on course to be the fourth best in the MLS record books.
- The Revs remaining on track to record the fewest losses in team history (7 - 2005). Four losses would be tied for the fewest in an MLS season.
- New England improving on its +20 goal differential, which ranks tied for first in MLS with Nashville SC.
- The Revolution (53) netting three more goals to surpass the club record (55) for most goals scored in a season.
- New England (57) also approaching the club record for assists (66) in a season.
- The Revs' attack continuing to lead MLS in goals (53), assists (57), corner kicks (169), chances created (313), and passes into the final third (1674).
- New England holding its position among league leaders in shots (3rd - 400), shots on target (3rd - 146), fouls won (3rd - 344), and duels won (3rd - 1490).
- New England leading MLS in goals scored in the first half (28) and ranking tied for first in goals scored after the 75th minute (12).
- The Revs building on a 15-0-2 record this year when scoring the first goal, best in the league.
- The Revolution adding to their MLS-record 16 wins in games decided by a one-goal margin (16-2-0).
- The Revs approaching club records for the club record for total shots (486 - 2018).

INDIVIDUAL:

- Bruce Arena (237) winning three more games to tie Sigi Schmid (240) for the most regular season victories in MLS history.
- Arena campaigning for his fourth MLS Supporters' Shield title, which would break a deadlock with Schmid for the most all-time.
- GK Matt Turner adding to his career-high 14 wins and improving on his 5-2-1 all-time record against Montreal.
- New England's trio of Designated Players - F Gustavo Bou, F Adam Buksa, and M Carles Gil - adding to their combined 27 goals and 24 assists.
- Bou and Buksa (12 goals each) breaking a tie for the team lead in goals scored this season. They rank tied for fifth in the MLS Golden Boot race.
- Gil continuing to lead MLS in assists (16), chances created (105), big chances created (22), chances created from open play (62), chances created from set play (43), and successful crosses/corners (74).
- Gil (16) approaching the Revolution's single-season assists record (19) as he aims to become the fourth MLS player to notch 20 helpers in a season.
- Gil (8) recording a ninth game-winning assist to set a new MLS single-season record.
- Gil (106) logging three chances created to set a new career high (108 - 2019) as he closes in on Diego Valeri's league record of 124 chances created in a single season (source: Opta).
- Buksa making his 50th regular season appearance in MLS.
- Buksa recording nine more shots to hit the century mark on the season, and 11 more shots to set a new Revolution single-season high (Wolde Harris - 101, 2000).
- New England's attack potentially featuring three players with eight or more goals scored - Bou (12), Buksa (12), Buchanan (7) - for the fourth time in club history- (2005, 2017 and 2018).
- D Andrew Farrell maintaining his place as the MLS co-leader in minutes played this season.
- M Matt Polster holding his position among top MLS midfielders in clearances (4th- 46), and interceptions (T-9th- 33).
- D Brandon Bye building on his 100 career MLS appearances.

QUOTE WORTHY

Here are a few notable quotes ahead of Wednesday's match against Montreal:

Revolution Sporting Director & Head Coach Bruce Arena

On the team's consistency and how the group has achieved that throughout the season:

Arena: "Well, if I actually really knew the answer to that I'd write a book and make a lot of money. It's not easy. It's working with players every day, it's having continuity in the team, and that our roster over the last two years has not been a dramatic turnover. So, we're playing with a fairly understood nucleus of players and the more we're together, the better we understand each other and hopefully can play better on the field and be more consistent and get results, which we've demonstrated this year. I think it's just a matter of being together for a while. Montreal has a new coach this year so that's going to be a little bit different than when Thierry [Henry] was there and it takes a little bit of time. But I think they've done an outstanding job. They're a good team and the coaching and players deserve a lot of credit."

Revolution Midfielder Matt Polster

On Bruce Arena rotating the team during this busy stretch while the team continues to pick up results:

Polster: "We've had a long season of midweek games and every time we seem to need players to step up, they have. We have a really deep squad that even when we do rotate - what was it? - nine guys against Chicago, everybody played well and everybody stepped up in those moments to help pick up three points. We're going to cap off this month with a bunch of games again. It's important that guys step up again and help us win and get three points against Montreal. Then we have a small break and then we get jam packed with another bunch of games in October. It's going to take everybody to get where we want to go. It's important that everybody's focused mentally and physically to get the job done towards the end of the season."

RECORD-SETTING SEASON ENTERS FINAL STRETCH

With Wednesday's win at Chicago, the Revolution secured their spot in the 2021 Audi MLS Cup Playoffs. Saturday's victory over Orlando guaranteed the Revs no worse than a top-four finish in the conference, ensuring at least one home playoff game.

With six games to play, the Revolution have already secured the most successful regular season in the club's 26-year history. New England has set multiple new team records including wins (19), points (62), and away wins (8), while also on pace to shatter several other club records that are within reach:

New England, an original MLS clubs, is well on its way to recording one of the best regular seasons in the league's 26-year history. With a rate of 2.19 points per game, the Revolution remain on pace to set new MLS single-season records for points (72 - LAFC, 2019), points per game (2.13 - LA Galaxy, 1998), and winning percentage (.750 - three times).

RUNNING AWAY FROM THE PACK

New England enters Wednesday's match 17 points clear of second-place Nashville SC in the Eastern Conference and 14 points ahead of Seattle Sounders FC, the Western Conference leaders, in the Supporters' Shield standings. However, Nashville, Seattle, as well as many most other clubs across MLS have games in hand on the Revs.

In the league's previous 25 seasons, only 10 teams have won their conference (or division) by 10-or-more points. The all-time largest margin of victory in a conference race was 16 points - LAFC in 2019 and San Jose in 2015.

REVS ARE RED HOT SINCE JULY

The Revolution, who have occupied the top spot in the Eastern Conference since May 16, have won 12 of their last 15 matches with only one loss during that span. New England is a remarkable 12-1-2 in league play since a loss to Toronto on July 7. The only other loss during this span came away at New York City FC on Sept. 28.

New England is currently in the midst of a five-game unbeaten streak, having gone 4-0-1 in the month of August. Away from home, the Revs have won six of the last seven road games. In Foxborough, the club's home unbeaten streak stands at eight games (6-0-2).

Earlier this summer, the Revolution went on a nine-game unbeaten streak, tied for the third longest in the team's history. The club had never previously won eight of nine games in league action. New England's record of 11 games without a loss was set in 2005 and matched in 2019 during Bruce Arena's first run of games at the helm:

REVOLUTION HISTORY: LONGEST UNBEATEN STREAKS

Rank	Season	Games Unbeaten	Record

NEW ENGLAND ON VERGE OF 20-WIN CAMPAIGN

The New England Revolution are one victory away from recording the first 20-win season in club history and just the 15th in MLS annals. While the 20-win threshold would set new heights for the Revolution, Sporting Director & Head Coach Bruce Arena is no stranger to the feat, having accomplished it on two prior occasions, both with D.C. United in the shootout era (no ties).

MLS LEADERS: MOST WINS IN A SEASON

Rank	Club	Year	Wins
T-1.	D.C. United	1998	24
T-1.	LA Galaxy	1998	24
3.	D.C. United	1999	23
4.	New York Red Bulls	2018	22
T-5.	Four Teams Tied (last LAFC)	2019	21
T-9.	Five Teams Tied (last Toronto)	2017	20

In 1998, Arena's most recent 20-win campaign, the legendary coach set an MLS record with 24 victories. A year prior, Arena led his D.C. United side to a 21-win season en route to his second consecutive MLS Cup.

Of the 14 previous teams with 20-win seasons, five have won MLS Cup - D.C. United in 1997 and 1999, Chicago Fire FC in 1998, Toronto FC in 2017, and Atlanta United in 2018.

TEAM NOTES

ROAD WARRIORS: REVS ARE MLS' BEST AWAY TEAM

The Revolution's success is equally attributed to the club's dominance at home and on the road. The Revolution own a 11-1-2 record in Foxborough this year as the team has achieved double-digit wins at home for the sixth time in team annals. The club's .857 winning percentage at home is best in MLS and on pace to be among the 10-best home seasons in MLS history.

The Revolution's 2.50 points per home game this season is best in the league. The Revs need only one more win in the final three home games to tie the club's single-season mark (12 - 2017).

2021 MLS LEADERS: POINTS PER GAME WON AT HOME

Rank	Player	Home PPG	Points Won
1.	New England Revolution	2.50	35
2.	D.C. United	2.25	27
3.	Nashville SC	2.14	30

The Revolution recorded an eighth away win against Chicago Fire FC on Sept. 22, improving the club's road record to 8-3-3 on the year. The Revs have won six of their last seven road games. With three away games still remaining on the docket, the Revs have already set a new single-season club record for away wins, surpassing the previous mark of six reached on eight occasions: 1999, 2005, 2007, 2008, 2013, and 2014. New England won four straight away contests earlier this season for only the second time in club history (2008).

New England has emerged as the league's most formidable away team dating back to Bruce Arena's arrival in New England. Since Arena debuted as head coach on June 2, 2019, the Revs lead MLS in away wins across regular season and postseason play. The club's 27 road points are currently the most in MLS this season. With one more away win, the Revolution would become the ninth MLS team with 30 away points in a season.

START TO FINISH: REVS SCORING GOALS IN KEY MOMENTS

New England has been Major League Soccer's best team over the opening 45 minutes of matches this season. Offensively, the team has run rampant, scoring an MLS-best 26 goals in the first half of contests. Meanwhile, their first-half goal differential of 10 also leads MLS this season.

The best 15-minute interval for New England this season has been from 16-30, when they have outscored opponents 11-3. In the final 15 minutes of first halves this season, New England has outscored opponents 10-5.

In addition to strong starts, New England owns the final 15 minutes of matches this year as well, outscoring opponents with their league-leading 12 goals to just five conceded in that interval. Six of those 11 goals were match winners, while another was an equalizer in a comeback victory over New York Red Bulls on July 31. Eight of New England's 12 goals scored in the final 15 minutes of matches have come on the road.

GOALS AND ASSISTS EXPECTED FROM REVS ATTACK

New England has been Major League Soccer's top attacking team throughout the 2021 regular season, with 53 goals and counting through 28 games. Behind much of the Revolution's success in the final third is their trio of Designated Players -- Adam Buksa, Gustavo Bou, and Carles Gil -- all of whom have enjoyed career-best seasons up top.

When it comes to combined goals and assists, the trio all ranks in the top 20 in MLS, with Gil's 16 assists this season leading the league. It's safe to expect goals when the Revs play, and the underlying analytics back that eye test.

According to American Soccer Analysis (@AnalysisEvolved), New England boasts three of the top-five players in the league in expected goals + expected assists this season, with Buksa leading the way at 16.86. Gil is the MLS leader in expected assists this season at 10.72 while Buksa ranks second in MLS with 15.90 expected goals.

KING OF THE GIL: CARLES CONTENDING FOR MLS MVP

Revolution captain Carles Gil, Major League Soccer's Player of the Month for June, an MLS All-Star, and a leading MLS MVP candidate, returned to action on September 3 after being sidelined for the month of August with a muscle injury. Gil owns 16 assists on the season and earned the June honor after recording five assists in three games during the month. Despite missing five games, Gil's league-leading 16 assists remain nearly double that of any other player in MLS.

Gil, who signed a new multi-year contract with the Revs on May 24, either leads or is among the league leaders in virtually every attacking category, staking his claim as a frontrunner for Landon Donovan MVP consideration:

2021 MLS LEADERS: HOW GIL STACKS UP

Category	Gil's MLS Ranking	Total

Chances Created from Open Play	1st	63
Chances Created from Set Play	1st	43
Shot-Creating Actions	1st	174
Goal-Creating Actions	1st	22

Carles Gil's assist rate has reached historic proportions, as his 0.51 assists per game is third in league history among all players with at least 20 assists, while his 0.56 assists per 90 minutes played ranks third in league annals.

MLS HISTORY: ASSISTS PER GAME

2.	Marco Etcheverry	D.C. United	101	0.53
3.	Carles Gil	New England	32	0.51
4.	Victor Vazquez	Toronto	25	0.48
5.	Maxi Moralez	New York City	57	0.38

Minimum 20 assists*

As Gil thrives, so does New England. Dating back to the Spaniard's arrival ahead of the 2019 campaign, the Revolution have lost only twice when he gets onto the scoresheet across regular season and postseason play:

When...	Revolution's Record
Carles Gil Scores a Goal	9-2-4
Carles Gil Records an Assist	22-0-5
Carles Gil Registers a Goal & Assist	5-0-1

While Gil is adept at finding the back of the net himself, his chance creation for others is what sets him apart. Dating back to 2011 -- when Opta began tracking key passes as a statistic -- only two other Revolution players have registered at least eight in a single game, while Gil has hit the mark six times:

REVOLUTION ALL-TIME LEADERS: KEY PASSES IN A SINGLE GAME

GIL ON TRACK TO CHALLENGE SEVERAL MLS RECORDS

After missing the month of August with an injury, Carles Gil's recorded his 16th assist on Sept. 11 to keep him on pace to break the club's single-season record for assists (19) and become only the fourth MLS player to tally 20 assists in a season. Gil's 16 helpers are already the second most in Revs history behind Steve Ralston's 19 in 2002.

Carles Gil ----- New England 16

Gil already recorded his eighth game-winning assists this season on Sept. 11, a single-season Revolution record. With six games remaining, he has matched the MLS record for game-winning assists and is one short of setting a new single-season MLS mark:

MLS ALL-TIME SINGLE-SEASON LEADERS: GAME-WINNING ASSISTS

Gil's chance creation this season has also been historic. New England's captain has already registered 106 key passes -- 35 more than Minnesota's Emmanuel Reynoso, whose 71 chances created are second most in MLS. Dating back to 2011, when Opta began tracking key passes as a statistic, Portland's Diego Valeri holds the all-time single season record of 124.

Carles Gil ----- New England (2021) 106

From set play, Gil has created 43 chances this season. Only six MLS clubs have generated more opportunities from set pieces than Gil has this year.

BUKSA JOINS BOU WITH DOUBLE-DIGIT GOALS

Forward Adam Buksa has scored eight goals across his last 14 league games, bringing his total to 12 on the season - tied with Gustavo Bou for the Revolution lead, and tied for fifth most in MLS. In addition, the Polish international tallied four goals in three international caps against European competition during September's FIFA World Cup Qualifiers.

Across the regular season and playoffs, Buksa ranks tied for eighth in goals scored and third in headed goals dating back to his debut in the 2020 season opener.

The six-foot-three forward is among Major League Soccer's most dominant player in the air. He paces the league in headed shots and ranks second in aerials won. Buksa's aerial prowess is on display in the Revolution's defending third as well. His 19 headed clearances rank second most among MLS forwards this season.

BOU KNOWS GOALS: GUSTAVO CHASING MLS GOLDEN BOOT

Forward Gustavo Bou is in the midst of an electric run of form, having scored 12 goals on the year and earned a MLS All-Star selection. He was recognized for his blistering scoring pace with MLS Player of the Month honors for July. Bou scored five times across six games in July, adding one assist, as the Revs went 4-1-1 and ascended to the top of the Supporters' Shield table. It marks the first time in Revolution history the club has produced back-to-back Player of the Month winners, following Carles Gil's win for June.

With 12 total goals on the season, Bou ranks tied for fifth in the MLS Golden Boot race. His teammate Adam Buksa (12) has also matched his tally for the team lead.

2021 MLS LEADERS: GOALS SCORED

Bou continues to score at a rate that puts him in elite company. His 0.48 goals per game and 0.56 goals per 90 minute clips are second only to Taylor Twellman for best in club history.

Bou's 26 goals in regular-season play since arriving in New England and his 25 goals from open play are tied for second-most league-wide, in MLS dating back to his MLS debut in July of 2019:

T-2.	Gyasi Zardes	Columbus	26
T-3.	Diego Rossi	LAFC	25
T-3.	Valentin Castellanos	New York City	25
T-5.	Carlos Vela	LAFC	24

Since joining the club on a club-record transfer fee from Liga MX's Club Tijuana, the Revolution have lost only once when Bou scores a goal. New England owns an 18-1-7 record across all competitions when La Pantera finds the back of the net.

Bou has shown a flare for the dramatic in MLS, having scored seven times in the 85th minute or later. The Revs are 5-0-2 in those games, inclusive of both regular season and postseason play.

TEAM NOTES

ARENA APPROACHING MLS WINS RECORD

Bruce Arena, in search of what would be an MLS-record fourth Supporters' Shield title, continues climbing the MLS record books in his 17th MLS season as a head coach. Arena trails the late Sigi Schmid by three wins for a share of the all-time record. Already the winningest active coach in MLS, he also eclipsed Schmid last season for most MLS Cup Playoff games coached (54) in 2020.

Arena owns 272 combined regular season and postseason wins in MLS, more than any other coach. In 2019, he became the second coach in MLS history to eclipse 700 regular season points earned, joining Sigi Schmid (843). With an all-time regular season record of 237-135-110 (35-14-21 with New England), Arena ranks second in league history in regular season wins and points earned.

4.	Dominic Kinnear	SJ, HOU, LA	170
5.	Peter Vermes*	SKC	168

Among MLS coaches with at least 100 games coached, Arena also owns the second-best all-time winning percentage, with over 300 more games coached than the current leader, Brian Schmetzer:

The five-time MLS Cup champion last year improved his all-time playoff record to 35-13-6, and maintained his undefeated record in playoff games where his teams score first (29-0-3). His 35 playoff wins are the most all-time. Arena has reached the conference finals eight times in his career, and advanced to MLS Cup seven times in his previous 16 seasons.

Arena's five MLS Cup victories are unlikely to rivaled anytime soon, as no other active coach has more than two trophies under their belt.

TURNER'S SHOT-STOPPING RATES ARE HISTORIC

Despite finishing second in Allstate Goalkeeper of the Year voting last year, Turner ranked atop the charts in several advanced and traditional statistical categories, including goals allowed minus expected goals allowed. According to American Soccer Analysis, Turner's -7.27 goals allowed minutes expected goals (GA-xGA) was the best mark among MLS goalkeepers in 2020 by a margin of 1.96.

For his career, Turner has totaled -24.41 goals saved above expected, the best total in MLS since the statistic began being tracked by American Soccer Analysis in 2013. Turner's impressive total comes despite him playing only four of the nine seasons during that span and seeing approximately 10,000 fewer minutes than the three next-closest players.

MLS LEADERS SINCE 2013:

GOALS ALLOWED MINUS EXPECTED GOALS ALLOWED

4.	Nick Rimando	18,976	-17.60
5.	Tim Melia	18,437	-17.38

The six-year veteran also posted outstanding numbers by traditional metrics during his breakout 2020 campaign. He anchored New England to a new club record for best goals-against average (1.09) in a single season, set a new career high with six shutouts - two shy of the league lead - despite the shortened season, and conceded only 24 goals through 22 starts. He finishing the year ranked among the top five league-wide in saves and saves percentage.

In both MLS and international circles, Turner has also become notorious for his heroics on penalty kicks, including saving one from Orlando City SC's Nani in the 2020 Eastern Conference Semifinals to help secure the win. Turner stonewalled Nani again in the Revs' last match on September 25 vs. Orlando. He also stopped two penalties in a shootout to give the MLS All-Stars a win over the Liga MX All-Stars to earn All-Star Game MVP honors. Since taking over as a starter in 2018, Turner has stopped three penalties with New England and is tied for second in penalty save percentage during that span.

BUCHANAN NAMED GOLD CUP'S BEST YOUNG PLAYER

Midfielder Tajon Buchanan was named Best Young Player for the 2021 Concacaf Gold Cup after leading the Canada Men's National Team to the Semifinal. Buchanan was Canada's catalyst throughout its run at the tournament, starting all five of the Canada's games and recording one goal and five assists, including his first international goal in the Semifinal against Mexico.

In MLS play, the 2021 All Star continues to establish himself as one of the league's most explosive wingers. He has already posted single-season career highs in both goals (7) and assist (5). The 22-year-old has tallied five times in his last 10 outings.

His ability to beat defenders one-on-one and draw fouls in dangerous positions has set up several advantageous set-piece opportunities for the Revolution. Despite missing five games for international duty, he sits atop the league in fouls won in the final third:

T-2.	Cristian Dájome	Vancouver	21
T-5.	Djordje Mihailovic	Montreal	18
T-5.	Richie Laryea	Toronto	18

So far in the 2021 MLS campaign, Buchanan ranks fourth among all MLS midfielders in minutes per goals scored, averaging a goal approximately every two games. The Club Brugge-bound Buchanan ranks sixth on the Revolution with a career-high seven goals this season.

* - Minimum 5 goals scored.

Now the owner of 12 international caps with two goals and four assists, Buchanan made his senior-team debut earlier this summer with four appearances in 2022 FIFA World Cup Qualifiers. He notched two assists in his full international debut before adding three substitute appearances. Buchanan then added three appearances, two starts, one goal, and one assist in September's qualifiers.

In March 2021, Buchanan, the 2020 Canadian Men's Youth Player of the Year, made his first international appearance at any level when he featured for the Under-23 MNT in the Concacaf Men's Olympic Qualifying Championship.

KILLER B'S: REVS BOAST HISTORICALLY BALANCED SCORING

Forwards Gustavo Bou and Adam Buksa are the team's top scorers this season, with 12 goals apiece, and are among the league's top 10 scoring leaders. As a team, the Revolution are on pace to shatter their club record for goals in a season, 55, set in 2003 and matched in 2005.

Tajon Buchanan scored his seventh goal of the season in New England's win over New York City FC on Sept 11. Buchanan has now tallied in five times in his last 10 appearances for the Revolution. New England is unbeaten, 6-0-1, when the Canadian tallies this season.

With Buchanan's next goal, New England would have three players on eight-or-more goals for just the fourth time in club history and first since 2018. Should Buchanan reach double digits in scoring this year, it would mark the first time in club history New England had three players with 10-plus goals in a single season.

Bou, who returned to action on Sept. 11 after missing two games with a calf strain, still ranks tied for fifth in the MLS Golden Boot race with a team-leading 12 goals this season. His 0.47 goals per game ranks second in club history and New England is 8-1-2 this season when Bou scores a goal.

Buksa, in his second season with New England, is enjoying a breakout campaign, collecting 12 goals to rank tied for fifth in MLS this season. He also added four tallies with the Poland National Team in September's World Cup Qualifiers. The 25-year-old from Krakow, Poland has two multi-goal games this season and New England is 7-1-2 when Buksa scores this season.

REVS SET MLS RECORD FOR ONE-GOAL WINS

With six games remaining in New England's 2021 MLS regular season, the Revolution have raced to the top of the league standings and now stand 14 points clear in the chase for the Supporters' Shield and 17 points ahead in the Eastern Conference. The Revolution have won 19 games this season, most in the league by a margin of five and surpassing the club's previous single-season record (17 - 2005, 2014).

Of the Revolution's 19 wins, an MLS-record 16 have come via one-goal margins. New England is just fourth team in MLS history to notch at least 13 wins in one-goal games, a feat last accomplished by the Colorado Rapids in 2016.

MLS ALL-TIME LEADERS: MOST WINS IN ONE-GOAL GAMES

Rank	Club	Record	Win Pct.	Year
1.	New England	16-2-0	.882	2021

T-2.	FC Dallas	13-8-0	.619	2006
T-5.	Seven Teams Tied	12 wins

Of those 16 one-goal victories, six have come by a 2-1 scoreline including the latest victory over Orlando last Saturday. Five more wins have been by a 1-0 scoreline and the remaining five have all been 3-2 margins. On 12 of these occasions, the winning goal from New England has been scored in the second half, including six times after the 75th minute.

FARRELL BREAKS REVOLUTION'S SERVICE RECORD

Defender Andrew Farrell became the Revolution's all-time leader in games played on Aug. 28 at New York City FC. Earlier this summer, Farrell also became the club's all-time leader in MLS starts and minutes played, passing Shalrie Joseph in both categories. Prior to New England's match on Sept. 18, Farrell was honored in front of the Gillette Stadium faithful in a pregame ceremony.

Farrell has been an ironman since he entered the league with New England as the first-overall pick of the 2013 MLS SuperDraft. He leads all MLS players in games played, games started, and minutes played since he entered the league. The ninth-year pro has never missed more than five games in a season.

Farrell and Scott Caldwell, who joined the Revolution within one month of each other in 2013, rank among Major League Soccer's 10 longest-serving players with one club. Goalkeeper Brad Knighton and forward Teal Bunbury are also among the league's longest-tenured players with the same team, with those two having joined the Revolution ahead of the 2014 season:

REVS TRIO SHINES ON INTERNATIONAL STAGE

A trio of Revolution players excelled on the international stage during September's World Cup Qualifiers as Adam Buksa (Poland), Tajon Buchanan (Canada), and goalkeeper Matt Turner (United States) combined to earn nine caps and go undefeated in FIFA World Cup Qualifiers for their countries.

Buksa, 25, scored four goals in his first three caps with the Poland National Team in World Cup Qualifying matches against Albania on Sept. 2, San Marino on Sept. 5, and England on Sept. 8. On his international debut, Buksa started and scored the winning goal in a 4-1 win over Albania. The striker followed that up with a second-half hat trick in a 7-1 victory over San Marino. He added another start and a 62-minute shift in Poland's 1-1 draw against England.

Buchanan, 22, has earned all 12 of his senior caps with Canada in 2021, with seven coming in World Cup Qualifiers. The Brampton, Ontario native played in all three matches for Canada, starting twice, and recorded a goal and an assist in a 3-0 victory over El Salvador on Sept. 8. Buchanan now owns two goals and four assists in his national team career.

Turner, 27, improved to 8-0-2 in 10 starts with the U.S. Men's National Team, with a 0.29 goals against average on the international stage. Turner started all three of the United States' qualifiers during the September window.

MACIEL & BELL PAVE PATHWAY FROM REVS II TO MLS

One year after Revolution II -- the Revolution's USL League One outfit -- was established to bridge the gap between the club's Academy and first team, the pipeline is already bearing fruit for the senior side.

On May 12 at Philadelphia, defender Jon Bell made his MLS debut and played 90 minutes in central defense. He was joined in the starting lineup by midfielder Lucas 'Maciel' Felix, who made his MLS debut on May 1 vs. Atlanta. It marked the first time two Revolution II alums appeared in the same match for the Revolution.

Bell's aerial dominance has been particularly noteworthy -- among MLS defenders who have played 500 minutes this season, he ranks sixth in aerials won per 90 minutes.

MLS DEFENDERS: AERIALS WON PER 90 MINUTES

Rank	Player	Club	Aerial Won
1.	Sean Nealis	New York	4.35

5.	Francisco Calvo	Chicago	3.63
6.	Yeimar Gomez	Seattle	3.47
7.	Jon Bell	New England	3.43

Maciel has also made 15 appearances this season, including 13 starts, establishing himself as a staple in the team's starting lineup. He ranks second among Revolution players in pass completion percentage with an 88.89 clip. In his MLS debut on May 1 vs. Atlanta, he completed all 33 of his passes. Dating back to 2011 - when Opta began tracking MLS statistics - no Revolution player who has completed 100 percent of their passes in a game has recorded as many passes as Maciel.

BRUCE ARENA

SPORTING DIRECTOR & HEAD COACH

- Named the Revolution's sporting director and the club's eighth head coach on May 14, 2019.
- Holds a record five MLS Cup titles (1996, 1997, 2011, 2012, 2014), and shares the all-time record with three MLS Coach of the Year honors and three MLS Supporters' Shields.
- The winningest active MLS head coach and one of two coaches in league history to eclipse 200 regular season MLS wins and 700 career points.
- Reached the MLS Cup final in seven of 15 seasons as an MLS head coach, with a record 35 MLS Cup Playoff wins and 54 postseason games coached.
- Managed the U.S. Men's National Team through two separate stints (1998-2006, 2016-17) and two FIFA Men's World Cups in 2002 and 2006, and won three Gold Cup titles.
- Built a dynasty over 18 seasons as head coach at the University of Virginia, winning five NCAA Division-1 National Championships and six ACC titles.

Bruce Arena is in his third season as Sporting Director and Head Coach of the New England Revolution after his appointment to the position on May 14, 2019. The five-time MLS Cup winner is the eighth head coach in club history and oversees all soccer operations for the New England Revolution, including head coaching duties, roster management, scouting, and the oversight of Revolution II and the Revolution Academy.

In his first two seasons at the helm in New England, Arena has led the Revolution to consecutive MLS Cup Playoff appearances, including a berth in the Eastern Conference Final in his first full season in New England. He made his return to the MLS postseason in 2019 by leading one of the most remarkable turnarounds in league history. After a 2-8-2 start had the Revolution sitting in last place in MLS, Arena went unbeaten in his first eight games on the sidelines and helped New England reach the postseason, ending a three-year drought for the club.

The team's historic turnaround in 2019 came despite Arena only making one in-season addition to the roster, bringing in Argentine striker Gustavo Bou via a club-record transfer in July. In his first offseason, Arena further bolstered the roster with a combination of MLS veterans and international signings highlighted by young Polish striker Adam Buksa. The roster improvements paid dividends as Arena led the Revolution on a run to the Eastern Conference Final in 2020, highlighted by away wins against the top-seeded Philadelphia Union and fourth-seeded Orlando City SC.

The Long Island, N.Y. native joined the Revolution with one of the most decorated coaching careers in American soccer history that has spanned more than 40 seasons at the collegiate, professional, and international levels. Arena's MLS resume includes a record five MLS Cup titles, three Supporters' Shields, seven conference championships, one U.S. Open Cup title, and one Concacaf Champions' Cup. He has reached the MLS Cup final in seven of his 15 seasons coaching in the league. Arena has earned three MLS Coach of the Year selections, tied for the most all-time, first winning the honor in 1997 with D.C. United before being recognized in 2009 and 2011 with the LA Galaxy.

With more than 250 combined regular season and postseason wins in MLS to date, and a regular season record of 218-131-105 (.596) entering 2021, Arena is the league's winningest active head coach. He is one of two coaches in league history to have surpassed 200 regular season wins and 700 career points, along with Sigi Schmid. Arena is the league's all-time leader in MLS Cup Playoff games coached with 54 (35-13-6), while his 35 playoff wins are also the most in league history.

On the international stage, Arena, 70, coached the U.S. Men's National Team over two separate stints from 1998-2006 and 2016-17, amassing the most wins in the program's history with a record of 81-35-32. He led the Stars and Stripes to a Quarterfinal finish in the 2002 FIFA Men's World Cup – the country's best showing since 1930 – as well an appearance in the 2006 FIFA Men's World Cup. Arena also guided the U.S. Men's National Team to more Gold Cup titles than any other coach, capturing the continental trophy three times in 2002, 2005, and 2017.

Before his time in the professional ranks, Arena began his head coaching career with one season at the University of Puget Sound (1976), before being named the head coach at the University of Virginia in 1978. During his decorated 18-year tenure at Virginia, he led the Cavaliers to five NCAA Division-1 National Championships, including four in a row from 1991-94, as well as six ACC Men's Soccer titles (1988, 1991-95). While at Virginia, Arena coached a number of American soccer legends, including Claudio Reyna, John Harkes, and current D.C. United Head Coach Ben Olsen.

In 1996, Arena received an offer to lead the United States Under-23 Men's National Team in the 1996 Summer Olympics in Atlanta. Shortly after the Olympics, he assumed the head role with D.C. United, where he led the Black-and-Red to a 61-35 record, including the first two MLS Cup titles in 1996 and 1997, and the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup title in 1996.

Following the 1998 FIFA Men's World Cup in France, the United States Soccer Federation turned to Arena, who helped the team qualify for the 2002 FIFA Men's World Cup. In the tournament, Arena's team recorded an impressive win over powerhouse Portugal and topped Mexico, 2-0, in the Round of 16 en route to the nation's first appearance in the Quarterfinals in a 72-year span. That same year, Arena led the USMNT to the Concacaf Gold Cup title, one of his three triumphs in the competition.

In 2005, Arena won his second Concacaf Gold Cup ahead of the 2006 FIFA Men's World Cup in Germany. In the 2006 tournament, the United States earned a 1-1 draw against Italy, but a 2-1 defeat to Ghana sent the USMNT home early.

The next season, Arena took charge of the New York Red Bulls, where he spent the end of the 2006 season and all of the 2007 campaign. In 2008, Arena joined the LA Galaxy for what would be an incredible nine-year tenure that included three MLS Cups in a four-year span and two Supporters' Shields in 2010 and 2011.

Following his decorated career with the Galaxy, Arena rejoined the U.S. Men's National Team in November 2016. In his second run as head coach, he lost only two out of 18 games at the helm, though the United States fell short of qualification for the 2018 FIFA Men's World Cup.

A 2010 National Soccer Hall of Fame inductee, Arena was named the 2015 Werner Fricker Builder Award recipient, earning U.S. Soccer's highest honor for his more than 40 years of service to the game.

A talented lacrosse player, Arena grew up on Long Island and would go on to attend Nassau Community College, where he played both lacrosse and soccer. Arena then transferred to Cornell University in 1971, where as a goalkeeper, he led his team to the 1972 NCAA College Cup Final Four and earned the tournament's Most Valuable Defensive Player award. During the 1973 season, Arena contributed as an assistant coach with Cornell, before then accepting a head coaching position at the University of Puget Sound.

Off the field, Arena has authored a number of books and is a member of the NJCAA Lacrosse Hall of Fame, after receiving induction in 2008. He and his wife, Phyllis, live in Boston. Arena's son, Kenny, was an assistant coach under his father with the LA Galaxy from 2014-16, before joining the staff of Los Angeles FC in 2018, where he currently serves as an assistant coach.

CURT ONALFO
TECHNICAL DIRECTOR

Curt Onalfo is in his third season as Technical Director of the New England Revolution after his appointment to the position on June 2, 2019. In his role, Onalfo works closely with Sporting Director Bruce Arena managing the club's day-to-day soccer operations, including oversight of Revolution II, the Revolution Academy and the scouting department.

The Sao Paulo, Brazil native and Ridgefield, Conn. product joins the Revolution following an extensive coaching and playing career in Major League Soccer and with the United States Men's National Team. Onalfo has won MLS Cup as both a player and a coach, including one as a member of D.C. United in 1999, and three as an assistant coach with the LA Galaxy in 2011, 2012, and 2014.

Onalfo owns 12 total years of MLS coaching experience, highlighted by stints as head coach of D.C. United (2010), the then-Kansas City Wizards (2007-09), and the LA Galaxy (2017). While continuing as an assistant with the Galaxy, he also served as the inaugural head coach of USL Championship side LA Galaxy II from 2014-16, where he led the club to a Western Conference title in 2015. When he departed "Los Dos" to take over head coaching duties with the Galaxy first team, his overall record with the developmental side finished at 46-29-20.

On the international level, Onalfo spent six years as an assistant coach for the United States Men's National Team under Bruce Arena. He served as an assistant for the USMNT from 2002-07 – including at the 2002 and 2006 FIFA Men's World Cup™ – and also worked as an assistant with the U.S. Under-23 MNT in 2002. Prior to joining the Revolution, he most recently assisted the U.S. Under-20 Men's National Team from 2018 through May 2019, including in Poland at the FIFA U-20 Men's World Cup™, and briefly served as acting head coach of the U-19 side for a training camp in January 2019.

Onalfo, 50, entered the coaching ranks an assistant with D.C. United in 2000 following his retirement. He remained with the Black and Red until September 2002, briefly serving as interim head coach in 2001. After his time in the U.S. Men's National Team setup, Onalfo was appointed head coach of the Kansas City Wizards shortly after the 2006 FIFA Men's World Cup. He led Kansas City for two-and-a-half seasons, compiling a 27-29-22 record, and helped the club reach the postseason twice, including a Western Conference Finals appearance in 2007. In December 2009, Onalfo was named head coach of D.C. United, where he would remain for eight months before departing the club.

After starring for Ridgefield High School, Onalfo played collegiately for Bruce Arena at the University of Virginia from 1987-1990. In four seasons with the Cavaliers, he earned a pair of All-ACC First Team selections and helped the team win the 1988 ACC Championship. He began his professional career with French side La Ciotat in 1991, before featuring for the Connecticut Wolves of the USISL from 1994-95, and Mexican second division side Tampico Madero in 1995.

Onalfo was selected by the LA Galaxy in the inaugural MLS Draft and would make 13 appearances for the club in 1996, helping it reach the first ever MLS Cup. The defender went on to register 23 appearances across four seasons in MLS, spending additional time with San Jose (1997) and D.C. United (1998-99). He recorded one international cap with the U.S. Men's National Team and featured extensively at the youth level, including the 1989 FIFA World Youth Championship, the 1991 Pan American Games, and the 1992 Summer Olympics.

Onalfo's journey took a detour soon after the 1992 Olympics, when a diagnosis of stage three Hodgkin's disease at the age of 24 disrupted his career and nearly ended his life. After surviving his arduous battle with cancer, Onalfo resumed his playing career with Connecticut and then Mexican side Tampico FC, before joining the Galaxy for the inaugural MLS season.

REMI ROY

DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING & PRO PERSONNEL

Remi Roy is currently in his 12th season with the New England Revolution and his fourth as the club's Director of Scouting & Player Personnel, having been named to the position in January 2018. Roy has been with the club since 2010, previously serving as an assistant coach with New England for eight seasons.

In his current role, Roy is focused on scouting and talent identification in players at the collegiate, national, and international levels. He works closely with the Revolution technical staff in player evaluation and has a role in all soccer-related aspects of the organization, including communication with agents and facilitating MLS communication and compliance.

Roy was heavily engaged in the Revolution's scouting operations throughout his tenure as an assistant coach, contributing to the club's domestic and international scouting efforts. As an assistant coach, first under Steve Nicol and then for six seasons on Jay Heaps' staff, he worked primarily with the Revs' first-team goalkeepers and also provided additional training for the Revolution Academy goalkeepers.

During his time on the Revs' coaching staff, Roy mentored several talented goalkeepers and helped them each achieve success in the professional ranks. In addition to coaching former Revs goalkeeper Matt Reis in his pursuit of MLS longevity and success, Roy helped Bobby Shuttleworth establish himself as one of the league's premier goalkeepers since his debut in 2010. In 2016, Roy's guidance helped Brad Knighton start a career-high 13 matches, including six wins.

Roy joined the Revolution after 10 years as the assistant coach/goalkeepers coach for both the men's and women's soccer teams at the University of Mobile in Alabama, his alma mater. During his tenure in Mobile, Roy was also a member of the Region III goalkeeping staff. Additionally, he served as the Puerto Rico national team's goalkeepers coach in its preparations for the 2010 FIFA World Cup.

In addition to his various coaching positions, Roy spent five years as a player-coach in the United Soccer League (USL) with the Syracuse Salty Dogs (2003) and the Virginia Beach Mariners (2004-07).

Roy played collegiately at the University of Mobile from 1997-99. In his final season in 1999, Roy garnered all-conference, all-region, and All-American honors. He also played five seasons in the Premier Development League (PDL) with the Jackson Chargers (1998-99), Des Moines Menace (2000), and the Spokane Shadow (2001).

Roy holds a USSF "A" License and Level I and II NSCAA Goalkeeping Licenses. A native of Petit-Rocher, New Brunswick, Canada, Roy lives south of Boston with his wife and three kids.

RICHIE WILLIAMS
ASSISTANT COACH

Richie Williams is in his third season as an assistant coach for the New England Revolution after joining Bruce Arena's staff in June 2019. Williams brings 16 years of coaching experience in Major League Soccer, USL Championship, and the United States Men's National Team to New England. He most recently served as the first ever head coach of USL Championship side Loudoun United FC.

During the 2020 season, Williams coached the Revolution through three unbeaten games in August 2020 in place of a suspended Bruce Arena, leading New England to a 1-0-2 mark.

A native of Middletown Township, N.J., Williams has previously served as either an assistant coach or head coach for seven different teams over the course of his coaching career. Prior to managing Loudoun United in 2019, he served as an assistant coach for the United States Men's National Team from 2017-18. In addition, he has served as an assistant for Real Salt Lake in 2016, the U.S. U-17 MNT from 2012-15, the U.S. U-18 MNT from 2011-12, the New York Red Bulls from 2006-11 -- where he also completed two stints as interim head coach in 2006 and 2009 -- and the University of Virginia from 2005-06.

Williams enjoyed a successful playing career prior to entering the coaching ranks. He played under Bruce Arena at multiple stops during his career, including at the University of Virginia from 1988-91, D.C. United from 1996-98, and the United States Men's National Team from 1998-2002. Together, Arena and Williams won an NCAA Championship at the University of Virginia in 1991, before helping D.C. United to three consecutive MLS Cup appearances, including championships in 1996 and 1997.

The former midfielder also earned 20 international caps with the USMNT under Arena, highlighted by a CONCACAF Gold Cup title in 2002. He also spent time with the Richmond Kickers in 1993 and 2004-05, Scottish side Ayr United FC from 1993-94, and the New York/New Jersey MetroStars in 2001 and 2003.

DAVE VAN DEN BERGH
ASSISTANT COACH

Dave van den Bergh is in his third season as Assistant Coach for the New England Revolution after joining the club's staff in June 2019. Van den Bergh, 44, arrived in New England following nine years as a coach with various United States Youth National teams.

The Amsterdam native served as assistant coach for the United States Under-20 Men's National Team in 2019 and from 2010-16, head coach of the United States Under-19 Men's National Team in 2018, and head coach of the United States Under-15s from 2016-18. Van den Bergh recorded a 6-0-4 record as head of the U.S. U-15s, and helped guide the U-20s to consecutive Quarterfinal appearances in the 2015 and 2019 FIFA U-20 World Cups.

Van den Bergh enjoyed a decorated playing career from 1995-2009, featuring extensively in the Dutch Eredivisie, La Liga, and Major League Soccer. He began his career with Dutch powerhouse Ajax in 1995 after spending 10 years in the club's academy. Van den Bergh made 12 appearances across three seasons for Ajax -- highlighted by a league title in the 1995-96 season -- before moving to Spanish side Rayo Vallecano, where he logged 47 appearances from 1997-2000. He returned to the Eredivisie in 2000, joining FC Utrecht. The winger scored 29 goals across 184 games played for Utrecht, and led the club to consecutive Dutch Cup wins in 2003 and 2004, as well a Dutch Super Cup title in 2004.

Van den Bergh signed with the Kansas City Wizards of Major League Soccer in 2006. After one season with Kansas City, he joined the New York Red Bulls, where he played under Bruce Arena in 2007. Following two seasons with New York, Van den Bergh featured for FC Dallas in 2009. On the international stage, Van den Bergh collected two caps with the Netherlands in 2004.

KEVIN HITCHCOCK
ASSISTANT COACH

Kevin Hitchcock is in his third season as Assistant Coach for the New England Revolution after joining the club's staff in April 2019. Hitchcock brings nearly two decades of professional coaching experience in the top flights of England, Qatar, and India, as well as a decorated 18-year playing career in England, to New England.

Hitchcock, who owns a UEFA 'A' Goalkeeper License and UEFA 'B' License, spent the previous 18 years as a first-team goalkeeper coach with several top-flight clubs. His experience includes stints with Watford FC (2001-04), Blackburn Rovers FC (2004-08), Manchester City FC (2008-10), Fulham FC (2011), Queens Park Rangers (2012-15), Al Arabi Sports Club (2015-16), and Birmingham City FC (2016-18). Most recently, Hitchcock spent one year as the goalkeepers coach for Indian Super League side Chennaiyin FC.

Hitchcock has coached and developed a number of elite professional goalkeepers, including Joe Hart, Kasper Schmeichel, Shay Given, Robert Green, Júlio César, and Mark Schwarzer, among others.

Prior to entering the coaching ranks, Hitchcock registered nearly 300 appearances across an 18-year playing career in England, highlighted by two FA Cups, one League Cup, one Cup Winners Cup, and one Super Cup with Chelsea FC. In total, he recorded 96 appearances for The Blues from 1988-2001, also completing loan assignments to West Ham United FC (1993) and Northampton Town FC (1990) during his time with the club. Prior to joining Chelsea, Hitchcock began his professional career with Mansfield Town FC, where he made 168 appearances from 1984-88. At the youth level, he played with both Nottingham Forest FC and Barking F.C.

JARRYD PHILLIPS
DIRECTOR OF SPORTS PERFORMANCE

Jarryd Phillips is in his third season as Director of Sports Performance for the New England Revolution after joining Bruce Arena's staff in June 2019. He brings seven years of experience as a sports science and performance coach to the position, including time spent in MLS, USL, NASL, and the NCAA.

Phillips arrived in New England after spending nearly three years as Director of Performance & Sports Science for Minnesota United FC. He established and directed all facets of the performance department for Minnesota's first team and academy beginning in July 2016, as the club prepared to ascend from the NASL to MLS in 2017. In his role with the Loons, he oversaw all nutritional aspects of the squad, administered strength and fitness programs, and participated in daily training sessions.

Prior to joining Minnesota, Phillips spent nearly two seasons as a performance coach with Seattle Sounders FC from January 2015 through July 2016. Before entering the professional coaching ranks, he worked as an assistant coach at the University of Mary in North Dakota from 2013-14. Phillips began his coaching career with the Premier Development League's Thunder Bay Chill in 2012.

Phillips earned his undergraduate degree at the University of Maine before attending graduate school at the University of Mary in South Dakota, where he received a master's degree in kinesiology and exercise science. He holds USSF and UEFA coaching licenses and is an NSCA Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS).
