MATCH PREVIEW

Real Salt Lake returns home to Rio Tinto Stadium to welcome the LA Galaxy on Wednesday, September 29 for the Club's first-ever Hispanic Heritage Night. Kickoff from Sandy is set for 7:30 p.m. MT. Stories to Watch:

The Road to Playoffs

Eight games remain in the 2021 Major League Soccer regular season and RSL is currently sitting in seventh place, just above the playoff line with 36 points. Wednesday's opponent, LA Galaxy is in fifth place with 38 points, while Minnesota United sits in between the two with 37 points. A win over the Galaxy would see RSL jump into sixth place and a win with a Minnesota loss or draw would see the team move into fifth place. With a draw from RSL and a loss from Minnesota they would also move into sixth place based on goal differential.

Protect the House

With just eight games remaining, its four remaining home matches are of the utmost importance in solidifying a position in the playoff picture. This season RSL has earned a 7-2-4 record at Rio Tinto Stadium good for 25 points at home. The team has the fourth best home record in the Western Conference, but are just one point shy of tying Sporting Kansas City, Minnesota and Portland for the top spot. If RSL can win its remaining home matches, it would have 48 points with 12 points remaining on the table, giving the team the best chance at securing one of the seven playoff spots in the Western Conference.

An Important Night

Wednesday's game will celebrate the members of the Hispanic community, including 10 players from RSL. The 10 players represent seven different countries, including Argentina (Jonathan Menéndez, Pablo Ruiz) Cuba (Maikel Chang), Ecuador (Anderson Julio), Honduras (Douglas Martinez), Mexico (Chris Garcia, David Ochoa, Rubio Rubin) Uruguay (Marcelo Silva) and Venezuela (Jeison Ramirez).

Connections: Following his retirement from professional soccer in 2008, LA Galaxy Head Coach Greg Vanney joined the RSL Academy in Casa Grande, Arizona where he served as the technical director from 2008-2011. Former RSL Homegrown defender Danilo Acosta now plies his trade with the Galaxy where he signed prior to the 2020 season. While with RSL, the left back made 29 appearances in MLS to accompany 26 appearances in the USL Championship. RSL Assistant Coach Pablo Mastroeni played his final MLS season with the Galaxy in 2013.

2021 GAME NOTES

LAST MATCH RECAP

Real Salt Lake (10-10-6, 36 points) fell 6-1 to Portland Timbers at Providence Park, but maintain position above the playoff line heading into Wednesday's midweek match against the LA Galaxy.

The first half saw the home side come out as the aggressor, generating several chances in the first few minutes, including a shot that hit the crossbar in the second minute. Portland was able to finally capitalize in the 27th minute when they were able to string together several key passes on the counter attack to provide Felipe Mara a clear shot at goal. Nearly ten minutes later the Timbers doubled their lead with a header from Dainon Asprilla in the 36th minute. Real Salt Lake made quick work to respond when Damir Kreilach pounced on a loose ball inside the box from goalkeeper Steve Clark in the 41st minute. Despite several more chances, Portland took the 2-1 lead into the halftime break.

Portland took control in the second half with four-consecutive goals, beginning with Yimmi Chara in the 48th minute. His brother Diego Chara got the fourth goal of the night in the 68th minute and second-half substitutes Jaroslaw Niezgoda and Cristhian Paredes got the final goals in the 85th and 88th minutes, respectively. Real Salt Lake saw four shots on goal in the second half, including two from Albert Rusnák and Noah Powder, but it was not enough to overcome Portland's attack and the match ended 6-1 in favor of the Timbers.

GENERAL MANAGER ELLIOT FALL

Fall has served in different capacities at Real Salt Lake since 2007. During the 2013-2014 seasons, he worked closely with former General Manager Garth Lagerwey as Director of Soccer Operations. In November of 2014, Fall was named Assistant General Manager and has held that position for five seasons. In each of those roles, he assisted in player acquisition and retention as well as in player development, overseeing the Real Monarchs and the RSL Academy at different stages. A graduate of the University of Utah and Salt Lake City's Judge Memorial Catholic High School, Fall is a lifelong Salt Lake City resident. At 36 years old, he is the youngest General Manager in Major League Soccer.

INTERIM HEAD COACH PABLO MASTROENI

Pablo Mastroeni, 44, joined RSL's staff prior to the 2021 season after one season as an assistant coach with Houston Dynamo FC on the staff of Tab Ramos. The five-time MLS All-Star played 16 seasons in Major League Soccer. He assumed the role of Interim Head Coach of RSL on August 27, 2021.

Following his playing career, Mastroeni took the reins as the Head Coach of the Colorado Rapids in 2014. In 136 games at the helm, he coached the Rapids to the club's all-time best regular-season finish, earning a franchise record 58 points in 2016, finishing second in the Western Conference at 15-6-13, and advancing to the Western Conference Final.

HOMEGROWN LEADERS

Real Salt Lake has led Major League Soccer in minutes played by Academy products in each of the last three seasons and reached the Western Conference Semifinals in 2018 and 2019, totaling nearly 30,000 minutes across those three seasons. With Real Monarchs reaching the USL Championship Final in 2019 and the USL Regular Season Shield in 2017, RSL's youth development structure has shown an ability to develop young players coming through the RSL Academy as well as those joining from other organizations.

LA GALAXY POSTGAME QUOTES

LA GALAXY HEAD COACH GREG VANNEY

On what he saw from the match:

"I thought the first half was a good effort. I thought the ball was moving. I thought we controlled the game. We get into some very good spots. We don't connect on the final pass as much as we need to, given that we're in pretty good areas. We need to turn more of those possessions. I thought the group was pretty committed to the attack. It wasn't possession just for the sake of possession. I thought it was one of our best nights of trying to break lines, take the ball into the attack and back them up and put them in their box. I would imagine, in terms of balls they had to recover in their box; it was quite a few tonight. But the timing, the execution of the actions in the box, it didn't happen for us as frequently as I would have liked. And when it did, we weren't able to put the ball in the back of the net or even really make the keeper make any really difficult, big saves or anything like that. We had some good looks in the first half. Most of their chances were in transition. I still thought that in the first half, a little too easy for them to play in between us and also kind of get into our half of the field. They didn't really hurt us a lot on that. But I thought it was a little too easy, something that has to be better.

In the second half, it becomes a game of moments. They get theirs in transition and get their chance and they put it in the goal. It changes the emotion of the game. The emotion is a big part of it, because now they have the goal lead, they're pushing a little bit more. They also can stay compact, but then they're step out pressing a little bit faster. Our guys are trying to trying to connect again and break them down in a little bit more like urgency. And almost I don't know if panic is the right word, but there's definitely a little bit more urgency where I felt like we weren't as tight sometimes to getting in the box and getting to that final action. I thought we rushed some things a few times, and then I thought we didn't handle some situations great, but I thought the effort was fantastic. I thought our performance for much of the game was solid. We had 10 corner kicks. We still didn't get a great chance off of corner kicks. We've got to be able to get an edge somewhere on one of these set pieces when we have so many of them. We didn't. So at the end of the day, the game comes down to the two boxes. You know, they got a couple of chances in the box. They buried two of maybe three, four chances tops that they had. And we had a lot of moments in the boxes and we don't bury any of them. It's a game we have to score and you have to score one goal. But it would be really helpful on the emotional side if we could score the first goal. I think that would really help us group right now just because they put in a great shift and played very well in the first half. And if we can tip that first domino over and get that goal and get on the front side of the game, I think would be a good relief for this group as they keep pushing and keep fighting."

On what the team needs to do to get on the scoresheet:

"You have to keep working and keep doing. One minute, two minutes in the game we had Javi [Javier "Chicharito" Hernandez] in behind the back line with a chance... We've got to keep doing the things that are creating the chances for us. And at some point, the timing is going to get right. The finish is going to get right. We can we can tip that bar in our favor. You've got to keep working for it. They put in the work today and we got into good spots, but we just got to keep working for us. It's not like we have training time and we can do a lot of finishing or do anything like that. We're bouncing from game to game pretty quickly. When these games come fast, you've got to sort some of these things out on the fly a bit. And when it comes to finishing, some of this is just it's just timing. Its composure in front of the goal, it's taking a moment when we get it.

On whether or not the team is worried about its recent form:

"I think for sure everybody feels urgency and everybody's disappointed. There's a sense in the locker room that the guys put out a good shift and it's about execution. Now, it's about putting the ball in the back of the net when we get the opportunities and execute around our goal. It would it would be helpful for this group to get a goal, to get ahead and not feel like we have to chase a game, but to have the emotion of where we can protect the goal for once instead of getting behind. So are there alarm bells? For sure. Everybody feels some urgency to obviously shift the momentum to get that result that we need to keep going. But as I said to them, we keep fighting. We're in a position right now where we control our own destiny. We need to keep our heads up and keep fighting every game and keep pushing for the next opportunity. It just takes one win and one result to get us the momentum shifted the other way, which may even just mean one goal, get one goal, one first goal. And we may be able to shift the tide of this thing because tonight wasn't about I thought about whether we played good or bad. It was about whether we executed or didn't in key moments of the game."

LA GALAXY MIDFIELDER JONATHAN DOS SANTOS

On whether the team feels a sense of urgency with the end of the season approaching:

"Yes, of course. We know that every game right now is like a final. I just say we have to win this game. I think they're the team played better. But in these kind of games, every small detail can change the game. So we didn't score goals in the first half or the second half. And they had two, three opportunities to score. So I think we have to change that mentality. We have to pay more attention. I'm worried of course, because we have, I think, eight more games and we know that we are we're still in playoffs. We know that all the teams are very close to us. So we know that in this game, we have to we have to win. We have to take these three points in. We need to keep working. This is not this is not the end of the world. We know that we are one of the best teams in the league. and I think the fans of the club, of course, deserve more. But I want to tell the girls that we are working hard. We don't like to be in this situation. It's hard. Of course it's hard because nobody likes to be in these kind of situations. But hopefully we can get out a win on next Wednesday night. I think it's just one win and everything will change."

On what the team needs to do to get a win:

"We're still working on it. We're practicing every day, every training. You have to put more effort. We were talking after the game in the locker room. And yes, we have to score the goals that we had, because right now every team is playing to get into the playoffs. And, yes, every game is like a final. We have to we have to be more efficient on offensive and defense. It's difficult to be in this situation. For me, it's hard. I've been in this situation many times, but I know I'm not worried about this this year because I know that we have a really good team. The team is very tight and we are like a family. So I'm not worried about it. I know that we are going to get out of this situation."
