MATCH PREVIEW

Real Monarchs welcome Rio Grande Valley FC Toros for Halloween at Zions Bank Stadium on Wednesday, October 27. Kickoff is set for 7:00 p.m. MT and can be streamed live on ESPN+ and locally on the KSL TV app.

Records: Real Monarchs (5-18-7, 22 points); Rio Grande Valley (11-11-8, 41 points)

Head-to-Head: Rio Grande Valley FC took over advantage in the all-time series between the sides with three wins over the Monarchs so far this season. The Toros now own an edge through 11 matches played with an all-time record of 6-4-1, including a plus five goal differential overall. The previous match between the sides ended in a 3-0 defeat for the Monarchs at H-E-B Park on October 2, 2021.

Connections: Real Monarchs defender Kyle Adams spent his first three professional seasons with Rio Grande Valley FC as a part of the Houston Dynamo organization.

Notes: The Monarchs will look to wrap up its 2021 home schedule with a fifth-consecutive result at Zions Bank Stadium, while the Toros have not won on the road since defeating the Monarchs on August 4. Real Monarchs are 53-28-24 all-time as hosts, while Rio Grande Valley FC is 19-44-25 all-time on the road.

REAL MONARCHS

2021 GAME NOTES

LAST MATCH RECAP

Real Monarchs (5-18-7, 22 points) played to a 1-1 draw against Mountain Division opponent Colorado Springs Switchbacks FC at Zions Bank Stadium. Kyle Adams' first goal as a member of the Real Monarchs was enough for a hard-earned point at home.

The match's first action began with a foul at midfield in the 13th minute that led to midfielder Julio Benitez receiving a red card, leaving the Monarchs with 10 men the rest of the way. Colorado Springs saw its first good chance of the match in the 27th minute with a cross into the far post, but the shot missed wide. The Monarchs best chance of the half came in the 34th minute, but Max Mata's left-footed shot from the top of the box was saved by the goalkeeper. In the 7th minute of added time a foul in the box led to Switchbacks FC being awarded a penalty, but goalkeeper Jeff Dewsnup denied Hadji Barry's attempt with a dive to his right and the sides entered the break scoreless.

The Monarchs found the breakthrough in the 47th minute after Milan Iloski was awarded a free kick near the right side of the box. Iloski fired a cross towards Adams at the far post and the Monarchs defender tucked the ball into the back of the net to give the home side the 1-0 lead. Despite a hard-fought second half by the Monarchs, Colorado Springs stole a point with an equalizer in the 95th minute when Andre Lewis headed the ball over Dewsnup and into the back of the net to bring the score to 1-1 in the dying moments of the match.

LAST MEETING:

REAL MONARCHS 0, RIO GRANDE VALLEY 3; OCT 2, 2021

LAST TIME VS OPPONENT

Real Monarchs (4-17-5, 17 points) fell 3-0 to Rio Grande Valley FC Toros on a rainy Saturday night at H-E-B Park.

The Toros created the first solid chance of the night in the 17th minute when Juan Azocar whipped a ball into the box towards a wide open Frank Lopez, but Lopez's ensuing shot on frame was saved by Jeff Dewsnup. In the 28th minute, Rio Grande Valley midfielder Jonas Fjellberg fired a shot on frame that was saved by Dewsnup, spilling into the box where Elvis Amoh quickly tapped the ball into the back of the net for the 1-0 lead.

The Monarchs earned a free kick in the 37th minute that was taken quickly by Yekeson Subah towards an unmarked Charlie Wehan inside the box, but the ball took a high bounce on its way in and Wehan was unable to get a clean shot on frame. Defender Carter Manley doubled the Toros lead in the 42nd minute with a header

SEASON STORYLINES

Youngest Signings in Club History

The Real Monarchs will be featuring two of the youngest signings in club history in its seventh season. In January, Real Salt Lake signed RSL Academy product and Herriman City native Jeff Dewsnup. At 16-years-old the goalkeeper became the youngest signing in RSL history and the first-ever Herriman City native to sign for the club. The Monarchs then made 15-year-old Julio Benitez its youngest-ever signing when he signed with the team in March. The midfielder was also an RSL Academy stand-out.

Welcome in the Kiwis

In back-to-back months during the offseason the Monarchs signed the team's first-ever players from New Zealand. The first was 20-year-old forward Max Mata who arrived from Switzerland where he spent time with the second tier of Grasshopper, scoring five goals in 10 matches. The second was 24-year-old Kyle Adams from the Houston Dynamo FC where he appeared in 61 matches for Houston's USL Championship affiliate, Rio Grande Valley FC.

Columbian Trio

As the Monarchs continued to revamp its roster this offseason, the team signed three young players from Columbia. 21-year-old defender Kevin Saucedo signed with the Monarchs after spending the 2020 season with Colombian Categoria Primera A side Millonarios F.C. He represented Columbia in the 2019 FIFA U-20 World Cup. In January, the Monarchs signed its second Columbian of the offseason in Brayan Gomez. The 21-year-old midfielder played for CDC Atletico Nacional at the U-20 level in Columbia. Internationally, Gomez represented Columbia in the 2017 FIFA U-17 World Cup alongside his Real Monarchs teammate Juan Vidal. 20-year-old Vidal is the third Columbian on the roster this season who joins the club from CF Barranquilla.

Real Monarchs 2.0

2021 marks the beginning of the Real Monarchs 2.0, a new blueprint set by the front office to optimize the roster and promote opportunity and growth within the club. The Monarchs are shifting focus to signing promising young internationals and promoting heavily from the RSL Academy. With eight new international signings joining James Moberg, Sam Brown and Jimmy Slayton, there are now a lot of roster spots available for Academy products to see the pitch and make an impact. Headlined by Benitez, Academy youngsters are expected to make up almost a third of the roster this season.
