SOUNDERS FC GAME NOTES

SEATTLE TRIUMPHS OVER CLUB LEÓN

Sounders FC defeated Club León 3-0 at home on March 8 during the first leg of the 2022 Scotiabank Concacaf Champions League Quarterfinals. Fredy Montero supplied a brace with Jordan Morris adding a third goal as Seattle takes a 3-0 aggregate lead into the second leg of the Quarterfinals on Thursday, March 17 at Estadio León (5:30 p.m. PT / FOX Sports, TUDN, iHeartMedia, El Rey 1360 AM).

Montero opened the scoring in the 31st minute via a penalty kick after Cristian Roldan was fouled inside the 18-yard-box, blasting his spot-kick past the goal-keeper into the right side of the net. Montero then doubled the home side's lead in the 39th minute, when Roldan's cross from the right flank found Montero in stride for a finish across the face of the goal. The club's all-time leading scorer across all competitions, Montero now has 70 goals as a member of the Rave Green, including eight in Scotiabank Concacaf Champions League play, also the most in club history.

Jordan Morris tacked on one more Seattle goal in the 90th minute, with Roldan tallying his second assist of the night. Roldan sent a cross in from the right side that met the feet of a sliding Morris, who guided the ball into the back of the net. It marked Morris' 44th career goal for the club across all competitions, passing Obafemi Martins for fifth in club history.

MATCH NOTES

- Sounders FC brings a three-goal advantage to the second leg next Thursday, March 17 at Estadio León. Seattle's shutout means León tallied zero away goals, which is the first tiebreaker after 180 minutes of play over two legs.
- Brian Schmetzer's side is now 2-2-1 this season across all competitions, with an 8-2 goal advantage.
- Fredy Montero's first-half brace gives him 70 career goals across all competitions for Sounders FC, the most in club history. His eight goals for Seattle in SCCL play are also the most in franchise history.
- Jordan Morris scored his second goal across all competitions this season. It was his 44th career goal for the club across all competitions, passing Obafemi Martins for fifth in club history.
- Cristian Roldan's pair of assists gives him four assists in 2022 SCCL play, after a pair of helpers (plus one goal) vs. F.C. Motagua on February 24.
- The match marked Roldan's 250th career appearance for Sounders FC across all competitions, the third player in club history to reach the milestone (Osvaldo Alonso 339, Stefan Frei 284).
- This marked Seattle's second all-time meeting with Club León, following the 2021 Leagues Cup Final in Las Vegas on September 22 last season, where León won 3-2.

SEATTLE REVEALS NEW KITS

On February 15, Seattle Sounders FC, in conjunction with Major League Soccer and adidas, introduced its newest Rave Green kit, Legacy Green, which serves as the team's primary jersey for the 2022 and 2023 MLS seasons. The uniform is designed with a bold color palette and even bolder pattern, representing a club that has been built upon the culture of an active relationship with its fans and the community since the days long before entering MLS play. The jersey is currently available at Sounders FC Pro Shops and at will be available at MLSstore.com later this morning.

Legacy Green's striking splash of interconnected blue diamonds down its Rave Green front is the most immediately noticeable element of the kit – an energetic design that embraces the full confidence of a club with the winningest record in MLS over the last decade – but holds a deeper meaning. The pattern represents the connection between the club's players and its fans, both stretching back to the birth of the Sounders name in 1974 and reaching forward indefinitely into the future.

The color palette of Legacy Green shines with added vibrancy, a nod to the history of Eternal Blue, Forever Green while paving the way for an even brighter future.

The jersey's jock tag and back neck transfer are also unique to Legacy Green. The jock tag reads '74, paying homage to the roots of Sounders FC in the North American Soccer League, commemorating the first year of the Seattle Sounders. The club celebrates its 50th anniversary in 2024, and this reminder on Legacy Green of when it all started helps bring the club to the doorstep of that significant year.

The neck transfer features waves of progress, an illustration representing the waters of the Puget Sound and the constant motion, like the water, and forward progress that Sounders FC embraces.

The team's crest features its two silver stars: permanent recognition of the club's 2016 and 2019 MLS Cup championships and a reminder to play for a third title.

Also appearing on the jersey's right sleeve is the logo of the Puyallup Tribe's Emerald Queen Casino. Sounders FC last year signed a multi-year partnership with the tribe and EQC that was comprised of multiple elements and highlighted by logo placement on Seattle's primary and secondary jerseys, including a strong community-based component. The club proudly wears its affiliation with the Puyallup Tribe as a way to honor the Puyallup peoples' enduring influence on the region Sounders FC calls home.

The Jimi Hendrix Kit, introduced last season, remains Sounders FC's secondary option in 2022. The dynamic purple, orange and yellow uniform was inspired by Seattle native Jimi Hendrix's love of color and psychedelic patterns. The design is part of MLS and adidas' Community Kit line, introduced last year to allow clubs the opportunity to create secondary kits rooted in individual meaning for each team. The Jimi Hendrix Kit was conceived as a way for Sounders FC to not only honor Hendrix and his place as a Seattle icon, but, on a larger scale, to recognize and celebrate the meaningful principles of peace, love and giving for which Hendrix stood.

Zulily enters its fourth year as Sounders FC's jersey partner in 2022, following an inaugural season in 2019 that saw the team claim its second MLS Cup championship.

RAVE GREEN ANNOUNCE 2022 BROADCAST SCHEDULE

Seattle Sounders FC announced on February 25 its complete regional broadcast details for the 2022 Major League Soccer season. Fans of the club can continue to follow the Rave Green through one of the most diverse slates in Major League Soccer, as Seattle maintains its relationships with all of its existing regional television, streaming and radio partners.

In regional television, the club's home remains FOX 13 (KCPQ Channel 13) and FOX 13+ (KZJO cable 10 / Channel 22), seeing FOX 13+ return as the primary television home for regional broadcasts of the Rave Green throughout Western Washington for the fifth straight season. All home and away Sounders FC matches for non-nationally televised broadcasts are available to in-market fans, with FOX 13 carrying four contests and FOX 13+ carrying the remainder of the schedule. FOX 13 and FOX 13+ continue to provide both a 30-minute pre-match show and 30-minute post-match wrap-up following each game.

FOX 13 is also carrying several Sounders FC specials during the 2022 season, including a Sounders FC Matchday program airing on FOX 13+ at 4:00 p.m. PT Sunday, February 27 ahead of the club's opening MLS Regular Season match vs. Nashville SC. Additionally, FOX 13 is profiling the team during its weekly Seattle Sports Live sportscast, which airs Sundays at 11:00 p.m. PT on KCPQ following the flagship FOX 13 News at 10. Dating back to the first year of the partnership between the Rave Green and KCPQ in 2014, Sounders FC's regional broadcast ratings have led Major League Soccer each season, a hallmark of the continuing relationship between the two organizations.

Prime Video continues as Seattle's official video streaming home in 2022, following a landmark agreement in 2020 that saw Sounders FC become the first professional soccer club to team up with the streaming service, as well as just the second sports franchise for which Prime Video secured regional broadcast rights (following Major League Baseball's New York Yankees).

Prime Video is the exclusive streaming destination for the Rave Green, with all regionally televised Sounders FC MLS matches available on Prime Video to fans with a Prime membership throughout the entire state of Washington at no additional cost. Sounders FC's regional broadcast territory extends throughout the entirety of Washington State – inclusive of the traditional Seattle-Tacoma-Everett television DMA and key population centers like Spokane, Yakima, Tri-Cities and Vancouver, Washington – allowing fans everywhere in the Evergreen State the opportunity to watch the Rave Green via Prime Video. Stream from the web or using the Prime Video app on your smartphone, tablet, set-top box, game console, or select smart TV.

New in 2022, fans accessing Sounders FC matches through Prime Video can watch the games in native 1080p / full HD resolution streaming content, the highest standard in the broadcasting and streaming industry.

Additionally, fans accessing the Rave Green through Prime Video can find club-specific content available via the dedicated Sounders FC team page, which houses live and archived regional Sounders FC matches, highlights, player interviews, press conferences and more.

Keith Costigan, Kasey Keller and Steve Zakuani all return to the booth in 2022, reprising their roles from past seasons. In his seventh year with Sounders FC, Costigan is once again set to call regional matches for the Rave Green, while maintaining his national duties with FOX Sports. Former MLS Sounders Keller and Zakuani return to their analyst duties, as the former United States Men's National Team goalkeeper and the 2009 first overall SuperDraft selection are set to work alongside a choice selection of rotating pre-match, halftime and post-match talent. Among this group are former Sounders Brad Evans, Marcus Hahnemann, James Riley and Lamar Neagle, as well as fan favorite and former FOX 13 sports reporter Michelle Ludkta, who returns this season to host home match coverage.

In radio, Sounders FC continues its flagship partnership with iHeartMedia Seattle for the fifth-consecutive season. All home and away Sounders FC MLS matches are being carried on Sports Radio 950 KJR AM or 1090 KJR AM, including a dedicated 30-minute pregame and 30-minute postgame show surrounding each contest. Additionally, the station is continuing its hour-long Sounders Weekly program, hosted by Jackson Felts and airing at 7:00 p.m. PT every Tuesday evening throughout the season, while Head Coach Brian Schmetzer joins Dave "Softy" Mahler and Dick Fain every Tuesday evening live at 5:45 p.m. PT.

"We couldn't be prouder to continue bringing Sounders FC fans yet another season of club programming on Sports Radio KJR," said Rich Moore, Senior Vice President of Programming for iHeartMedia Seattle. "The Rave Green's supporters are unmatched in their passion for the club, and we're excited for them to continue listening to all the action on 950 KJR AM, 1090 KJR AM and the iHeartRadio App."

Introduced last season and continuing in 2022, match action audio for regionally televised games is being simulcast between television and radio, with radio listeners able to take advantage of the exceptional crew that the Rave Green has in Costigan, Keller and Zakuani. For nationally televised matches, the trio is calling Sounders FC games exclusively for the radio broadcast. As mentioned above, dedicated pregame and postgame shows continue to bracket every radio broadcast, with Jackson Felts leading those efforts and working alongside Pete Fewing, Danny Jackson and Diego Arriola.

The club also continues its partnership with El Rey 1360 AM as the Spanish-language home for Sounders FC matches in 2022. With play-by-play voice "Zuper" Mario Rodríguez alongside Carlos Tapia and Felipe Maqueda on the call, El Rey 1360 AM is set to carry all 34 Sounders FC matches during the 2022 regular season. El Rey 1360 AM also offers 30-minute pre-match and post-match shows as part of its matchday coverage, as well as a 30-minute weekly radio show, Somos Sounders FC. The latter is hosted by Felipe Maqueda, and he is joined by Carolina Antipolo, Carlos Tapia and Marlo Vilela, airing Saturday mornings at 10:30 a.m. PT.

In addition, Sounders FC is in active conversations with longtime partner Univision-Seattle (KUNS-TV) to air a select number of match broadcasts and Sounders FC Fútbol en Vivo programs throughout the year. More information will be released in the coming weeks.

SOUNDERS FC ANNOUNCES NEW TRAINING CENTER AT LONGACRES

In a landmark announcement, Seattle Sounders FC revealed on February 16 plans for the development of a new state-of-the-art home in Renton, Washington. Located on the site of Boeing's former corporate headquarters at the historic Longacres, the new home of the Rave Green is set to provide a world-class sporting facility for Major League Soccer's winningest team over the past decade, housing the club's entire soccer and business ecosystem for the first time in Sounders FC history.

Known as the Sounders FC Center at Longacres, the club is working in partnership with Seattle-based Unico Properties on the expansive project, with an expected opening in 2024. Inclusive of four full-size training pitches and 50,000 square feet of space for both the club's soccer operations and front office personnel, the facility ushers in a new era for Sounders FC as the club readies for its 50th anniversary in two years' time. Since entering MLS in 2009, the club has trained at Starfire Sports in Tukwila. The announcement was revealed earlier today at the club's new Longacres home in front of assembled media, with representatives from Sounders FC and Unico appearing alongside King County Executive Dow Constantine and Renton Mayor Armondo Pavone.

As part of the club's March to the 50th – Sounders FC's official celebration of its 50th anniversary in 2024 – the Rave Green also announced plans to recognize its heritage and vision for the future during today's proceedings. Sounders FC's fans are at the heart of everything the club does – from the original naming of the organization to voting on the team's General Manager every four years – and over the coming weeks, fan outreach is taking place to explore the club's brand identity with the next 50 years in mind. Fully grounded in the club's ethos of Democracy in Sports, further details of this process are outlined below.

"Today is one of the most important moments in our club's history, as we begin this new partnership with Unico Properties and take our first steps into the future of Seattle Sounders FC," said Sounders FC Majority Owner Adrian Hanauer. "Our organization has invested a great deal of time and thoughtfulness into the process of both selecting the ideal site for a new home and reimagining what that home represents, for our team and the greater community. With Longacres, we've found a location brimming with Pacific Northwest history where the Sounders – a team that brings its own deep roots, growing since 1974 – can plant our flag and create a home for our next 50 years. We're excited to work with terrific partners in Unico and the City of Renton as this project comes to life, and our club fully embraces the stewardship of managing an important historical site like Longacres."

Hanauer continues, "I would also like to thank Starfire Sports and the City of Tukwila. Sounders FC has always been a community club, and, over the years, that has been exemplified by team's place at Starfire, a true hub and gathering place for soccer in our region. We're grateful to Starfire – and the welcoming spirit of Tukwila – for serving as the home of the Rave Green and seeing us through some incredible successes. While the time has come for Sounders FC to move into its own facility, Starfire Sports and Tukwila will always be close to our hearts and a part of our history."

"We are excited by the opportunity to anchor this storied property with the Seattle Sounders," said Unico Properties Chief Investment Officer Ned Carner. "We could not be more excited to partner with a group like the Sounders that shares in our mission to create a project that builds up the surrounding community, while also enhancing the lives of the people that choose to live and work at Longacres for years to come."

As part of the club's commitment to sustainability within Sounders FC's Social Justice Framework, best-in-class environmentally friendly building systems and infrastructure are being utilized throughout the Sounders FC Center at Longacres. The design process is headed by Kansas City-based Generator Studio, a leading firm in the sports design and architecture world. Recently, Generator oversaw the creation of the Seattle Kraken's Community Iceplex in Northgate, in addition to recent projects for the NWSL's Kansas City Current, the Tampa Bay Lightning and St. Louis Blues of the NHL, along with the NBA's Brooklyn Nets.

"The Sounders' legacy and fandom is unequalled in MLS, and our office is ready for the challenge of helping the club elevate what a modern MLS training center means," said Generator Studio co-founder Tom Proebstle. "The Sounders FC Center at Longacres will provide space for operations and training to be under one roof, bringing players, staff and community together."

Generator Studio co-founders Proebstle and Mike Kress have been working on Seattle sports venues since 1998, beginning with the design of Lumen Field while at their former architecture firm AECOM. Following their work on Lumen Field, Proebstle and Kress were instrumental in the design and construction of the Virginia Mason Athletic Center for the NFL's Seattle Seahawks while at Crawford Architects. Since founding Generator Studio, multiple sports projects have culminated in the grand opening of the Kraken Community Iceplex, providing the first sheet of ice in the city of Seattle in modern times.

Central to the combined vision of Sounders FC, Unico and Generator Studio is a team-first design layout that is truly built around the holistic needs of the entire Rave Green organization. In the coming months, further specifics of the design process will be publicly shared, with amenities that showcase Sounders FC's new home as one of the top sporting facilities in North America, and one that allows for deeper connection with the club's fans, supporters and partners.

With 2024 on the horizon, the club is not only opening the Sounders FC Center at Longacres that year, it is also celebrating its 50th anniversary as part of the greater Puget Sound community. A major milestone for the organization, the club's March to the 50th is intended as a two-year rallying cry for both celebrating that unique history while also casting an eye to the future.

Sounders fans named the original 1974 North American Soccer League team, again choosing the same team name in 2008 prior to the club's launch in Major League Soccer, winning by an overwhelming majority via write-in option. Since joining MLS, the club has worked shoulder-to-shoulder with its Alliance Members – as Sounders FC season ticket holders are known – working on everything together from the club's General Manager vote, Alliance Annual Business Meetings and kit designs for the players. This Democracy in Sports ethos runs throughout the entire organization, and as the club prepares for its future and explores its brand and visual identities, Sounders FC is beginning the process of reaching out to its fan base to begin an open dialogue.

The LA Galaxy announced in January 2021 that the club has named Greg Vanney Head Coach. Vanney, 46, began his professional career as a player with the LA Galaxy and returns as Head Coach after a six-year stint as Toronto FC's Manager in which he became the only coach to capture an MLS Treble by winning MLS Cup, the MLS Supporters' Shield and the Canadian Championship during the 2017 season.

Vanney stepped down as Toronto FC manager following the 2020 MLS Season as both the most successful and longest-tenured coach in Toronto FC's history with every major club record, including total wins (112) and games coached (250). In all, Vanney recorded an 87-68-48 MLS Regular Season record and a 10-5-2 MLS postseason record while being named MLS Coach of the Year and Concacaf Coach of the Year in 2017. As Toronto FC's coach, the former Galaxy defender helped lead his side to the MLS Cup Playoffs in five of the previous six seasons (2015, 2016, 2017, 2019, 2020), while making appearances in three MLS Cup Finals (2016, 2017, 2019) and the Concacaf Champions League Final (2018). He also helped his side capture three-straight Canadian Championships (2016, 2017, 2018).

As a player, Vanney made 270 total MLS Regular Season appearances, including 193 as a member of the LA Galaxy, tied with Todd Dunivant for the sixth-most appearances of any player in LA Galaxy history and trailing only Cobi Jones (306), Landon Donovan (253), Kevin Hartman (243), Mauricio Cienfuegos (206) and A.J. De-LaGarza (204). With LA, Vanney helped lead the club to a Supporters' Shield (1998), CONCACAF Champions' Cup (2000) and U.S. Open Cup (2001) while being named to the MLS Best XI twice (2000, 2001) and earning honors as LA Galaxy Defender of the Year (2001). He also made an additional 32 MLS Cup Playoff appearances, including 26 postseason appearances with the Galaxy.

Vanney began his professional playing career after being drafted by the Galaxy from UCLA with the 17th overall selection in the 1996 MLS College Draft. During his time as a professional, Vanney represented the Galaxy, FC Dallas, Colorado Rapids and D.C. United in Major League Soccer while also playing a stint for Bastia in France. He also earned 11 caps with the U.S. Men's National Team, making his debut in 1996 before later featuring in the 2005 Concacaf Gold Cup Championship and 2006 FIFA World Cup Qualifiers.

Following his retirement after the 2008 MLS season, Vanney served as the Real Salt Lake Youth Academy Director from 2008-2011 before joining Chivas USA as an assistant coach from 2011-2012. Vanney originally joined Toronto FC as the club's assistant general manager and academy director in 2013 before being named head coach and technical director on August 31, 2014.

NOTABLE QUOTES

LA Galaxy Head Coach Greg Vanney

On how he was able to weather the storm that was the electric atmosphere inside Bank of America Stadium:

"A lot of credit goes to everyone at Charlotte that organized that. It was a lot of fun. The crowd was amazing, and created a special environment. There was a lot of energy in the stadium, which I think translated on the field to a lot of energy on the field. Sometimes some impatience. Sometimes the game, I thought in the first half, was just too back and forth. We were impatient trying to finish attacks really fast. I felt like we burned the candle on both ends a little bit in that first half. But, the guys did a nice job of managing. I think we could have managed it with the ball a little bit more and not been in such a hurry. But, nevertheless, the guys grinded for 90 minutes. Had a lot of chances through the course of the game, maybe to have the one that made a difference. In the end, to have another game with solid defending and a hell of a goal by Efra [Efraín Álvarez]. But we won the game because the group worked hard, defended, protected the goal, and gave ourselves a chance again to win it. And, we got the play that we needed to win it."

On Efraín Álvarez coming into the past two games and making an impact, and his ability to step into space and see a chance forward:

"He's a super talented player. There's no question. And his left foot is like a magician's wand. He's clever. He got into good spots. He played a couple great balls. Little balls back to the back post, one Javi [Javier Hernández] almost got on the end of to get a goal. But, his vision and his awareness, his eye for the pass... and on that particular situation, it was almost like a pass, cross, shot. He just kind of picked out the corner and floated it in there beautifully. And, it's no surprise, he's so talented that he can come in and make a difference, especially on the attacking side when he's able to get on the ball and there's a little more space on the field for him to do his thing."

LA Galaxy Midfielder Sacha Klejstan

On how special it was to exchange jerseys with Chris Hegardt:

"The whole thing is crazy. Like, you visit kids in the hospital sometimes and then you never hear from them again, or sometimes you hear the worst. So, for him, it had been so long that when I saw his mom in the lobby yesterday and she approached me, it was just so crazy. Then she told me he was playing for Charlotte, and I was like 'oh in the academy?' And she was like, 'no, the first team.' And I was like, man this is crazy. He beat it and he kept on pushing himself and ended up having a great college career and now turning pro at a young age was fun to watch him play tonight. I think for me, the whole moral of the story there is just, be a good person. It cost me nothing to be kind to him and his family that day, and if it just gave him one percent of hope or just made him smile a little bit that day, then it was all worth it. I think he comes from a great family. Now that I have kids, I can't imagine what his parents were thinking that day, when they saw their kid in the hospital having to go into surgery. If that was my kid, I would be thinking the worst. Never in a million years I would guess that they were thinking that one day we would actually play against each other on a professional soccer field, but his parents were in the stadium today watching him play in front of 75,000 fans. That's pretty special."
