MATCH NOTES

- This matchup marks only the third meeting between the two sides (1-0-1), with Austin FC joining MLS as an expansion side last year.

- Notably, Sounders FC started five teenagers during its win against Austin FC on the road last season on July 22 due to Extreme Hardship. Halftime substitute Raúl Ruidíaz scored the winner via a Goal of the Year nominee, a long-distance strike that secured the 1-0 win.

- Prior to that match, Seattle and Austin FC played to a scoreless draw on May 30 at Lumen Field.

- Austin FC currently sits in third place in the Western Conference standings with six points and leads all of MLS in goal differential, scoring 10 goals in three matches while only allowing two.

- In regular season play, Sounders FC is coming off its first win of the season, a 3-2 victory over the LA Galaxy on March 12 with goals from Fredy Montero, Jordan Morris and Xavier Arreaga.

- Sounders FC is riding a three-match unbeaten streak across all competitions, defeating Liga MX Club León 3-0 in on March 8 in the first leg of the 2022 Scotiabank Concacaf Champions League Quarterfinals and drawing 1-1 in the second leg on March 17.

- The 4-1 aggregate scoreline was good enough for the Rave Green to move on to the Concacaf Champions League Semifinals for just the second time in club history (2012-2013).

- The result against Club León marked the fourth time Seattle has advanced past a Liga MX side in the knockout round of a tournament.

SOUNDERS FC GAME NOTES

SEATTLE ADVANCES PAST CLUB LEÓN

Sounders FC drew with Liga MX side Club León 1-1 at Estadio León on March 17 in the second leg of the 2022 Scotiabank Concacaf Champions League Quarterfinals. After taking a 3-0 advantage in the first leg, Seattle was able to hold its lead, add one more goal and move onto the Semifinals via a 4-1 aggregate scoreline. It marks the fourth time Seattle has advanced past a Liga MX team in the knockout round of a tournament. The Rave Green reach the competition's Semifinal stage for just the second time in club history, facing fellow MLS side New York City FC over two legs. Match dates and kickoff times are being announced by Concacaf.

Fredy Montero opened the scoring in first-half stoppage time via a penalty after João Paulo was able to draw a penalty in the area. Montero rocketed the ball into the back of the net for his 72nd goal with the Rave Green in all competitions – the most in club history – and his tenth career Concacaf Champions League strike.

León pulled one back in stoppage time of the second half, when Fidel Ambriz was able to get his head on a cross from a right-sided cross, heading the ball home to level the score and make it 4-1 on aggregate.

MATCH NOTES

- Sounders FC advances to the Scotiabank Concacaf Champions League Semifinals for the second time in club history. The club's first Semifinal appearance came during the 2012-2013 campaign, where the Rave Green fell by a narrow margin to Liga MX side Santos Laguna. Losing 2-1 on aggregate over two legs, Herculez Gomez and Darwin Quintero provided the goals for Santos, negating Lamar Neagle's tally for Seattle.
- The Rave Green now face fellow MLS side New York City FC in the two-legged Semifinals for a shot at the Concacaf Champions League Final. Due to COVID-related scheduling quirks, this is Seattle's first matchup against NYCFC in any competition since July 3, 2019, a 3-0 win for NYCFC. The Rave Green are 2-3-0 all-time against NYCFC.
- Sounders FC is 7-9-3 all-time against Liga MX opponents in SCCL and Leagues Cup play, including a 1-5-2 record in Mexico. This marks the fourth time the Rave Green have advanced past a Liga MX side in a knockout round of a tournament.
- It marked Fredy Montero's 200th appearance for Sounders FC across all competitions (151 MLS regular season, 11 MLS postseason, 22 Concacaf Champions League, 13 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup, 3 Leagues Cup).
- Head Coach Brian Schmetzer deployed a 5-4-1 formation, with two personnel changes from Saturday's win over the LA Galaxy. Jackson Ragen started for the injured Yeimar Gómez Andrade and Kelyn Rowe replaced Obed Vargas.
- Nouhou is now suspended for the first leg of the Semifinals vs. New York City FC due to yellow card accumulation. The Cameroonian picked up a caution in the 58th minute of the match.

SCCL SEMIFINALS DATES ANNOUNCED

Concacaf announced the dates and times for the 2022 Scotiabank Concacaf Champions League Semifinals. Sounders FC is set to face fellow MLS side NYCFC for the right to advance to the tournament Championship, with the first leg of the Semifinals taking place in Seattle at Lumen Field on Wednesday, April 6 in a 7:00 p.m. PT kickoff. The away leg is being played on Wednesday, April 13 at Red Bull Arena in Harrison, New Jersey with a 6:00 p.m. PT kickoff.

With the addition of these matches to its slate, Sounders FC is rescheduling its April 9 MLS home contest vs. FC Cincinnati. The two clubs are working together to confirm an alternate date and further information is forthcoming.

The Rave Green defeated Liga MX's Club León 4-1 on aggregate in the Scotiabank Concacaf Champions League Quarterfinals, advancing to the Semifinals following a 3-0 home victory on March 8 and a 1-1 draw at Estadio León on March 17.

Seattle is competing in its seventh Concacaf Champions League tournament, which crowns the best team from North America, Central America and the Caribbean. Sounders FC has advanced to at least the Quarterfinals in five of its seven appearances, with this year's appearance in the Semifinals marking just the second time Sounders FC has advanced to the tournament's penultimate round, having also done so in 2012-2013. The Rave Green look to defeat NYCFC on their way to the club's first appearance in the Concacaf Champions League Final, with the winner going on to represent the confederation in the FIFA Club World Cup.

DEFIANCE UNVEILS 2022 ROSTER

Tacoma Defiance announced its roster for the club's inaugural MLS NEXT Pro season. Juan Alvarez, Cody Baker, Joe Hafferty, Eric Kinzner, Sota Kitahara, Randy Mendoza and Marlon Vargas all return from last year's USL Championship squad, in addition to Sounders FC 2022 MLS SuperDraft selections Achille Robin (pending P1 visa) and Hal Uderitz. Additionally, the club has added Alfred Gombé-Fei and Georgi Minounou via loan from MFK Vykov (both pending P1 visa and international transfer certificate), as well as free agents Wallis Lapsley, Valentin Sabella and Travian Sousa. All transactions are pending MLS and U.S. Soccer Federation approval.

"The year-over-year strength of the Defiance roster is a continued testament to the success of our player development pathway, the tireless commitment from our developmental staff, amalgamated with the support from our first team, front office, and ownership, allowing us to create an environment that graduated five players from our 2021 roster into our first team," said Vice President of Player Development Henry Brauner.

Of the 14 players currently signed to Defiance's roster, five are Sounders FC Academy products. On top of the players announced today, select Sounders FC First Team and Academy players are expected to see time for Defiance this season via short and long-term loans.

"We are very excited about our roster heading into the 2022 MLS NEXT Pro season," said Tacoma Defiance Head Coach Wade Webber. "We have a great group of young talent we expect will be competitive in this new league and we can't wait to kick off our campaign against Real Monarchs."

Tacoma Defiance is currently in preseason training for its 2022 MLS NEXT Pro season, which kicks off against Real Monarchs on Saturday, March 27 at Starfire Stadium (12:00 p.m. PT / mlsnextpro.com).

RAVE GREEN ANNOUNCE 2022 BROADCAST SCHEDULE

Seattle Sounders FC announced on February 25 its complete regional broadcast details for the 2022 Major League Soccer season. Fans of the club can continue to follow the Rave Green through one of the most diverse slates in Major League Soccer, as Seattle maintains its relationships with all of its existing regional television, streaming and radio partners.

In regional television, the club's home remains FOX 13 (KCPQ Channel 13) and FOX 13+ (KZJO cable 10 / Channel 22), seeing FOX 13+ return as the primary television home for regional broadcasts of the Rave Green throughout Western Washington for the fifth straight season. All home and away Sounders FC matches for non-nationally televised broadcasts are available to in-market fans, with FOX 13 carrying four contests and FOX 13+ carrying the remainder of the schedule. FOX 13 and FOX 13+ continue to provide both a 30-minute pre-match show and 30-minute post-match wrap-up following each game.

FOX 13 is also carrying several Sounders FC specials during the 2022 season, including a Sounders FC Matchday program airing on FOX 13+ at 4:00 p.m. PT Sunday, February 27 ahead of the club's opening MLS Regular Season match vs. Nashville SC. Additionally, FOX 13 is profiling the team during its weekly Seattle Sports Live sportscast, which airs Sundays at 11:00 p.m. PT on KCPQ following the flagship FOX 13 News at 10. Dating back to the first year of the partnership between the Rave Green and KCPQ in 2014, Sounders FC's regional broadcast ratings have led Major League Soccer each season, a hallmark of the continuing relationship between the two organizations.

Prime Video continues as Seattle's official video streaming home in 2022, following a landmark agreement in 2020 that saw Sounders FC become the first professional soccer club to team up with the streaming service, as well as just the second sports franchise for which Prime Video secured regional broadcast rights (following Major League Baseball's New York Yankees).

Prime Video is the exclusive streaming destination for the Rave Green, with all regionally televised Sounders FC MLS matches available on Prime Video to fans with a Prime membership throughout the entire state of Washington at no additional cost. Sounders FC's regional broadcast territory extends throughout the entirety of Washington State – inclusive of the traditional Seattle-Tacoma-Everett television DMA and key population centers like Spokane, Yakima, Tri-Cities and Vancouver, Washington – allowing fans everywhere in the Evergreen State the opportunity to watch the Rave Green via Prime Video. Stream from the web or using the Prime Video app on your smartphone, tablet, set-top box, game console, or select smart TV.

New in 2022, fans accessing Sounders FC matches through Prime Video can watch the games in native 1080p / full HD resolution streaming content, the highest standard in the broadcasting and streaming industry.

Additionally, fans accessing the Rave Green through Prime Video can find club-specific content available via the dedicated Sounders FC team page, which houses live and archived regional Sounders FC matches, highlights, player interviews, press conferences and more.

Keith Costigan, Kasey Keller and Steve Zakuani all return to the booth in 2022, reprising their roles from past seasons. In his seventh year with Sounders FC, Costigan is once again set to call regional matches for the Rave Green, while maintaining his national duties with FOX Sports. Former MLS Sounders Keller and Zakuani return to their analyst duties, as the former United States Men's National Team goalkeeper and the 2009 first overall SuperDraft selection are set to work alongside a choice selection of rotating pre-match, halftime and post-match talent. Among this group are former Sounders Brad Evans, Marcus Hahnemann, James Riley and Lamar Neagle, as well as fan favorite and former FOX 13 sports reporter Michelle Ludkta, who returns this season to host home match coverage.

In radio, Sounders FC continues its flagship partnership with iHeartMedia Seattle for the fifth-consecutive season. All home and away Sounders FC MLS matches are being carried on Sports Radio 950 KJR AM or 1090 KJR AM, including a dedicated 30-minute pregame and 30-minute postgame show surrounding each contest. Additionally, the station is continuing its hour-long Sounders Weekly program, hosted by Jackson Felts and airing at 7:00 p.m. PT every Tuesday evening throughout the season, while Head Coach Brian Schmetzer joins Dave "Softy" Mahler and Dick Fain every Tuesday evening live at 5:45 p.m. PT.

"We couldn't be prouder to continue bringing Sounders FC fans yet another season of club programming on Sports Radio KJR," said Rich Moore, Senior Vice President of Programming for iHeartMedia Seattle. "The Rave Green's supporters are unmatched in their passion for the club, and we're excited for them to continue listening to all the action on 950 KJR AM, 1090 KJR AM and the iHeartRadio App."

Introduced last season and continuing in 2022, match action audio for regionally televised games is being simulcast between television and radio, with radio listeners able to take advantage of the exceptional crew that the Rave Green has in Costigan, Keller and Zakuani. For nationally televised matches, the trio is calling Sounders FC games exclusively for the radio broadcast. As mentioned above, dedicated pregame and postgame shows continue to bracket every radio broadcast, with Jackson Felts leading those efforts and working alongside Pete Fewing, Danny Jackson and Diego Arriola.

The club also continues its partnership with El Rey 1360 AM as the Spanish-language home for Sounders FC matches in 2022. With play-by-play voice "Zuper" Mario Rodríguez alongside Carlos Tapia and Felipe Maqueda on the call, El Rey 1360 AM is set to carry all 34 Sounders FC matches during the 2022 regular season. El Rey 1360 AM also offers 30-minute pre-match and post-match shows as part of its matchday coverage, as well as a 30-minute weekly radio show, Somos Sounders FC. The latter is hosted by Felipe Maqueda, and he is joined by Carolina Antipolo, Carlos Tapia and Marlo Vilela, airing Saturday mornings at 10:30 a.m. PT.

In addition, Sounders FC is in active conversations with longtime partner Univision-Seattle (KUNS-TV) to air a select number of match broadcasts and Sounders FC Fútbol en Vivo programs throughout the year. More information will be released in the coming weeks.

SOUNDERS FC ANNOUNCES NEW TRAINING CENTER AT LONGACRES

In a landmark announcement, Seattle Sounders FC revealed on February 16 plans for the development of a new state-of-the-art home in Renton, Washington. Located on the site of Boeing's former corporate headquarters at the historic Longacres, the new home of the Rave Green is set to provide a world-class sporting facility for Major League Soccer's winningest team over the past decade, housing the club's entire soccer and business ecosystem for the first time in Sounders FC history.

Known as the Sounders FC Center at Longacres, the club is working in partnership with Seattle-based Unico Properties on the expansive project, with an expected opening in 2024. Inclusive of four full-size training pitches and 50,000 square feet of space for both the club's soccer operations and front office personnel, the facility ushers in a new era for Sounders FC as the club readies for its 50th anniversary in two years' time. Since entering MLS in 2009, the club has trained at Starfire Sports in Tukwila. The announcement was revealed earlier today at the club's new Longacres home in front of assembled media, with representatives from Sounders FC and Unico appearing alongside King County Executive Dow Constantine and Renton Mayor Armondo Pavone.

As part of the club's March to the 50th – Sounders FC's official celebration of its 50th anniversary in 2024 – the Rave Green also announced plans to recognize its heritage and vision for the future during today's proceedings. Sounders FC's fans are at the heart of everything the club does – from the original naming of the organization to voting on the team's General Manager every four years – and over the coming weeks, fan outreach is taking place to explore the club's brand identity with the next 50 years in mind. Fully grounded in the club's ethos of Democracy in Sports, further details of this process are outlined below.

"Today is one of the most important moments in our club's history, as we begin this new partnership with Unico Properties and take our first steps into the future of Seattle Sounders FC," said Sounders FC Majority Owner Adrian Hanauer. "Our organization has invested a great deal of time and thoughtfulness into the process of both selecting the ideal site for a new home and reimagining what that home represents, for our team and the greater community. With Longacres, we've found a location brimming with Pacific Northwest history where the Sounders – a team that brings its own deep roots, growing since 1974 – can plant our flag and create a home for our next 50 years. We're excited to work with terrific partners in Unico and the City of Renton as this project comes to life, and our club fully embraces the stewardship of managing an important historical site like Longacres."

Hanauer continues, "I would also like to thank Starfire Sports and the City of Tukwila. Sounders FC has always been a community club, and, over the years, that has been exemplified by team's place at Starfire, a true hub and gathering place for soccer in our region. We're grateful to Starfire – and the welcoming spirit of Tukwila – for serving as the home of the Rave Green and seeing us through some incredible successes. While the time has come for Sounders FC to move into its own facility, Starfire Sports and Tukwila will always be close to our hearts and a part of our history."

"We are excited by the opportunity to anchor this storied property with the Seattle Sounders," said Unico Properties Chief Investment Officer Ned Carner. "We could not be more excited to partner with a group like the Sounders that shares in our mission to create a project that builds up the surrounding community, while also enhancing the lives of the people that choose to live and work at Longacres for years to come."

As part of the club's commitment to sustainability within Sounders FC's Social Justice Framework, best-in-class environmentally friendly building systems and infrastructure are being utilized throughout the Sounders FC Center at Longacres. The design process is headed by Kansas City-based Generator Studio, a leading firm in the sports design and architecture world. Recently, Generator oversaw the creation of the Seattle Kraken's Community Iceplex in Northgate, in addition to recent projects for the NWSL's Kansas City Current, the Tampa Bay Lightning and St. Louis Blues of the NHL, along with the NBA's Brooklyn Nets.

"The Sounders' legacy and fandom is unequalled in MLS, and our office is ready for the challenge of helping the club elevate what a modern MLS training center means," said Generator Studio co-founder Tom Proebstle. "The Sounders FC Center at Longacres will provide space for operations and training to be under one roof, bringing players, staff and community together."

Generator Studio co-founders Proebstle and Mike Kress have been working on Seattle sports venues since 1998, beginning with the design of Lumen Field while at their former architecture firm AECOM. Following their work on Lumen Field, Proebstle and Kress were instrumental in the design and construction of the Virginia Mason Athletic Center for the NFL's Seattle Seahawks while at Crawford Architects. Since founding Generator Studio, multiple sports projects have culminated in the grand opening of the Kraken Community Iceplex, providing the first sheet of ice in the city of Seattle in modern times.

Central to the combined vision of Sounders FC, Unico and Generator Studio is a team-first design layout that is truly built around the holistic needs of the entire Rave Green organization. In the coming months, further specifics of the design process will be publicly shared, with amenities that showcase Sounders FC's new home as one of the top sporting facilities in North America, and one that allows for deeper connection with the club's fans, supporters and partners.

With 2024 on the horizon, the club is not only opening the Sounders FC Center at Longacres that year, it is also celebrating its 50th anniversary as part of the greater Puget Sound community. A major milestone for the organization, the club's March to the 50th is intended as a two-year rallying cry for both celebrating that unique history while also casting an eye to the future.

Sounders fans named the original 1974 North American Soccer League team, again choosing the same team name in 2008 prior to the club's launch in Major League Soccer, winning by an overwhelming majority via write-in option. Since joining MLS, the club has worked shoulder-to-shoulder with its Alliance Members – as Sounders FC season ticket holders are known – working on everything together from the club's General Manager vote, Alliance Annual Business Meetings and kit designs for the players. This Democracy in Sports ethos runs throughout the entire organization, and as the club prepares for its future and explores its brand and visual identities, Sounders FC is beginning the process of reaching out to its fan base to begin an open dialogue.

MLS REGULAR SEASON: MATCH #4

KICKOFF: 3:30 p.m. CDT

LOCATION: Q2 Stadium (Austin, TX)

REFEREE: LUKASZ SZPALA

ASSISTANT REFEREE #1: CJ MORGANTE

ASSISTANT REFEREE #2: JEFFREY GREESON

FOURTH OFFICIAL: ARMANDO VILLAREAL

Q2 STADIUM: AUSTIN, TX

Q2 Stadium is the state-of-the art 20,500-seat, soccer-specific venue that features a natural grass playing surface and a signature canopy structure offering shade and coverage for all seats, while providing an unequalled event atmosphere. Approximately 30% of Q2 Stadium seats (6,000 seats) feature breathable mesh seating technology, making the stadium home to the most breathable mesh seats in a major league venue in the world. Q2 Stadium also features cutting-edge lighting capabilities as the first stadium in the world to install 100% of the field lighting system with tunable RGB LED lights.

MATCH PREVIEW

Following a narrow defeat in a hard-fought away match against the Portland Timbers last Saturday, Austin FC returns home to Q2 Stadium this Sunday to face Seattle Sounders FC. The Verde & Black have been terrific on home turf so far this season, scoring 10 goals and allowing one in a pair of victories over FC Cincinnati and Inter Miami CF to open the 2022 campaign.

Seattle provides a tough test after finishing second in the MLS Western Conference last season. ATXFC accomplished the tricky feat of earning a draw away against the Sounders last season, but fell 1-0 to Seattle at home in July courtesy of a wondergoal from Raúl Ruidíaz.

The scoreboard showed a 1-0 defeat for Austin FC when the final whistle blew at Portland's Providence Park on Saturday, but the result belied the strength of the team's performance. Comparing last November's visit to the Timbers - when Austin fell 3-0 - and last week's visit showed a team that has come on leaps and bounds in terms of its ability to compete against the top sides in MLS.

ATXFC sits third in the Western Conference with two victories from three matches played, and has a chance to put down a marker with another strong performance at Q2 Stadium on Sunday, where the Verde & Black have won 6 of their last 7 matches.

For Seattle, it's been an up-and-down start to the year. The Sounders successfully navigated a Concacaf Champions League tie against Honduran club FC Motagua, lost its opening two MLS games to Nashville SC and Real Salt Lake, then thrashed Liga MX's León 3-0 in the first leg of the CCL Quarterfinals and came back to beat LA Galaxy 3-2 last weekend in MLS play.

Regardless of form, Seattle's roster is full of talent and is well-coached by Brian Schmetzer, who has guided the club to four MLS Western Conference titles and two MLS Cup triumphs since taking the helm in 2016.

2022 MLS TEAM OF THE WEEK

WEEK 1: Cecilio Dominguez (2 goals against FC Cincinnati)

WEEK 2: Josh Wolff, Sebastian Driussi (2 goals, 1 assist against Inter Miami CF), Ethan Finlay (2 goals against Inter Miami CF)

RING-LEADER

Austin FC have re-signed midfielder and captain Alex Ring as a Designated Player.

On Jan. 3, 2022, Austin FC re-signed Alex Ring to a multi-year contract as a designated player. During the 2021 Major League Soccer (MLS) season, the midfielder made 31 appearances, all of which were starts. Ring scored four (4) goals and tallied three (3) assists in that span, and led all Austin FC players in multiple defensive categories, including tackles (43), duels (301), and interceptions (52), with his interceptions total ranking third-most among all MLS midfielders.

“Alex Ring has the perfect attributes to lead our team, on and off the pitch, as Club Captain,” commented Claudio Reyna, Austin FC Sporting Director. “We are lucky to have a team full of leaders, so Alex has significant support throughout the team to help us achieve our objectives as we embark upon our inaugural season.”

“Alex is a born leader, a player with experience in MLS as a Captain, and some- one who pushes the Club on every day, in training and competition,” added Josh Wolff, Austin FC Head Coach. “He is a natural choice to be Captain, and I know he’s going to be there when it counts, driving the team forward, inspiring those around him, and setting the standards we expect from our players.”

“Alex has consistently been one of the best at his position in Major League Soccer over the past few seasons,” Austin FC sporting director Claudio Reyna said in a release. “He is a terrific player with great character and leadership skills, and we are thrilled to keep him and his family in Austin as we continue to grow and improve.”

HEAD COACH JOSH WOLFF

Josh Wolff joined Austin FC in November 2019 as Austin FC's first-ever head coach in a multiyear agreement. Wolff, who twice represented the United States as a player in both the 2002 and 2006 FIFA World Cup competitions, joined Austin FC at the end of the 2019 FIFA window. Wolff previously served on the staff of current USMNT Head Coach Gregg Berhalter for five (5) seasons while at Columbus Crew SC (MLS) prior to re-joining Berhalter on the USMNT staff where he assisted in the team's recent run to the final of the 2019 CONCACAF Gold Cup. Wolff started his MLS coaching career in 2012 with D.C. United where he was an Assistant Coach through 2013. In 2014, he joined Columbus Crew SC as an Assistant Coach, where the team qualified for the playoffs in four of five seasons, winning the Eastern Conference in 2015 and competing in the MLS Cup that year.

Before becoming a coach at the highest level in the United States, Wolff's stellar playing career spanned from 1998 to 2012, in which time he featured as a goal-scoring forward in both MLS and Germany's Bundesliga. In total, Wolff made 367 combined appearances for his club sides while tallying 106 goals and was named to the MLS All Star team in 2002 in 2006. Additionally, he received MLS and Club honors as a player, claiming the MLS Cup in 1998, winning three US Open Cup championships in 1998, 2000, 2004 and adding one as an Assistant Coach with D.C. United in 2013. Wolff was most recently inducted into Sporting Kansas City's (MLS) Sporting Legends Hall of Honor after registering 46 goals in 164 competitive appearances for the Club.

A native of Stone Mountain, GA, Wolff regularly featured for the USMNT from 1998 through 2008 including two appearances in FIFA World Cup competitions, in 2002 and 2006. Across the entirety of his national team career with the USMNT, Wolff registered 52 caps and scored nine goals while wearing the Stars and Stripes. Wolff ultimately became synonymous with the legend of "Dos a Cero" after scoring an important goal for the U.S. in the historic World Cup qualifying win over Mexico in 2001 and recording an important assist in the legendary U.S. win over Mexico in the 2002 FIFA World Cup round of 16. He was also a CONCACAF Gold Cup Champion in 2002 and 2005, scoring the game-winner against Costa Rica in the 2002 final. Wolff was also named U.S. Soccer's Young Male Athlete of the Year in 1998 and was a US Olympic team athlete in 2000, joining Team USA at the 2000 Sydney Olympic Games.

In Wolff's most recent capacity with the USMNT, his role was to assist the head coach, Gregg Berhalter, in teaching and executing the team's style of play, as well as analyzing and assessing training sessions and matches. His role off the field included evaluating the US player pool both domestically and internationally, as well as working alongside the staff in detailing and defining the team's game model. He is also responsible for leading the USMNT's scouting efforts in the CONCACAF region, preparing scouting reports on up-coming opponents. As a result, Wolff has extensive game preparation and regional scouting experience. Wolff's standout MLS career, which included stints with Chicago Fire (1998 - 2002), Kansas City Wizards (2003 - 2006 and 2008 - 2010) and D.C. United (2011 - 2012), bookended two years with TSV 1860 Munchen in Bundesliga (2006 - 2008.) Throughout his career Wolff played alongside and been coached by many recognizable and influential names including Bob Bradley, Bruce Arena, Gregg Berhalter, Peter Vermes, Jesse Marsch and Ben Olsen.
