LAFC vs. Seattle Sounders

EDUARD ATUESTA
LAFC MIDFIELDER

RE: Playing Hugo Lloris and feeling first game

“Hugo [Lloris] is amazing to have as a teammate and is very good for us. It’s difficult to say who is the best to cover our errors. I feel we are really happy to have Hugo. I personally feel extremely well. Obviously, I still need to gain personal rhythm. Since my injury I haven’t played a full game as a starter in a long time and you pay the price. After a long time off from an injury, your body changes but feel great in my first after a long time.

RE: What he hopes to bring back from playing in Brazil into MLS

“I want to show all of my experience and intensity that I bring to my style. Before, I played with less intensity than today. I feel with that, and I feel like I can bring that to my teammates and push all the midfielders to play the same on the field. With the ball I am the same as in trying to make good passes.

RE: How it was like being back at LAFC and playing a different position

“It is a different position, but I like to play in different positions because if I have the ball, I feel com with that. With Ilie I know I can get a lot of passes that get all of the ball. I feel good and I know I can play in another two positions so that is another thing I can bring to the team.”
