CHICAGO FIRE FC CLUB HISTORY

THE BIRTH OF THE FIRE

1998 MLS CUP CHAMPIONS / THE DOUBLE

It all began with a legend. On the 126th anniversary of the Great Chicago Fire, October 8, 1997, an announcement was made. The new Major League Soccer team assigned to Chicago would be called the Chicago Fire. Its inaugural season would be in 1998.

The franchise named in memory of the Great Chicago Fire of 1871 was founded as the Chicago Fire Soccer Club on October 8, 1997, the Great Fire's 126th anniversary. Led by head coach Bob Bradley, the team began play in 1998 as one of the League's first expansion teams.

The Fire won the MLS Cup as well as the U.S. Open Cup (the "Double") in their first season in 1998. They also won the U.S. Open Cup in 2000, 2003, and 2006, in addition to the 2003 MLS Supporters' Shield.

A NEW HOME IN BRIDGEVIEW

WELCOME TO TOYOTA PARK!

After Soldier Field needed renovations, the Fire moved to Cardinal Stadium in 2004. After receiving bids, the Village of Bridgeview was awarded the rights to build Toyota Park, a soccer-specific stadium that would be the home of the Chicago Fire. Opening in 2006, the Fire hosted New England Revolution in the opening contest, coming to a 3-3 draw. That same season saw the Fire win their first trophy in their new home when they claimed their fourth Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup on home soil. Toyota Park - now SeatGeek Stadium - holds significance in MLS history as one of the first soccer-specific venues, showcasing that MLS was finally growing in the United States.

OPEN CUP LEGENDS

1998, 2000, 2003, 2006

Chicago Fire FC has a rich history of success in Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup play. Winners of four championships in 1998, 2000, 2003 and 2006, the Fire are tied for the most Open Cup titles by a Major League Soccer franchise, tied with Seattle Sounders FC and Sporting Kansas City.

The Chicago Fire holds the record for most wins in the competition and has the most semifinal appearances in the history of the tournament for an MLS club.

THE ORIGINALS & THE LEGENDS

A WINNING CULTURE IN CHICAGO

Since the Club's inception, only three players have been members of every trophy the Fire have won - C.J. Brown, Chris Armas, and Zach Thornton. Brown is the all-time leader in games played and is currently involved with the Fire, transitioning from assistant coach to a community role within the Club. Thornton returned to the Fire in December 2022 as the First Team goalkeeper coach, while Armas was recently named as the new head coach for the Colorado Rapids.

THE LEGEND OF BLANCO

Looking to build on its early success, Chicago signed Mexican superstar Cuauhtémoc Blanco to a Designated Player contract on April 3, 2007. One of five El Tri players to ever suit up for the Fire, Blanco was a game-changing acquisition on and off the field for the Club and helped to provide a significant boost for Major League Soccer with his arrival to the Fire.

In three seasons with Chicago, Blanco notched 16 goals and 26 assists in 62 regular season appearances and led the Fire to three straight trips to the Eastern Conference Finals.

CLUB HISTORY

MOST VALUABLE PLAYER

MIKE MAGEE MAKES CLUB HISTORY

On May 25, 2013, the Chicago Fire announced a trade that would catapult the team into the national conversation. The Fire announced that they acquired two-time MLS Cup Champion and Chicago native Mike Magee in a trade with the L.A. Galaxy. In two seasons with the Fire, Magee recorded 39 appearances with the 'Men in Red' and tallied 22 goals, 8 assists before returning to Los Angeles for the 2015 season. In the 2013 campaign, Magee became the first and only Fire player to win the MLS Most Valuable Player award after scoring 15 goals and tallying four assists in 22 appearances for the Fire.

FUSSBALLGOTT IN CHICAGO

BASTIAN SCHWEINSTEIGER COMES TO THE FIRE

On March 21, 2017, the Chicago Fire announced the signing of one of the most influential football players in the world. The Fire acquired longtime German superstar Bastian Schweinsteiger as a Designated Player. Prior to joining Chicago, Schweinsteiger cemented his legacy as one of the greatest players of his generation, when he won the 2014 FIFA World Cup as the captain of Germany. On April 1, 2017, Schweinsteiger scored on his MLS debut in the 17th minute in a 2-2 draw against the Montreal Impact at SeatGeek Stadium.

NIKO MAGIC #### NEMANJA NIKOLIĆ WINS THE GOLDEN BOOT

In December of 2016, the Fire announced the signing of Designated Player Nemanja Nikolić. The striker made an immediate impact on the Club in his first year, scoring the most goals in a single season in Club history (24) en route to winning the 2017 MLS Golden Boot award.

He remains the only Fire player to ever win the MLS Golden Boot award. Additionally, Nikolić finished his career with the Fire by scoring 51 goals across three seasons, ranking as the second-highest goal scorer in Club history.

20 YEARS IN THE MAJORS

CHICAGO HOSTS THE MLS ALL-STAR GAME

As part of the Club's 20th anniversary celebration, the 2017 MLS All-Star Game was hosted in Chicago, with the top players in the League facing off against Spanish giants Real Madrid at Soldier Field.

The Fire were represented by four players in the match against Madrid - Nemanja Nikolić, Johan Kappelhof, Dax McCarty and Bastian Schweinsteiger - as the MLS All-Stars fell narrowly on penalty kicks. The MLS All-Stars were coached by then Fire head coach Veljko Paunović.

JOE MANSUETO

TEAM OWNER, CHAIRMAN

Joe Mansueto is Owner and Chairman of Chicago Fire FC. Since acquiring the Club in September 2019, he has made significant changes - including moving the team back to Soldier Field - that have created renewed excitement for Fire fans across Chicagoland.

Prior to owning the Fire, Mansueto founded Morningstar in 1984 and became executive chairman in 2017. He has served as chairman of the board of directors from the company's inception, and as chief executive officer from 1984 to 1996 and again from 2000 to 2016. Before founding Morningstar, Mansueto was a securities analyst at Harris Associates. He holds a bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Chicago and a master's degree in business administration from the University of Chicago Booth School of Business. Mansueto was formerly a member of the board of directors for Whole Foods Market, Inc.

Mansueto, his wife, Rika, and their children live in Chicago.

WE'RE COMING HOME

CHICAGO FIRE FC RETURNS TO SOLDIER FIELD

In 2019, on the Club's anniversary on October 8th, the Fire formally announced that it would be returning to Soldier Field after a 13-year absence. Held on the pitch at Soldier Field, the announcement featured Owner and Chairman Joe Mansueto, MLS Commissioner Don Garber, and local city leaders. One of the first major moves under Mansueto's ownership, the return to Soldier Field brought the Fire back to its original home and in the heart of the city. Due to COVID-19, the Fire's first match at Soldier Field in 2020 would take place nearly a year after the announcement on Aug. 25, 2020. Ignacio Aliseda, Fabian Herbers and Alvaro Medran each scored in a convincing 3-0 win over FC Cincinnati.

THE YOUTH MOVEMENT

THE FIRE PRIORITIZE HOMEGROWN TALENT & SCOUTING

Since 2020, under the leadership of sporting director Georg Heitz, the Fire have signed and developed a plethora of domestic and international talent. This includes standout Homegrown Players such as Chris Brady, Brian Gutiérrez, Djordje Mihailović, Mauricio Pineda and Gaga Slonina, as well as highly touted young international players like Jhon Durán, Maren Haile-Selassie, Federico Navarro, Carlos Terán and others.

Chicago's ability to sign and develop top young players was on full display in 2022 when Slonina and Durán were sold for record fees during the same transfer window to English Premier League clubs Chelsea FC and Aston Villa, respectively, after serving as key players for the Fire.

A NEW DIRECTION FOR THE FIRE

JOE MANSUETO HIRES GEORG HEITZ AND SEBASTIAN PELZER

Joining the Fire on Dec. 20, 2019, Chicago Fire FC announced highly accomplished football executive Georg Heitz as the Club's Sporting Director. Heitz oversees all aspects of the Club's football operations, including First Team, Chicago Fire FC II and Chicago Fire Academy decisions. Soon after, the Club hired Sebastian Pelzer as the Technical Director. Pelzer scouts and evaluate players locally and abroad; help establish as well as help with the football operations budget and team salary cap.

A CREST FOR ALL CHICAGO

CHICAGO FIRE FC UNVEIL A NEW CREST

In addition to moving stadiums, the Club also unveiled a new visual identity featuring a Fire Crown logo and officially changed its name to Chicago Fire Football Club prior to the start of the 2020 season. After supporters voiced opposition to the new crest, the Fire underwent an extensive fan engagement process to produce a new mark, created by logo designer Matthew Wolff. Representing a crest for all Chicago, the Fire's new badge was formally introduced on the 150th anniversary of the Great Chicago Fire on Oct. 8, 2021.

HISTORY AT SOLDIER FIELD

FIRE SET NEW ATTENDANCE RECORD

On Oct. 4, 2023, Chicago Fire FC set a major milestone in Club history. Hosting Eastern Conference foe, Inter Miami CF, the Fire sold out Soldier Field and set a new attendance record of 62,124 at home. The Fire capped off the historic night with a 4-1 victory, following a pair of braces from Maren Haile-Selassie and Designated Player Xherdan Shaqiri.

PERFORMANCE CENTER

A STATE-OF-THE-ART TRAINING FACILITY

Another major milestone under Mansueto's ownership took place on April 25, 2023, when the Club joined local city leaders to break ground on the team's brand-new performance center and training facility on the Near West Side. Slated to open in 2024, the new facility will include a 53,000 square-foot performance center, two-and-a-half hybrid grass pitches, and three synthetic turf pitches, providing a world-class training environment for the Fire's professional and Academy players and staff.

Additionally, the new facility is rooted in a true public-private partnership. The Fire will fully finance and construct the multi-million-dollar facility and is providing an $8 million community investment in housing, as well as long term employment for community members, resources for minority and women-owned businesses, free sports programming for local youth, and much more.

THE “RING OF FIRE”

10

PIOTR NOWAK

FORWARD

As the Fire's first-ever international player signing in December of 1997, big things were expected from Nowak, the fiery ex-captain of the Polish National Team and veteran of the German Bundesliga. Nowak exceeded all expectations in the club's inaugural season of 1998, leading by example with his intelligent and gritty play and natural leadership abilities. Nowak capped his incredible first season with the club by earning MVP honors in the Fire's 1998 MLS Cup victory and just days later capturing the “double” with a win over the Columbus Crew in the 1998 U.S. Open Cup. Nowak also led the Fire to another Open Cup title in 2000 before retiring in 2002.

INDUCTED ON: JUNE 28, 2003

LUBOŠ KUBÍK

MIDFIELDER

After success in some of Europe's top leagues and internationally for his native Czechoslovakia, Kubík brought his skills to the Fire when he was signed on February 19, 1998. The Czech's steady presence on the ball, lethal left foot and world-class marking ability made him an instant leader and one of the most skillful players to ever take the field in Major League Soccer. Kubík's remarkable 1998 season ended with the defender receiving several accolades, including the 1998 Fire Defender of the Year and 1998 BIC MLS Tough Defender of the Year awards and a spot on the 1998 MLS Best XI Team.

INDUCTED ON: AUGUST 6, 2005

FRANK KLOPAS

41

Klopas was signed by the Fire in 1998 and given a chance to end his professional career where it began - in his hometown. “Kid” Klopas played 40 games and scored 17 points on six goals and five assists for the “Men in Red” during the 1998 and 1999 seasons. Klopas ended the Fire's inaugural season in dramatic fashion with what still ranks as one of the club's most memorable moments on October 30, 1998, as his “golden goal” in overtime gave Chicago a 2-1 victory over the Columbus Crew in front of a rabid hometown crowd at Soldier Field.

INDUCTED ON: JUNE 5, 2004

PETER WILT

GENERAL MANAGER

GM

Peter Wilt was the founding general manager and long time president of the Chicago Fire who set the standard for expansion franchises on and off the field in 1998. Under Wilt, the Fire earned a spot in seven domestic Cup Finals in the club's first eight seasons. The Fire captured four championships (MLS Cup in 1998 and the U.S. Open Cup in 1998, 2000 and 2003), three division titles (2000, 2001 and 2003) and the Supporters Shield in 2003 during his tenure. He also led efforts to develop and design SeatGeek Stadium in Bridgeview, Illinois, the first 100% publicly funded soccer stadium in Major League Soccer.

INDUCTED ON: JULY 22, 2006

The “Ring of Fire” tribute began in 2003 in an effort to honor members of the Chicago Fire who have made the team a successful organization and who displayed the qualities the club embodies: leadership, dedication and integrity. The Fire's unique Hall of Fame - the first created by a Major League Soccer club - began in 2003, when Fire midfielder and captain Peter Nowak became the inaugural member. The Chicago Fire, in consultation with the current “Ring of Fire” members, select the next honoree.

The former Fire boss also led the "Men in Red" to three championship victories in that time: the 1998 MLS Cup and the 1998 and 2000 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cups. With Bradley at the helm, Chicago also finished atop the Central Division in the 2000 and 2001 campaigns. While with the Fire, Bradley's 82 victories made him the winningest coach in MLS history, a title he still holds today with 124 MLS career wins overall through nine seasons, including stints with the MetroStars (2003-2005) and Chivas USA (2006).

INDUCTED ON: AUGUST 4 2007

The club's all-time leader in competitive (372), MLS regular season (296), MLS Cup playoff (35) and U.S. Open Cup (26) appearances, Brown retired in 2010 as the last remaining "Fire Original" from the inaugural 1998 double-winning side. INDUCTED ON: MAY 9, 2012

CHRIS ARMAS

14

Armas helped the MLS expansion side win both the 1998 MLS Cup and the 1998 U.S. Open Cup to capture the coveted "Domestic Double". Through the next nine seasons as a player in Chicago, Armas led the Fire to three more U.S. Open Cup Championships (2000, 2003, 2006) and helped the Fire reach the MLS Cup Finals in 2000 and 2003. The seven-time MLS All-Star finished his decorated playing career for the Fire in 2007 having tallied 12 goals and 48 assists through 214 games played. Armas ranks in the top five on the Fire's all-time list with 42 assists (second), 13 game-winning assists (second), 19,018 minutes played (fifth), 214 games played (fifth), and 212 games started (fourth).

ZACH THORNTON

GOALKEEPER

Chicago Fire FC announced on February 10, 2024, that former Fire goalkeeper and current goalkeeper coach Zach has been officially inducted into the Club's Hall of Fame, known as the Ring of Fire. Thornton is the first goalkeeper inducted into the Ring of Fire and the ninth member overall.

A seventh-round pick in the 1996 MLS Inaugural Player Draft, he spent two years with the New York/New Jersey MetroStars before the Fire acquired him with the 11th pick in the 1997 MLS Expansion Draft. After earning the starting job in the Fire's inaugural season, he was named the League's Goalkeeper of the Year as the Club took home the 1998 MLS Cup and 1998 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup titles. The Fire remains the only expansion team in League history to win the domestic double in their first season.

He continued his reign as one of the top goalkeepers in MLS during his initial six-year stint with the Fire, earning three MLS All-Star bids (1998, 1999, 2000). He was also a part of the Club's U.S. Open Cup championship teams in 1998, 2000, and 2003. After a year abroad, he returned to the Club in late 2004 and spent two more years as the Fire's shot-stopper. #### AL HACK (1951-2010)

INDUCTED ON: JUNE 4, 2011

Being introduced to the game by a co-worker, Al Hack became a longtime supporter of soccer in Chicago, attending Sting and Power games, as well as attending 1994 World Cup matches at Soldier Field before the Chicago Fire's inaugural season in 1998. The game of soccer provided a strong familial connection for Al, attending games with his wife Vivian and daughters Nicole and Allie as well as taking up coaching duties for their recreational teams when no one else was available. Al tragically passed away from a heart attack on February 14, 2010 but his love of the game and the Fire carries on through his family.

LAUREN BOVIS (1979-2015)

INDUCTED ON: MAY 14, 2022

Lauren spoke about the Fire to anyone who would listen - at parties, at lunch, or on the phone. She enjoyed the team's ups and downs, wins and losses, banter and comments. She was a teacher for eleven years, often using soccer-related themes for her classes. She loved math, as shown in her ability to speak to the team's stats sometimes with vigor. Lauren had many great times at Fire games and events with her special soccer friends, Lindsay and Tatiana. She loved the special events and wore her team apparel all of the time, and often gave the items as gifts. The Fire were "her team." Soccer helped her through many tough times.
