

CREDENTIALS

- Media members may apply for single-game matches, as well as season credentials by filling out the form located here. Credential applications must be submitted no later than 48 hours from match kickoff.
- The club will credential a limited number of non-rights media personnel, subject to the availability of media positions in the press seating areas, photographer, videographer and TV crew areas, as well as the photo workroom.
- Applications from freelance writers, photographers or videographers must come from a direct supervisor validating professional and editorial need for media access.
- Media members may not use credentials for preferential access, such as autographs, photographs or personal requests. Violations will result in potential loss of credential for any future match.

PROFESSIONALISM

- While on assignment at either training or match day, media is expected to dress professionally, meaning no jerseys or team representation of any kind.
- Failure to comply may result in loss of credential
- Media members may not use credentials for preferential access, such as autographs, photographs or personal requests. Violation will result in immediate loss of credential for any future match.

MEDIA ENTRANCE

- All media personnel must enter the stadium through Gate G on matchday. (SW 20th Ave., along the west side of Providence Park). Gate G will open two hours prior to kickoff on matchday

PRESS BOX

- The press box is located above the seating bowl along the west side of the stadium. To get to the press box from the media entrance, enter the seating bowl from the concourse and take the stairs up through section 222 until you reach the gated walkway. The walkway leads directly to the press box. For media members needing elevator access, please use the suite elevator located on the northwest corner of the concourse. Media will have assigned seats in the press box.

PHOTO, VIDEO AND BROADCAST

- Approved photographers, videographers and TV crews will be permitted to shoot the match from assigned positions. Media members may not shoot in the stands or on the concourse without prior approval from the PR team.
- Under no circumstance can media members sit in front of the field boards.
- There is no photo access behind the goals without prior approval from a member of the PR team.
- Photographers and videographers are not allowed to shoot inside of the six-yard box.
- Media members are encouraged to stay on one endline during match play. Due to field seating, the east sideline is strictly off limits. Media are allowed to use the east sideline to pass from one end of the field to the other. The concrete area in the northeast corner near the photo work room is available for media to access when space is available during the run of play.
- Media members will only be allowed to cross the west sideline behind the benches during warm-ups, halftime or postgame when permitted by the PR team. The west sideline is off limits during the match for any non-club personnel.
- Due to limited space at Providence Park, photographers and videographers may only shoot from behind the field boards. Media should not utilize camera well platforms in the seating bowl to shoot the match without advanced approval from the communications staff. In addition, media are not permitted to shoot photos or video from the press box.
- Photographers, with the exception of club content staff and MLS Rights Holders, are not allowed on the pitch at any time, including warmups.
- At no point should photographers, videographers or TV crews enter the playing field, locker rooms, or other restricted areas proximate to players, coaches or club delegation members.

POST-GAME PRESS CONFERENCES

- The home team post-game press conference will be conducted in the Media Conference Room (MCR) approximately 15 minutes after the final whistle.
- The MCR is located on the inside concourse on field level, near the northwest corner of the field. Media coming from the pressbox are advised to take the suite elevator to field level to access the MCR.
- Should you have a specific player request for postgame, please alert a member of the Timbers PR staff
