

KNOCKOUT MEDIA ACCREDITATION

Media wishing to attend a match should apply by 5 p.m. EST, two days prior to KO stage matches. No late applications or changes will be accepted after those dates.

Please note the following when applying for credentials:

- No credential applications will be accepted after the deadline.
- Credentials per organization will be limited.
- Field access is available for photographers with professional-grade equipment only. No other media members, including non-rights TV crews, will receive field access.
- All approved media will have access to the press box and post-match media work areas, such as the press conference.
- Photo agencies must be on assignment from a specific news outlet and must provide written proof from assignment or photo editor.
- Media present at the venue must follow all Leagues Cup and stadium guidelines.
- Media who are approved for credentials should not wear apparel supporting any of the competing teams.
- All event rights-holders should contact Johanna Rojas at johanna.rojas@mlssoccer.com for the application process.
- Non-rights media will be required to follow the Leagues Cup Media Guidelines as part of the credentialing process.

For further media credential information, please contact Erika Mach, erika.mach@leaguescup.com.
